(b) Books, pamphlets or other printed or written matter, paintings or illustrations, figures or other objects of an obscene or indecent character, or subversive of public order.
(c) Roulette wheels, gambling outfits, apparatus and devices.
(d) Impure, filthy and munitions, when not imported for or by the Government.

NICARAGUA AND GREAT BRITAIN.

A commercial convention between Great Britain and Nicaragua was signed at Managua on the 28th July, 1905, and ratified at London on the 24th August, 1906.

By this treaty mutual most-favoured-nation treatment as regards import and export duties, and as regards all prohibitions and restriction on importation and exportation, is provided for; exception being made, however, in the case of certain advantages accorded by Nicaragua to the Central American Republics only.

As regards trade and navigation generally, national treatment is accorded, except in the case of coasting trade. National and most-favoured-nation treatment is reciprocally accorded in all that relates to exemption from transit duties, warehousing, bounties, facilities, and drawbacks.

Art. II. of the treaty provides that the free port privileges at the Port of San Juan del Norte are to be abolished, but the port is to remain open to trade on the same footing as the other ports of the Republic. By a protocol annexed to the treaty, the Nicaraguan Government agrees to give Customs-house bonds to the merchants at the port in question for a sum equal to the duties on their goods, paid in commercial tax, during the last 10 years. These bonds will be accepted in payment of Customs duties.

In accordance with the most-favoured-nation clause of this treaty, the reduction of 25% of the Customs duties conceded by Nicaragua in respect of a number of articles of French production, under the French-Nicaraguan Convention of 1903, will be extended to similar articles of British production. The following are the articles in question:—

Dry wines of 14° and under; champagne; mineral waters, carbonate, hydrosulphate, bromide, hydrochlorate, sulphate, or valerate of quinine; medicinal wines and other wines composed of quinine; olive oil for the table; mustard, ground or prepared; powders of all kinds for condiments; preserved truffles; sauces of all kinds; olives; capers, pickles; preserved fruits; vegetables, and tubers, not specified; dried fruits; fruits preserved in liquors or in their own juice or in syrup; crystallized fruits; skins and leathers—sheep, morocco, chamois, varnished and waxed calf, goat and other skins not enumerated; leather gloves; pigskins and imitation thereof; shoemakers' thread; stuffs for slippers; ribbons for shoes; shoe laces; boot and shoe elastics of wool or cotton; woollen or cotton sewing for slippers; shoemakers' knives; eyelets and lugs for boots and shoes; ornaments of gear; laces of all kinds; boot buttons; bath brushes, solid or liquid; nails and rivets; woollen cushioners and cloths; satins and other tissues of pure wool for men's clothing, with or without silk threads or stripes; surgical instruments; office requisites not enumerated; silk or woollen alpaca for clothing; carpets of vegetable fibres.

The treaty came into effect ten days after the exchange of ratifications (i.e., on the 3rd September), and is to remain in force for a period of ten years, and thereafter until one year after denunciation by either contracting party.

NICARAGUA AND FRANCE.

Convention ratified on 3rd September, 1903, in force until a year after denunciation by either contracting party. In return for certain privileges accorded to goods of Nicaraguan origin, Nicaragua has agreed to admit certain articles from France, Algeria, the French colonies and possessions, and the Protectorates of Indo-China and Tunis at a reduction of 25% of the Customs duty on imports from Nicaragua.

These articles are enumerated in a list annexed to the Convention, and include dry wines of 14° and under; champagne; certain preparations of quinine; mineral waters; olive (table) oil; various condiments; dried and preserved fruits and vegetables; certain skins; certain woollen tissues, &c. Raw materials for soap works and printed books and newspapers are declared free of duty.

MONEY, WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.

The monetary unit is the silver peso (100 centavos).
For weights and measures the metrical system has been adopted.

IMPORTATION.

Save in the case of wool for building purposes, which is dutiable per 1,000 square feet, all goods enumerated in this Tariff are assessed for duty on gross weight per half kilogramme.

Note.—Importers must have to pay for the cartage and stowage of goods a tax of 50 centavos per 100 kilos, which the customs shall levy at the time of passing each import entry. (Decree No. 56, of March 11, 1903.)

* Decree of March 1, 1902, Relative to the Importation of Alcohol ("La Gaceta," No. 2168, of March 31, 1902).—Art. 1.—No. 60 of the Customs Tariff shall read as follows: "There shall be charged two pesos for every half kilogramme of imported alcohol. Proprietors of pharmacies may import each year 30 gallons of alcohol for exclusive use of their establishment, and this alcohol shall be charged as medicine in their chemical pure. Art. 2.—If they import more than 30 gallons, they shall pay two pesos for every half kilogramme in excess of said quantity. Art. 3.—In order to benefit by the regime referred to, the proprietors of pharmacies shall apply to the Ministry of Finance and substantiate their application by producing the corresponding invoices for the alcohol to be imported.

Decree of April 2, 1903.—Art. 1.—The importation of ordinary intoxicating liquors is prohibited. Art. 2.—The following liquors are considered as ordinary, under the provisions of this law: Whisky, cognac, rum, aniseed and gin, put up in casks, barrels, kegs or demijohns, or when put up in bottles containing less than 210 Carthier of alcoholic strength, or when in the countries of their origin their price be less than $1 (gold) per litre or $0.70 (gold) per bottle, or if their selling price do not exceed 60 ¢ of that of brandy and of liquors on which there is a monopoly.

Goods.

Duty
Colon etc.

ART. 2.—All goods not enumerated in the present Tariff shall be dutiable at the rate of the articles which they most closely resemble; unenumerated articles or goods consisting of various articles shall pay the rate applicable to the predominating material, and failing such predominating material, they shall be dutiable according to the material paying the highest rate of duty.

ART. 3.—The duties shall be payable on gross weight, if the Tariff provides that the goods are chargeable on weight, without any deduction for packing or receptacle. If a receptacle is liable to a higher rate of duty than its contents, it shall be assessed separately.

ART. 4.—Postal parcels shall pay as a minimum the sum of 50 centimes even though the amount of duty may be less, and the general rate shall always apply.

ART. 5.—Imported goods shall pay inclusive of all duties, the rates leviable thereon under the Tariff, besides the quantity of 1 centime per kilogramme, save as to the goods classed under Nos. 1, 103, 105, 106, and 107.

Goods which under contracts or special Laws are admitted duty-free, shall pay the Consular fees, in conformity with the provisions of Law No. 32, dated January 24, 1907, except as to those which such contract or Decree should expressly exempt from payment of said fees.

REPUBLIC OF PANAMA

MONEY, WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.—The monetary unit is the Balboa (100 centesimos). For weights and measures the metric system is in force.

LAW 39 OF 1915.

The National Assembly of Panama decrees:—

ART. 1.—Foreign merchandise or articles of commerce imported for sale or consumption in the Republic are subject to the payment of a tax called "commercial tax."

ART. 2.—All merchandise and articles of commerce will be considered as of foreign origin which are imported from other countries, and which may be brought from boats which voluntarily or through necessity touch on ports.

ART. 3.—All merchandise and articles of commerce imported into the Republic from another country must come supported by the following documents legalized by the Panamanian consuls:—The manifest drawn up by the captain of the ship, the purser or agent of the company to which the ship belongs; bills of lading and a detailed invoice of the merchandise. When a ship is despatched by American officials for the ports of Cristobal or Balboa, although these ships may bring merchandise or effects of any class consigned to Colon or Panama, the manifests will always be presented to the said officials at Cristobal or Balboa, but a copy of these manifests will be forwarded to the authorities of the ports of Colon or Balboa, according to the case, for the annotation and watching of the cargo consigned to those ports.

ART. 4.—Imported foreign goods will pay the commercial tax once only upon arrival at the port where they are imported in conformity with the tariff this law establishes.

ART. 5.—For the purpose of collecting the said commercial tax, merchandise or articles are divided into the four following classes:—

- Class 1. Articles free from the payment of the tax.
- Class 2. Articles taxed with 10% and 20%.
- Class 3. Articles taxed with a specific tariff.
- Class 4. Articles whose importation is prohibited.

To Class 1 belong:

- 1 Mineral coal.
- 2 Live animals imported for improving the races.
- 3 Ploughs, rakes, hoes and other tools, and machinery for the direct and exclusive agricultural use.
- 4 Machinery for the manufacture and refining of sugar cane and for coffee, cocoa, rice, rubber and tobacco.
- 5 Machinery for the conservation of fruits prepared in the Republic for exportation, for the conservation of meat and hams, and in general all classes of refrigerators.

- 6 Machinery for saw mills, brick kilns and potteries; for boring and extraction of mineral oils, for digging artesian wells and opening and maintaining navigation and irrigation canals.
- 7 Machinery and raw materials for the manufacture of cloths, soaps, candles, matches and electric light.
- 8 Shoe-making machinery and machinery for the extraction of dyes and resins.
- 9 Locomotives, machines, rails and other rolling stock and accessories for the construction and maintenance of railroads, also stone crushers and rollers for the construction and maintenance of roads.
- 10 Ships set up in sections, brought for navigating the waters of the Republic under the national flag.
- 11 Guano and all classes of natural and artificial fertilizers used in agriculture; asphalt or bitumen of Judea, sulphate, bisulphate and bisulphide of coal; special insecticides and machinery for the destruction of insect pests.
- 12 Seeds, orchids and all useful live plants.
- 13 Hard wheat used in making spaghetti.
- 14 Ice and pure vaccine virus.
- 15 Iron, steel or other metal apparatus for lightning conductors.
- 16 Gas and electric light meters, lamps for public use, and other lighting apparatus designed for the same use; monuments, statues, monuments and fountains in stone, marble, bronze or other metals to be used for decorating parks, squares, streets, graveyards and public roads.
- 17 Objects imported by municipal councils for adornment, public use or honor.
- 18 Educational material imported by heads of private schools and carried on by the Secretary of Public Instruction, provided the schools are approved according to the legal requirements and programmes.
- 19 Effects for establishments of charity, provided the requests have been approved by the Secretary of Public Works and have been made by the president of the board of directors under oath that they will be put to no other use.
- 20 Articles imported by the National Government, those imported by the President of the Republic for his private use and those imported by diplomatic agents accredited to the Republic.
- 21 Binding and printing materials, ruled paper, lithographic, photo-engraving, &c. materials, with ink and paper for newspapers and for printing books.
- 22 Pipes and other materials for aqueducts and public sewers.
- 23 Books, papers and printed matter which come through the mail.
- 24 Seals, advertisements, almanacs, and other printed matter of no commercial value.

- 25 Scientific instruments intended solely for the use for which they were made and in no case for speculation. Machinery, wheat and raw material for the manufacture of flour.
- 26 Articles imported by the American Government in conformity with the Treaty of November 18, 1903.
- 27 Articles exempt from payment of duty owing to contracts made with the government, but the orders of these articles must first be submitted to the Secretary of Finance, who shall assure himself that they are necessary to the business placing of the order, and shall examine them on arrival to assure himself that they are the articles ordered and they will be used for the purpose stated.
- 28 Passengers' baggage. By baggage is meant (a) Objects which a traveller brings with him in the same ship in which he arrives, as clothes, shoes, watch, bed, arms, professional tools and instruments, with a total weight of 100 kilograms; (b) Used objects which immigrants are duty in addition to their baggage (c) Objects which are household furniture and the like, but in no case commercial articles. To enjoy this exception the immigrant must present a consular certificate stating that having been domiciled in a foreign country he comes to establish himself in this. To this certificate must be attached a consular invoice of the articles expressed in the preceding article. Baggage, jewelry, dramatic, equestrian and other travelling companies; scientific collection of natural history, coins, antiques or objects of art generally destined to public exhibition and foreign merchandise destined to commercial exhibitions held in this country. These exceptions will not be granted unless the interested party deposits the value of the duties on the said objects or gives bond for the same in the form. The amount of such duties will go definitely to the Treasury, if within the stipulated time, which can be reasonably extended, the said objects are not voluntarily re-shipped or it is proved that they have totally disappeared through use or death, according to the nature of the same.

ART. 7.—All merchandise and articles of commerce not specified in the first and third classes belong to the second class, and will be divided into two groups, Group A paying 10% ad val. and Group B paying 20% ad val. The following articles belong to Group A:—

Rice, flour, beans, alfalfa, bran, dried vegetables of all kinds, potatoes, onions and all kinds of cereals, olive oil, unskinned condensed milk, petroleum of 150° centigrade, cement, barbed wire for fencing, lathes, machetes and other workmen's tools, books and printed matter which do not come through the post, tape and hempen cloth for sacks and bags. Articles or effects of any class which enter into the manufacture of others whose raw material is exempt will pay 10% ad val. provided they are not classified in the special tariff.

All other articles belong to Group B.

ART. 8.—The 20% on articles in Group B mentioned in the previous article will not become effective without taking into account that provided for in Art. 121 of the Constitution, and after coming to an agreement with the government of the United States of America in accordance with what is laid down by the Taft Convention.

By a decree (No. 1123, dated November 12, 1915, the import duty fixed by Law No. 39 of 1915 is increased by 20% in respect of the following articles, viz:—

Spirits and liqueurs: essences for the manufacture of liqueurs or perfumers; bitters or aperitifs, champagne, cocktails &c.; tobacco, cigars and cigarettes.

To Class 4 belong:—

Opium, with the exception of that for medicinal purposes, the orders for which must be given with the permission of the Secretary of Finance, and quantity imported without the previous knowledge of that official will be confiscated by the government.

Arms and elements of war.

Purse or counterfeit money, and apparatus imported for making money without the express permission of the legal authorities.

The 10% and 20% duty to which merchandise of the second class are subject will be collected on the value shown on the consular invoices issued by the official appraisers, or on the value these fix when they consider the price on arrival of the goods in accordance with that of the merchandise at the same time and port of shipment. Therefore, every declaration shall be made on the base of the consular invoice viced by the official appraiser or on the value fixed by him.

ART. 12.—The importer of articles who has paid the Treasury the tax treated of in this law will have the right to a return of a proportional part thereof if he proves satisfactorily to the Secretary of Finance and Treasury, with a certificate from the respective chief of customs and other authorities, that for any reason these articles have decreased in quantity, either by robbery, breakage, decomposition, or for any other reason are not complete. When merchandise, liquors, or articles of any class are re-exported within six months after their importation into the Republic, or sold to vessels passing through the Canal at any time, 95% of the duty paid at the time of importation will be returned to the merchant.

ART. 11.—Import duties will not be returned when re-exportation is made within six months after importation, nor where the value of the goods re-exported is less than 50 balboas.

ART. 13.—In order to re-export, the interested party shall make request to the Treasury General of the Republic or the Administrators of Finance for permission to make the re-exportation, with the approval of the Secretary of Finance or the governor as the case may be.

ART. 16.—When the permit is granted, if no objection is made, notice shall be given to the respective inspector of the port, and the shipment of the articles shall take place in his presence or in the presence of the officer which is appointed by him and of another employee of the Treasury.

ART. 17.—The Treasurer-General or the Administrators of Finance, according to the case, shall issue a permit with the details of the merchandise or articles to be re-exported, their origin, date of importation, vessel, name of the captain, and shall state the port of destination, consignee, number of packages, contents, value, marks, name of the shipper and the person responsible for the exportation. This permit is to be signed by the consignee, the port of destination, and the Panamanian consul or consular agent resident there shall authenticate the signature of the said consignee. The Treasurer General at Panama and the Administrators of Finance at Colon and Bocas del Toro, according to the case, shall fix a time for each re-exporter for the return of the permits so issued, taking into account the distance from the place of shipment to the place of discharge.

ART. 18.—Consular or consular agents of the Republic shall collect for the Treasury $1.00 for the authentication of each signature.

ART. 19.—For the return of 95% of the duties mentioned in Art. 13, an account shall be presented against the National Treasury for the amount of the said duties. The account shall be compared with the settlement made for payment of the said duties at the time of importation, and with the return of the permit mentioned in Art. 17. This account shall be viced by the respective inspector of the port and the Secretary of Finance and Treasury, or the governors in Colon and Bocas del Toro shall order payment to be made.

ART. 20.—In cases where it is known publicly that the ship in which the re-shipment was made has been wrecked, and that the merchandise has been lost, the 95% of the duties shall also be returned. The loss or sinking shall be proved by the testimony of three competent witnesses.

ART. 21.—If merchandise is imported for re-exportation is forced, or is again imported into the Republic, except in the case of force majeure, it will pay import duties again. If it is discovered that there was malice in requesting permission for the re-exportation of merchandise covering the fraudulent intention of securing return of duties, the merchandise shall be confiscated and a fine double the value imposed on the person requesting permission for the re-exportation.

ART. 22.—Merchandise arriving on the Equinox on the through bill of lading en route to foreign countries is not subject to the payment of the commercial tax. With this exception, for the exemption of the payment of the tax, only those goods shall be considered in transit which come to persons or business men established in ports of the Republic, to be sent to another country immediately after arrival, and it is proved that they arrived under those conditions.

ART. 23.—In the cases mentioned in the previous article, the consignee of the articles shall immediately notify of their arrival and shall request at the same time permission to effect the transit through the consular documents to prove the effects have arrived in transit. Permission granted, there shall be deposited in the Treasury-General of the Republic, as a bond, the value of the import duties to be paid, which shall be refunded upon presentation of the landing certificates showing that the goods have reached their destination.

ART. 24.—Permits to effect the despatch of merchandise in transit shall be obtained in the form described in Art. 17 of this law.

ART. 25.—The importation of goods or articles introduced through the port of Panama, which for some good cause do not come supported by consular documents, remain subject to the payment of the simple consular fees in addition to the commercial tax, and no declaration tending to have merchandise so introduced considered as in transit will be accepted. Every person shall be considered as an importer of hats of tepalcates straw who brings a quantity greater than is considered necessary for his personal use.

ART. 26.—Persons who introduce, or try to introduce secretly, merchandise taxed by this law, or who present invoices or sworn statements in which the value of the articles is altered, or in which one article is substituted for another, or who in any manner attempt to evade the complete payment of the corresponding tax, or who try to introduce or to trade in merchandise of which the importation is prohibited, are subject to the following penalties: Double duties, a fine of $100 to $500 and the confiscation of the merchandise.

ART. 27.—The penalties fixed in the preceding article shall be imposed administratively by the collector of the commercial tax, once the fraud or attempted fraud is proved, without other appeal than that entered before the Secretary of Finance and Treasury. The superior, having revised in the course of the appeal the proceedings created by the imposition of the fine, and heard the answers of the person fined, will approve, modify, or disapprove the said imposition.

ART. 28.—The penalty of double duties and proportional fine will be imposed in all cases of fraud or attempted fraud. In addition the loss of the merchandise and of the vessel in which it is brought will be jointly decreed when introduced secretly at a port other than that qualified as the destination in the manifest, or at a point or hours other than those fixed, or without the corresponding documents. In the case of extraction, shipment, or transportation of foreign merchandise for the coasting trade, or for re-exportation, made at unqualified ports, at points, or hours other than those fixed or without the corresponding documents, and in cases of repetition or bribery, the same penalty will be applied.

ART. 29.—Manifests fees will be collected by the consuls of the Republic, reduced in accordance with the Taft Convention to $6.00 for the first 100 packages and $1.20 for each remaining 100 packages; but manifests in which only articles of iron, steel, copper, zinc, wood, tiles and the like are noted will pay only $6.00 no matter what the quantity shipped.

ART. 30.—In the case of goods despatched by American officials for canal zone ports, with the merchandise or effects of any class destined to Colon or Panama, the consuls of the Republic shall collect the manifest fees from such shipper to Colon or Panama, calculating them according to the consular invoice in which the cargo is detailed.

ART. 31.—Previous dispositions contrary to the present law are revoked.

TARIFF.]

GENERAL RULES FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE TARIFF.

Goods specifically mentioned in the Tariff Index.

I.—All goods mentioned in the Tariff Index annexed to the Tariff shall pay the duty stipulated in the heading of the Tariff to which they are referred.

Classification of goods not specified in the Tariff.

II.—Goods which are not mentioned in the Tariff nor in the Tariff Index shall be classified for duty by analogy or similarity to some class of goods specified in the Tariff, and the rules laid down in the Customs Regulations ("Ordenanza de Aduanas") for the assimilation of unspecified goods shall be followed.

Definition of the expressions "of all kinds" and "not specially mentioned" found in the Tariff.

III.—Goods mentioned in the Tariff or in the Tariff Index and accompanied by the words "of all kinds" shall pay the duties stipulated in the heading where they are specified, even if such goods are combined with some other materials, except precious metals. Goods may only contain gold, silver, or platinum without change of Tariff classification in cases where the Tariff heading covering the goods expressly provides for such combination.

The expression "not specially mentioned" is used to avoid confusion with goods which, though of the same general description or of the same materials, are classified in the Tariff or Tariff Index under a separate heading by reason of certain special features which distinguish them from goods "not specially mentioned."

Thus, in certain cases, goods may be described as "of all kinds, not specially mentioned."

Classification of articles, not specially mentioned, made of two or more materials.

IV.—Articles composed of two or more materials, and which are not expressly mentioned in the Tariff or Tariff Index, shall pay the duty applicable to the material which predominates in weight, except in the case of goods containing skin, silk, ornaments or accessories of gold, silver, platinum or gilt or silvered metal.

The predominating material shall only be determined by the Customs in cases where the various materials forming the article can be separated without destroying the article. When this cannot be so done, it is open to the importer, verbally and at the time of Customs clearance, to authorize the separation of the different parts, even if the articles examined are not damaged, if his interests are so served, as, for example, in the case of goods (such as padlocks, banners, handles for umbrellas, &c.) which are imported in large consignments which would otherwise pay, in excess duty at the higher rate, a sum obviously greater than the value of the articles examined.

When this examination cannot be made, such articles shall pay the highest rate of duty applicable to the various component parts.

Classification of articles not fitted together.

V.—When an article composed of various parts specified in the Tariff or Tariff Index is presented in an unmounted condition, and each part is declared separately, the duties shall be assessed at the rates applicable to each part, even if all the parts are in the same bale, &c., but provided they are wrapped up separately.

Articles combined with scientific apparatus are subject to duty.

VI.—Scientific apparatus (such as barometers, thermometers, or others, fitted or mounted in articles such as statues, candle-lights, ink-tans, clocks, &c., &c.), shall pay the duty applicable to the article of which they form part.

Net weight.

VII.—By net weight is to be understood the actual weight of the goods without interior packing and without receptacles or wrappings.

Legal weight.

VIII.—By legal weight is to be understood the weight of the articles including that of the interior packing, wrappings, labels, boxes of cardboard, wool, or tin plate, straw or chip covers, in which the goods are packed inside the outer case which serves as the general receptacle for the goods.

When articles dutiable on legal weight have no interior packing and are imported loose (in bulk) inside the outer receptacle, alone or with the lining or loss of zinc sheet or tin plate which is usually placed within the outer receptacle for the better preservation of the contents, the actual weight of the goods shall be taken as the legal weight. In reckoning the weight of the goods, no account shall be taken of the loose straw or chip in which parcels may be stowed inside the general or outer receptacle, nor of the weight of such outer case.

Gross weight.

IX.—By gross weight is to be understood the weight of the goods including all their internal or outer packings or wrappings, without deduction for any loose straw, &c., mats or hoops.

Gross weight of goods "in bulk" or in dutiable receptacles.

X.—Goods dutiable on gross weight shall pay duty on the actual weight of the goods when they arrive without wrappings or packings, or contained in receptacles which are liable to Customs duty.

Measurements of fringes and hems to be included.

XI.—When articles with fringes are dutiable by the square metre, the measurements are to include the fringes.

When duty is payable on the net weight in relation with the square metre, the fringes are also to be included.

In the case of tissues such as handkerchiefs, sheets, towels, &c., having a hem more than 1 cm. in width, the dimensions which are to be declared and which are to serve as basis for the assessment of duty shall include the cloth used for the hems—but only the visible part thereof.

Ordinary receptacles not to pay duty apart from contents.

XII.—As ordinary receptacles shall be regarded jars, bottles or flasks of earthenware or glass, drums of iron, zinc, tin, copper or lead, boxes of wool, cardboard or tin plate, &c., which are suitable for the goods they contain and which do not, in themselves, constitute merchandise imparting an augmented value to the contents, and which have no special use apart from the contents.

When goods contained in ordinary receptacles are dutiable on net weight, number or measurement, such receptacles shall not be subject to any import duty.

If the goods contained therein are dutiable according to gross weight, then such ordinary receptacles shall pay duty at the rate applicable to the contents.

Special receptacles which are liable to higher duties than their contents are to be declared separately.

XIII.—Receptacles other than the common receptacles referred to in Rule XII, which obviously do not correspond with the goods which they contain (whether because they possess a separate commercial value, or because they are "luxury" or "luxury" packing, or because they even exceed otherwise than as packings, and which, taken separately, would be subject to a higher rate of duty than the contents, must be declared separately for the purpose of the levy of duty at the appropriate rate.

Specified outer packings to be dutiable.

XIV.—When articles specified in the Tariff (such as money boxes, trunks, valises, firmings, &c.), as imported, constitute outer packings of other goods, they shall pay the duty to which they are liable according to the Tariff, and no allowance shall be made in respect thereof as tare.

Classification of cloths or cloth socks used for covering goods.

XV.—Cloths which are used as protective coverings for goods inside packages must be declared and must pay the duty prescribed therefor in the Tariff whatever be the quantity or kind of the cloth, except in the case of waterproof, oiled or tarred cloths which serve the sole purpose of protecting the goods from outside moisture and are present only in a quantity strictly necessary for this purpose. Nor is any declaration for payment of duty necessary in respect of coarse interior sacks of late cloth or of white and plain cotton cloth, when goods have a double receptacle, as in the case of paraffin wax, sulphur, &c., where there is an outer sack and also an inner one.

When goods imported in double packing are dutiable on legal weight the interior sack shall be included in such legal weight.

Cloths and articles of linen mixed with cotton.

XVI.—Cloths and articles of linen, hemp or similar vegetable fibres containing an admixture of cotton in any proportion, which are not provided for in the Tariff or Tariff Index, shall pay the duties applicable to cloths and articles of pure linen.

Tissues of wool with admixture other than silk or precious metal.

XVII.—Tissues of wool with shawers ("llores") or other material (except precious metals), and also those tissues which contain, in the texture, an admixture of cotton, artificial silk, linen, hemp or other similar vegetable fibre, in any proportion, shall pay the duty applicable to tissues of pure wool.

Ribbons of mixed silk.

XVIII.—Only ribbons in which the warp or weft is composed wholly of threads of cotton, linen or wool shall be regarded as ribbons of silk with admixture of cotton, linen or wool.

Tissues and articles of silk with admixture of wool.

XIX.—As tissues and articles of silk with admixture of cotton, linen, or wool shall be considered those in which the admixture occurs throughout the texture or in various parts thereof. Those which contain such admixture only in the borders shall pay the duties applicable to cloths or articles of pure silk.

Definition of "cortes de vestido."

XX.—As "cortes de vestido" are to be considered those articles which (packed in cardboard boxes or otherwise) are disposed, pinned or tacked (showing the shape of the blouse or skirt, &c.), and of which the trimmings are so arranged that the article, as presented to the Customs, is properly displayed and can be seen to be intended to form a particular garment. Otherwise, if it is only a question of tissues not disposed in the form of a garment and with trimmings separate or so arranged that form of a garment and with trimmings separate or so arranged that separate use may be made of them, then the tissue shall be subject to duty according to kind, and the trimmings shall pay duty separately, according to kind.

Classification of cotton or linen handkerchiefs.

XXI.—Handkerchiefs of cotton or linen tissue, even if having merely an edging of tissue other than plain, or of open-worked or embroidered tissue, are to be regarded, and assessed for duty, as handkerchiefs made of tissue other than plain, or of open-worked or embroidered tissue, as the case may be.

Handkerchiefs are to be regarded as embroidered if they have "alfarces" or embroideries, however small these may be, and even if they only occur in the form of initials or ornaments in one corner.

When handkerchiefs have a plain chain-stitch in place of the hem, no account shall be taken of such chain-stitch, and the handkerchiefs shall pay the duty applicable, according to the kind of the cloth.

Handkerchiefs which have undergone the drawn work necessary to form the needlework known as "doblado de uña" shall not be considered as open-worked.

White handkerchiefs having borders, edgings, initials, names, or any other design or working in colour shall be classed as handkerchiefs made of coloured tissues.

Settings and mountings of earthenware and glassware.

XXII.—By "setting" or "mounting" is to be understood the metal part which is fixed to an article of glass or porcelain, which serves as an ornamentation or is a support, and which forms an integral part of the article.

The following are not regarded as "settings" or "mountings," viz.: screws, pins or screws which connect two or more parts, small knobs, nor lids of flasks, bottles, vases, jars or inkstands.

Classification of articles of metal painted or furnished with metallic coating.

XXIII.—Except in the case of gilt or silvered metal wares and of tinplate in painted sheets, all articles of metal coated with aluminium, copper or tin, or nickelled or painted, shall pay the duty assigned to articles of the metal of which they are made.

• The expression "cortes de vestido" occurs in Tariff Nos. 343-4, 349-7, 431-5 and 494-1. Regard should be had to the explanation contained in Note XX, when referring to these Tariff Nos.

AMENDMENT OF THE CUSTOMS ADMINISTRATIVE ACT. continued. they, or either of them, may deem material respecting any imported merchandise then under consideration or previously imported within one year, in ascertaining the classification or dutiable value thereof, or the rate or amount of duty; and they, or either of them, may require the production of all letters, accounts, contracts, or invoices relating to said merchandise, and may require such testimony to be reduced to writing, and when so taken it shall be filed and preserved for use or reference until the final decision of the collector, appraiser, or said board of appraisers shall be made respecting the valuation or classification of said merchandise, as the case may be; and such evidence shall be given consideration in all subsequent proceedings relating to such merchandise; and no collector shall neglect or refuse to attend, or shall decline to answer, or shall refuse to answer in writing any interrogatories, and subscribe his name to his deposition, or to produce such papers when so required by a general appraiser, or a board of general appraisers, or a local appraiser, or a collector, he shall be liable to a penalty of not less than $20 nor more than $500; and if such person be the collector, importer, or consignee, or appraiser, when there is a Board of General Appraisers, or a local appraiser, or collector where there is no appraiser, may make of the merchandise shall be final and conclusive; and any person who shall vitally and corruptly swear falsely on an examination before any general appraiser, or Board of General Appraisers, or local appraiser or collector, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and if he is the owner, importer, or consignee, the merchandise shall be forfeited, or, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, be sold.

"Q. That all decisions of the general appraisers and of the boards of General Appraisers respecting values and rates of duty, shall be preserved and filed, and shall be open to inspection under proper regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. All decisions of the general appraisers shall be reported forthwith to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Board of General Appraisers on duty at the port of New York, and the report to the board shall be accompanied, whenever practicable, by samples of the merchandise in question, and it shall be the duty of the said board under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, to cause an abstract to be made and published of such decisions of the appraisers as they or he may deem important, to be published either in full, or if full publication shall not be required, to be reported by the board, by an abstract containing a general description of the merchandise in question, a statement of the facts upon which the decision is based, and of the value and rate of duty fixed in each case, with reference, whenever practicable, by number or other designation, to samples deposited in the place of samples at New York, and such abstracts shall be issued from time to time at least once in each week for the information of customs officers and the public.

"R. That whenever imported merchandise is subject to an ad valorem rate of duty, or to a duty assessed upon or regulated in any manner by the value thereof, the duty shall be assessed upon the actual market value, wholesale price thereof, at the time of exportation to the United States, in the principal markets of the country from whence exported; that such actual market value shall be held to be the price at which such merchandise is freely offered for sale to all purchasers in said markets, in the usual wholesale quantities, and the price which the seller, shipper, or owner would have received from the buyer, or the board, for such merchandise when sold in the ordinary course of trade in the usual wholesale quantities, including the value of all cartons, cases, crates, boxes, sacks, casks, barrels, hogsheads, bottles, jars, demijohns, carboys, and other containers or coverings, whether holding liquids or solids, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition, packed ready for shipment to the United States, and if there be used for covering or packing imported merchandise, then the value of such covering or article or paper designed for use otherwise than in the bonafide transportation of such merchandise to the United States, additional duty shall be levied and collected upon such material or article at the rate to which the same would be subject if separately imported. That the words "value" or "actual market value," or "wholesale price," whenever used in this Act, or in any law relating to the appraisement of imported merchandise, shall be construed to mean and signify the value of such merchandise, or similar merchandise comparable in value therewith, as defined in this Act.

"S. Any merchandise deposited in any public or private bonded warehouse may be withdrawn for consumption within three years from the date of original importation, on payment of the duties and charges to which it may be subject by law at the time of such withdrawal: Provided, That nothing herein shall affect or impair existing provisions of law in regard to the disposal of explosive articles.

"T. That in all suits or information brought, where any seizure has been made pursuant to any Act providing for or regulating the collection of duties on imports or tonnage, if the property is claimed by any person, the burden of proof shall lie upon such claimant, and in all actions or proceedings for the recovery of the value of merchandise imported contrary to any Act providing for or regulating the collection of duties on imports or tonnage, the burden of proof shall lie upon the claimant: Provided, That probable cause is shown for such presentation, to be judged of by the court.

"U. That if any person, persons, corporations, or other bodies, selling, shipping, consigning, or manufacturing merchandise exported to the United States, shall fail or refuse to submit to the inspection of a duly authorized investigating officer of the United States, when so requested to do, any or all of his books, records, or accounts pertaining to the value or classification of such merchandise, or the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, is authorized while such failure or refusal continues, to levy an additional duty of 15 per cent. ad valorem on all such merchandise when imported into the United States: Provided, however, That such additional duties shall not be imposed in case the laws of the country of exportation provide for the administration, by its duly authorized officers, of oaths to invoicees, or statements of costs, before certification by consuls, and for similar duties, the burden of proof shall be upon the claimant: Customs duties are directed by the Secretary of State, under Section 2862 of the Revised Statutes, to require such oaths before certification of the invoices.

"V. That if any person, persons, corporations, or other bodies, engaged in the importation of merchandise into the United States or engaged in dealing with such imported merchandise shall fail or refuse to submit to the inspection of a duly authorized investigating officer of the United States, when so requested to do, from the time of such refusal, the port where such merchandise is entered, any or all of his books, records, or accounts pertaining to the value or classification of any such imported merchandise, then the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, is authorized while such failure or refusal continues, to assess an additional duty of 15 per cent. on all merchandise consigned to or imported by, or shipped, or intended for delivery, to such person, persons, corporations, or other bodies so failing or refusing.

"W. That where merchandise purchased or manufactured in different consular districts in the same country is assembled for shipment and embraced in a single invoice and consigned at the shipping point, such invoice shall be attached thereto the original bills or invoices or statement of the nature and value of the goods, which are actually intended to be paid, fixed, or determined, and in connection with each such purchase or consignment the invoice shall state all charges and expenses as provided in paragraph R of this Section.

"X. No allowance shall be made in the estimation and liquidation of duties for storage or nonimportation caused by decay, destruction, or injury to the goods, or for merchandise imported into the United States whereby their commercial value has been destroyed, under the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Proof to ascertain such destruction or nonimportation shall be judged with the collector of customs of the port where such merchandise has been landed, or the person acting as such, within ten days after the landing of such merchandise. The provisions hereof shall apply whether or not the merchandise has been entered and whether or not the duties have been paid or secured to be paid, and whether or not a permit of delivery has been granted to the owner or consignee. No such allowance shall be made for damage, but the importers may within ten days after entry abandon to the United States all or any portion of goods, wares, or merchandise of every description included in any invoice and be relieved from the payment of such duties on such abandoned: Provided, That the portion so abandoned shall amount to not less than one per cent. of the quantity of the invoice. The right of abandonment herein provided for may be exercised whether the goods, wares, or merchandise have been damaged or not, or whether or not the same have any commercial value: Provided further, That section 2899 of the Revised Statutes, relating to the return of packages impounded for appraisement, shall in no wise prohibit the right to make such return, and the Secretary of the Treasury, whether the right to abandon is exercised, or whether the return or destruction there is a nonimportation in whole or in part. All merchandise abandoned to the Government by the importers shall be delivered by the importers thereof at such place within the port of arrival as the chief officer of customs may direct, and on the failure of the importers to comply with the direction of the collector or the chief officer of customs, as the case may be, the collector or chief officer shall cause the same to be disposed of by the customs authorities under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, at the expense of such importers. Where imported fruit or perishable goods have been condemned at the port of original entry within ten days after landing, by health officers or other legally constituted authorities, the importers or their agents shall, within twenty-four hours after such condemnation, lodge with the collector, or the person acting as collector, a notice thereof in writing, together with an invoice description and the quantity of the articles condemned, their location, and the name of the vessel in which imported. Upon receipt of said notice the collector, or person acting as collector, shall at once cause an investigation and a report to be made in writing by at least two customs officers touching the identity and quantity of fruit or other perishable goods so condemned, and unless proof to ascertain the shortage cases may be, the collector or chief officer shall have the same lodged as herein required, or if the importer or his agent fails to notify the collector of such condemnation proceedings as herein provided, proof of such shortage or nonimportation shall not be deemed established and no allowance shall be made in the liquidation of duties chargeable thereon.

"Y. That whenever it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Treasury, that an actual cash value or estimated duties, or permanent indebtedness, or other indebtedness, or any other debt, or payments made upon appeal, more money has been paid or deposited with a collector of customs than, as has been ascertained by final liquidation thereof, the law required to be paid or deposited, the Secretary of the Treasury shall direct the Treasurer to refund and pay the same out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated. The necessary moneys therefor shall be hereby appropriated, and this appropriation shall be deemed a permanent indebtedness to the United States, and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to correct manifest clerical errors in any such liquidation for or against the United States, at any time within one year of the date of such entry, but not afterwards: Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury shall, in his annual report to Congress, give a detailed statement of the various sums of money refunded under the provisions of this Act, or of any other Act of Congress relating to the revenue, together with copies of the rulings under which such moneys were made.

"Z. That from and after the taking effect of this Act, no collector or other officer of the customs shall be in any way liable to any owner, importer, consignee, or agent of any merchandise, or any other person, for account of any rulings or decisions as to the classification of said merchandise or the duties charged thereon, or the collection of any dues, charges, or duties on or on account of said merchandise, or any other matter or thing as to which said owner, importer, consignee, or agent of any merchandise, or any other person, may have any claim or demand, or decision of said collector or other officer, or from any act or omissions of appraisers.

"AA. That any person who shall give, or offer to give, or promise to give, any money or thing of value, directly or indirectly, to any officer or employee of the United States in consideration of or for any act or omission contrary to law in connection with or pertaining to the importation, appraisement, entry, examination, or inspection of goods, wares, or merchandise, including herein any baggage or other articles, shall be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000, or imprisonment to not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court; and evidence of such giving, or offering, or promising to give, satisfactory to the court in which such trial is had, shall be regarded as prima facie evidence that such act or omission was contrary to law, and the burden of proving that such act was innocent and not done with an unlawful intention.

"BB. That any officer or employee of the United States who shall, excepting for lawful duties or fees, solicit, demand, exact, or receive from any person, directly or indirectly, any money or thing of value in connection with or pertaining to the importation, appraisement, entry, examination, or inspection of goods, wares, or merchandise, including herein any baggage or other articles, shall be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000, or imprisonment to not more than one year, or both, in the discretion of the court; and evidence of such soliciting, demanding, exacting, or receiving, satisfactory to the court in which such trial is had, shall be regarded as prima facie evidence that such soliciting, demanding, exacting, or receiving was contrary to law, and shall put upon the accused the burden of proving that such act was innocent and not with any unlawful intention.

"CC. That any baggage or personal effects arriving in the United States in transit to any foreign country may be delivered by the parties having it in charge to the collector of the proper district, to be by him retained, without the payment or exaction of any import duty, or to be forwarded by such collector to the collector of the port of departure and to be delivered to such parties on their departure for their foreign destination, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe."

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

A. That for the purpose of revalidating the present duties on importations into the United States and at the same time to encourage the export trade of this country, the President of the United States is authorized and empowered to negotiate trade agreements with foreign nations wherein mutual concessions are made looking toward freer trade relations and further reciprocal expansion of trade and commerce: Provided, however, That said trade agreements before becoming operative shall be submitted to the Congress of the United States for ratification or rejection.

B. That nothing in this Act contained shall be so construed as to abrogate or in any manner impair or affect the provisions of the treaty of commercial reciprocity concluded between the United States and the Republic of Cuba on the 11th day of December, 1902, or the provisions of the Act of Congress heretofore passed for the execution of the same except as to the proviso of Article 8 of said treaty, which proviso is hereby abrogated.

C. That there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands the rates of duty which are required to be levied, collected and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries: Provided, That all articles, the growth or product of or manufactured in the Philippine Islands from materials the growth or product of the Philippine Islands, or of the United States, or of both, or which do not contain foreign materials to the value of more than 20 per centum of their total value, upon which no drawback of customs duties has been allowed therein, coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands shall hereafter be admitted free of duty: Provided, however, That in consideration of the exemptions aforesaid, all articles, the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, upon which no drawback of customs duties has been allowed therein, shall be admitted to the Philippine Islands from the United States free of duty: And provided further, That the free admission, herein provided for such articles, the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States, into the Philippine Islands, or of the growth, product, or manufacture, as hereinbefore defined, of the Philippine Islands into the United States, shall be subject to the condition that the shipment thereof, and the receipt of said shipping, from the country of origin to the country of destination: Provided, That direct shipment shall include shipments in bond through foreign territory contiguous to the United States:

Provided, however, That if such articles become unpacked while en route by accident, wreck, or other casualty, or so damaged as to necessitate their repacking, the same shall be admitted free of duty upon satisfactory proof that the unpacking occurred through accident or necessity, and that the merchandise involved in the accident is the identical merchandise originally shipped from the United States or the Philippine Islands, as the case may be, and that its condition has not been changed except for such damage as may have been sustained: And provided, That there shall be levied, collected, and paid, in the United States, upon articles, goods, wares, or merchandise coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands, the same rates of duty as are imposed upon like articles coming into the United States from the like articles, the internal-revenue tax imposed in the United States upon the like articles, goods, wares, or merchandise of domestic manufacture; such tax to be paid by internal-revenue stamp or stamps, to be provided by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, and to be affixed in such manner and under such regulations as he, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe; and such articles, goods, wares or merchandise, shipped from said islands to the United States, shall be exempt from the payment of such tax as is imposed by the internal-revenue laws of the Philippine Islands: And provided further, That there shall be levied, collected, and paid in the Philippine Islands, upon articles, goods, wares, or merchandise going into the Philippine Islands from the United States, a tax equal to the internal-revenue tax imposed in the Philippine Islands upon the like articles, goods, wares, or merchandise of the Philippine Islands manufacture; such tax to be paid by internal-revenue stamp or stamps, to be provided by the laws in the Philippine Islands, and such articles, goods, wares, or merchandise going into the Philippine Islands from the United States shall be exempt from the payment of any tax imposed by the internal-revenue laws of the United States: And provided further, That in addition to the customs taxes imposed in the Philippine Islands, there shall be levied, collected, and paid therein upon articles, goods, wares, or merchandise, shipped from the Philippine Islands to any foreign country other than the United States the internal-revenue tax imposed by the Philippine Government on like articles manufactured and consumed in the Philippine Islands or shipped thereto for consumption therein, from the United States: And provided further, That from and after the passage of this Act all internal revenues collected in or for account of the Philippine Islands shall accrue and be paid to the general government of the United States and be paid into the Treasury: And provided, That Section 13 of "An Act to raise revenue for the Philippine Islands, and for other purposes," approved August 4th, 1909, is hereby repealed.

D. That articles, goods, wares, or merchandise going into Porto Rico from the United States shall be exempted from the payment of any tax imposed by the internal-revenue laws of said island, whether such island be an independent country, dependency, colony, province, or other political subdivision of government shall pay or bestow, directly, or indirectly, any bounty or grant upon the exportation of any article or merchandise from such country, dependency, colony, province, or other political subdivision of government, and such article or merchandise is dutiable under the provisions of this Act, then upon its importation from the country of production or otherwise, whether such article or merchandise be imported into the United States, whether the same shall be imported directly from the country of production or otherwise, and whether such article or merchandise is imported in the same condition as when exported from the country of production or has been changed in condition by remanufacture or otherwise, there shall be levied and paid, in all such cases, in addition to the duties otherwise imposed in or for account of the country of production or bestowal, The net amount of all such bounties or grants shall be from time to time ascertained, determined, and declared by the Secretary of the Treasury, who shall make all lawful regulations for the identification of such articles and merchandise and for the assessment and collection of such additional duties.

F. Subsection 1. That all articles of foreign manufacture or production, which are capable of being marked, stamped, branded, or labelled, without injury, shall be marked, stamped, branded, or labelled in legible English words, in a conspicuous place that shall not be covered or obscured by any subsequent attachments or arrangements, so as to indicate the country of origin. Said marking, stamping, branding, or labelling shall be as nearly indelible as the nature of the article will permit.

All packages containing imported articles shall be marked, stamped, branded, or labelled so as to indicate legibly and plainly, in English words, the country of origin and the quantity of their contents, and until marked in accordance with the directions prescribed in this section no articles or packages shall be delivered to the importer.

Should any package of imported merchandise be marked, stamped, branded, or labelled so as not accurately to indicate the quantity, number, or measurement actually contained in such article or package, no delivery of the same shall be made to the importer until the mark, stamp, brand, or label, as the case may be, shall be changed so as to conform to the facts of the case.

The Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe the necessary rules and regulations to carry out the foregoing provision.

F. Subsection 2. If any person shall fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this Act relating to the marking, stamping, branding, or labelling of any imported articles or packages; or shall fraudulently deface, destroy, remove, alter, or obliterate any such marks, stamps, brands, or labels with intent to conceal the information given by or contained in such marks, stamps, brands, or labels, he shall upon conviction be fined not more than $5,000, or be imprisoned for any time not exceeding one year, or both.

G. Subsection 1. That all persons are prohibited from importing into the United States from any foreign country any obscene book, pamphlet, paper, writing, advertisement, circular, print, picture, drawing, or other representation, figure, or symbol, made of paper or other material, or any cast, mould, or any other article of an immoral nature, or any drug, or medicine, or any article whatever for the prevention of conception or for causing unlawful abortion, or any lottery ticket, or any advertisement of any lottery. No such articles, whether imported separately or contained in packages with other goods entitled to entry, shall be admitted to entry; and all such articles shall be proceeded against, seized, and forfeited by the United States, and shall be subject to the same penalties as if they were contained in the course of importation shall be detained by the officer of customs, and proceedings taken against the same as hereinafter prescribed, unless it appears to the satisfaction of the collector of customs that the obscene articles contained in the package were inclosed therein without the knowledge or consent of the importer, owner, agent, or consignee: Provided, That the drugs herebefore mentioned, when used in bulk and not put up in any of the packages herebefore specified, are excepted from the operation of this subsection.

G. Subsection 2. That whoever, being an officer, agent, or employee of the Government of the United States, shall knowingly aid or abet any person engaged in any violation of any of the provisions of law prohibiting importing, advertising, dealing in, exhibiting, or sending or receiving by mail, or in bulk, or in any of the packages herebefore specified, any article for the prevention of conception or procuring abortion, or other article of obscene or immoral use or tendency, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall for every offence be punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by imprisonment at hard labour for not more than ten years, or both.

G. Subsection 3. That any circuit or district judge of the United States, within the proper district, before whom complaint in writing of any violation of any of the foregoing sections is made, to the satisfaction of such judge, and founded on knowledge or belief, and if upon belief, setting forth the grounds of such belief, and supported by oath or affirmation, of the complainant, may issue, conformably to the Constitution, a warrant directed to the marshal or any deputy marshal in the proper district, directing him to search for, seize, and take possession of any such article or thing mentioned in the two preceding sections, and to make and publish a return thereon, to the effect that he has or has not found and destroyed by proceedings, which shall be conducted in the same manner as other proceedings in the case of municipal seizure, and with the same right of appeal or writ of error.

H. Subsection 1. That the importation of neat cattle and the hides of neat cattle from any foreign country into the United States is prohibited: Provided, That if upon the production of this section to any such foreign country or countries, or any parts of such country or countries, whenever the Secretary of the Treasury shall officially determine, and give public notice thereof, that such importation will not tend to the introduction or spread of contagions or infectious diseases among the cattle of the United States; and the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and empowered, and it shall be his duty, to make the necessary orders and regulations for the execution of this section in effect, or to suspend the same as herein provided, and to send copies thereof to the proper officers in the United States and to such officers or agents of the United States in foreign countries as he shall judge necessary.

H. Subsection 2. That any person convicted of a willful violation of any of the provisions of the preceding subsection shall be fined not exceeding $500, or be imprisoned not exceeding one year, or both, in the discretion of the court.

I. That all goods, wares, articles, and merchandise manufactured wholly or in part in any foreign country by convict labour shall not be entitled to entry at any of the ports of the United States, and the importation thereof is hereby prohibited, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this provision.

J. Subsection 1. That a discriminating duty of 10 per centum ad valorem, in addition to the duties imposed by law, shall be levied, collected, and paid on all goods, wares, or merchandise which shall be imported in vessels not of the United States, or which, being the production or manufacture of any foreign country not contiguous to the United States, shall come into the United States from such contiguous countries, but this discriminating duty shall not apply to goods, wares, or merchandise which shall be imported in vessels not of the United States entitled at the time of such importation by treaty or convention or Act of Congress to be entered in the ports of the United States on payment of the same duties as shall then be payable on goods, wares, and merchandise imported in vessels of the United States, nor to such foreign products or manufactures as shall be imported from such contiguous countries in the usual course of strictly retail trade.

J. Subsection 2. That no goods, wares, or merchandise, unless in cases provided for by treaty, shall be imported into the United States from any foreign port or place, except in vessels of the United States, or in such foreign vessels as truly and wholly belong to the citizens or subjects of that country of which the goods are the growth, production, or manufacture to the United States, which such goods, wares, or merchandise can only be, or are, daily are, first shipped to for transportation. All goods, wares, or merchandise imported contrary to this section, and the vessel wherein the same are shipped, shall be forfeited to the United States; and such goods, wares, or merchandise, ship, or vessel, and cargo shall be liable to be seized, forfeited, and condemned in like manner, and under the same regulations, restrictions, and penalties, which have been heretofore established for the seizure and condemnation of the same, by reason of forfeiture to the United States, for the violation of the laws.

3. Subparagraph (c) of the preceding subsection shall not apply to vessels of 25 gross tons or more which are imported in vessels of a foreign country which does not maintain a similar regulation against vessels of the United States.

[illegible]

It is also declared that all materials of foreign production which may be necessary for the construction of naval vessels or other vessels at the ports, stations, or vessels built in the United States for foreign account and shipment, or for the purpose of being employed in the foreign or domestic service, and all such materials necessary for the building of their machinery, and all articles necessary for their outfit and equipment, may be procured from the United States by the purchase of the necessary quantities of such materials and articles, and upon proof that such materials have been procured from the United States shall be paid the cost.

3. Subsection (c). That all articles of foreign production needed for the operation of naval vessels, or of other vessels owned or used by, the United States, and vessels now or hereafter registered under the laws of the United States, may be withdrawn from bonded warehouses free of duty, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

(K). The privilege of public-harbor supplies from public warehouses, free entry, and from bonded manufacturing warehouses, free of duty or of drawback (as the case may be), shall be extended, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, to the vessels of navigation in ports of the United States which may reciprocate with the United States, or, in case of war, the vessels of war of the United States in its ports.

That if any person or persons, laden with merchandise, in whole or in part, about to go, have been ship, in any river, harbour, bay, or waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, and within its limits, for the period of two years, is/is abandoned by the owner thereof, any person who may cause such vessel shall be permitted to bring any merchandise covered thereon into the port nearest to the place where such vessel was so laden free from the payment of any duty thereupon, but not such declarations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

3. That all articles manufactured in whole or in part of imported materials, or of materials subject to internal-revenue tax, and intended for exportation without being charged with duty, and without having an internal-revenue stamp affixed in retio, shall, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, be deposited in bonded warehouses, and exported, if made and manufactured in bonded warehouses, similar to the well-known and designated in Treasury Regulations as bonded warehouses, except P. mixed. That the manufacturer of such articles shall first give security, P. mixed, for the faithful observance of all the provisions of Law 22, 1894, and regulations as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, P. mixed. That the manufacturers of distilled spirits from molasses, P. mixed, and beer, P. mixed, including all distilleries or manufacturing plants or others of them, shall not be permitted to store manufacturing warehouses.

Whenever goods manufactured in any bonded warehouse established under the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be exported directly abroad or shall be duty laden for transportation and immediate exportation under the supervision of the proper officer who shall be duly designated for that purpose, such goods shall be exempt from duty and from the payments relating to revenue stamps.

Any merchandise in the manufacture of which goods, and any packages, cranes, vessels, barges, and lands used in putting on the same may enter the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury, be conveyed without duty, and be exempted from the tax on the same, in the manner of carrying on the business of importation, may, under the proposed regulations, be admitted without the exaction of duty from any bonded warehouse into any bonded warehouse, for a commercial warehouse; but this privilege shall not be held to apply to implements, machinery, or apparatus to be used in the construction of a new building, or in the turning of merchandise or for the exaction of the business carried on thereon.

articles or in 1918 removed into such bonded manufacturing warehouses as shall be authorized or removed therefrom except for direct shipment to a foreign port or for transportation and immediate exportation to bond foreign countries or to the Philippine Islands under the supervision of the collector of customs designated for that collection or the port, who shall carefully examine the goods for exportation and collect the duty thereon. If the goods are to be re-exported, the articles for their home market, or otherwise, the addition of a bill of exportation, and the name of the vessel. Provided, That the duty on a removal of any products incident to the process of manufacture, including any duty levied from champagne rice in bonded warehouses, shall not be levied from any dutiable goods, and such removals may be without payment of duty on the basis of duty equal to the duty paid on such goods when they were first imported into the country. All duties performed and paid by the importer under this provision shall be under the supervision and control of the collector of the customs, and in the expense of the importer.

to any border zone, factory, warehouse, and a sworn by the collection, collecting, such as, all be made by the manufacturer containing a detailed statement of all imported merchandise used by him in the manufacture of exported articles.

Before commencing business the proprietor of any manufacturing warehouse shall file with the Secretary of the Treasury a list of all the articles intended to be manufactured in such warehouse, and state the formula of manufacture and the names and quantities of the ingredients to be used therein.

Articles manufactured under these provisions may be withdrawn, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe for transportation and delivery into any bonded warehouse at an exterior port for exportation, provided, That cigars manufactured under these provisions shall be manufactured in whole or tobacco imported from abroad, and manufactured in such bonded manufacturing warehouses, may be withdrawn for home consumption upon the payment of the duties on such tobacco as is imported, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; and the revenue tax accruing on such cigars in their condition as withdrawn, and the taxes or packages containing such cigars shall be stamped to indicate their character, origin of tobacco from which made, and place of manufacture.

The provisions of Revised Statutes 3432 shall, so far as may be practicable, apply to any bonded manufacturing warehouse established under this Act and to the merchandise conveyed therein.

N. Subsection 1. That the works of manufacturers engaged in smelting or refining, or both, of ores and crude metals, may upon the giving of satisfactory bonds be designated as bonded smelting warehouses. Ores or crude metals may be removed from the vessel or other vehicle in which they are imported, and may be stored in a bonded smelting warehouse without the payment of duties thereon and may be sold or otherwise disposed of, together with ores or crude metals of home or foreign production; Provided, That the bonds shall be charged with the amount of duties payable upon such ores and crude metals at the time of their importation, and the several charges against such bonds may be cancelled upon the exportation of the same; and in the event of the failure of the importer, under paragraph M of this section, to remove the same to a bonded smelting warehouse established under this section, the duties and charges against the bonds cancelled under the payment of the duties charged against the same shall be added to the actual amount of dutiable metal profitible from the smelting or refining, or both, of such ores or crude metals as determined from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury: And provided further, That the said metals so produced, or any portion thereof, may be withdrawn for domestic consumption or transferred to a bonded Customs warehouse, and may be sold or otherwise disposed of, together with the bonds cancelled under the payment of the duties charged against the same, and the amount of ores or crude metals from which said metal would be profitable in their condition as imported: And provided further, That on the arrival of the ores and crude metals at such establishments they shall be sampled and analysed according to commercial methods under the supervision of Government officers, and the results of such analyses shall be reported to the Secretary of the Treasury; and at the expense of the manufacturer, the cost of such analyses shall be paid; and the proceeds in said establishments may be withdrawn for consumption upon the payment of the duties chargeable against it as type metal under existing law and the charges against the bonds cancelled in a similar sum: Provided further, That all labour performed and services rendered pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be under the supervision of an officer of the customs, to be appointed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and at the expense of the manufacturer: Provide further, That the several regulations for the carrying out of this section shall be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Subsection 2. If from and after the first day of January, 1914, under such regulations as the Commissioners of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, any farmer or association of farmers, any fruit grower or association of fruit growers, or any other person may manufacture alcohol free of tax for denaturation only, and may sell such alcohol to any person, other than a salaried waiter, waiter, or cook, on condition that such alcohol shall be directly conveyed from the still by continuous close pipes to locked and sealed receptacles in which the same may be rendered unfit for use as an intoxicating beverage by an admixture of such denaturing materials as the Commissioners of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe, and that the same may be sold and delivered in bulk, and that the same may be transferred in bond from such stills and sealed receptacles to a central distilling and denaturing plant as hereinafter provided.

That the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may authorise the establishment of central distilling and denaturing plants to which alcohol produced under the provisions of this Act, free of tax, may be transferred, redistilled and denatured under such regulations, and upon the execution of such notices and bonds as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe.

That any rented distilling and denaturing plant provided for in section two of this Act may, in addition to the spirits produced under section one of this Act, use any of the products of farms, fruit orchards, or any substance whatever, for the manufacture of alcohol for denaturation only; Provided, That at such distilleries the use of cisterns or tanks of such size and construction as may be deemed expedient shall be permitted in lieu of distillery bonded warehouses under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe.

That any person who under the provisions of this Act shall fail to register, or shall falsely register, any still or stilling apparatus used by him, or who shall fraudulently remove or conceal any distilled spirits produced by him, or who shall fail to comply with all the requirements of this Act, or any regulations issued pursuant thereto, respecting the production, transportation, or distillation of distilled spirits; and any person who shall remove or attempt to remove any distilled spirits from the possession of the United States, or who shall attempt to remove any distilled spirits from the same has been denatured, shall, on conviction, for each offense, be fined not more than $5,000 or be imprisoned for not more than five years, or both, and shall in addition thereto forfeit to the United States all real and personal property used in connection with the offense.

That subsection (c) of Section 5241 of the Revised Statutes of the United States shall not apply to stills and apparatus manufactured for use in distilling, provided for in section one of this Act, and the collector, treasurer or assessor of such distilling apparatus shall give notice to the collector of internal revenue of the district in which the said apparatus is made or to which it is removed, of each still, or worm, manufacture, sold, used, or exchanged under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe.

Section IV. of the Act of March 2nd, 1907, amendatory of the Act of June 7th, 1906, is hereby repealed and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall exempt distilleries operating under this Act from the provisions of Sections 3283 and

12. Article 7.—An additional copy of the manifest must be furnished to the master or agent of the vessel for each port in the Canal Zone at which cargo is discharged; provided, that in lieu of a copy of the complete manifest there may be furnished, at the option of the master or agent, copy of only such portions of the manifest as relate to the cargo to be discharged.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS FOR THE PANAMA CANAL.—continued.

13. Article 8.—There shall also be furnished to the boarding officer the clearance issued to the vessel at the last port of call, a copy of the passenger list, which shall distinguish between passengers in transit and passengers to be landed in the Canal Zone, a copy of the crew list, list of sea stores, purser's statement, certificate of discharge from quarantine, and, in case of vessels of the United States, the register and articles.

14. Article 9.—The master shall certify under oath that the manifest, passenger list, and other documents delivered by him to the boarding officer are complete and true.

15. Article 10.—No vessel shall be permitted to enter until the master or agent shall produce a certificate of discharge from quarantine.

16. Article 11.—Before an entry is made of a vessel of the United States, the register and articles must be produced to the Customs officers, and these papers are to be retained until a clearance is granted.

17. Article 12.—It is not necessary for the captain or master of any vessel of war or public vessel owned or chartered by a foreign Government to report and appear on arrival at the Panama Canal, at either of the terminal ports, unless engaged in the transportation of merchandise in the way of trade, but such vessel shall be subject to the quarantine Regulations and to the regulations relative to the payment of tolls and of bills for material, supplies, repairs, harbour pilotage, towage, wharfage, and other services furnished to vessels by the Panama Canal; and such public or chartered vessels, other than men of war, may be required to certify as to the number of passengers or troops on board, and the character and kind of cargo, when requested by the Canal authorities to do so.

18. Article 13.—The Bureau of Customs shall have exclusive control over all goods, wares and merchandise, including passenger's baggage and packages of every kind and nature introduced into the Canal Zone, pending the release thereof on presentation of evidence in the form of such goods, wares and merchandise are entitled to free entry, or that the import duties due to the Republic of Panama have been paid, or that payment has been waived. No such goods, wares or merchandise shall be released for delivery to consignees, or for re-export, except upon the order of a Customs officer.

19. Article 14.—A copy of the manifest of cargo landed at any point in the Canal Zone shall be delivered by the Bureau of Customs to the Customs authorities of the Republic of Panama.

20. Article 15.—The master of a vessel clearing from the Panama Canal, or any port of the Canal Zone, shall be required to furnish to the Bureau of Customs a manifest of all goods, wares and merchandise, including packages of every kind and nature introduced into the Canal Zone, and a list of all passengers embarked in the Canal Zone, or if no cargo has been accepted for shipment and no passengers have embarked, a statement to that effect. But with the consent of the Bureau of Customs, previously obtained, these documents may be furnished through an agency on the Isthmus within forty-eight hours after the clearance of the vessel. The manifests, passenger lists and statements submitted in compliance with this Article shall be subscribed and sworn to by the master or agent of the vessel.

21. Article 16.—Vessels leaving the Panama Canal, the port of Balboa, or the port of Cristobal, shall be cleared by the port captain at the port of departure.

22. Article 17.—The Captain of the Port will not issue a clearance until he has ascertained:

(a) That the documents and statistical data in regard to cargo and passengers, as required by these and other regulations governing the use of the Panama Canal, have been furnished by the master of the vessel, or that satisfactory arrangements have been made to furnish same through an agency on the Isthmus.

(b) That all tolls, and bills for materials, supplies, repairs, harbour pilotage, towage, or wharfage, furnished to vessels by the Panama Canal, or by the Panama Railroad Company, have been paid, or that their payment has been secured.

(c) That the vessel has complied with the quarantine and immigration laws and regulations of the Canal Zone.

(d) That the laws and regulations governing the shipment and discharge of seamen, and for the protection of seamen, have been complied with.

23. Article 18.—The Executive Secretary charged with the supervision of the Customs Service of the Canal Zone shall, in person, or through such assistants as he may designate, perform the duties of a shipping commissioner, and he shall render such services to American seamen as are commonly rendered by shipping commissioners in the United States, and by American consuls abroad. In the performance of these duties he shall be governed by the Navigation Laws of the United States and by the United States Consular Regulations, in so far as they are applicable.

24. Article 19.—Questions which may arise in the administration of the Customs Service of the Canal Zone shall, if not specifically provided for in these regulations shall be decided in accordance with the Customs Regulations of the United States in so far as the latter regulations are not locally inapplicable.

ORDER RESPECTING THE CUSTOMS SERVICE IN THE CANAL ZONE.

1. If the master of a vessel, arriving at any port in the Canal Zone from a foreign port, shall fail or refuse to produce to the proper officer of the Customs, upon demand by him, the ship's manifest and copies thereof, or shall fail or refuse to give a true account of the destination of such vessel, he shall be subject to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

2. If any merchandise be found on board any vessel arriving in the Canal Zone from a foreign port, which is not included in her manifest, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty equal in amount to the value of the merchandise not manifested, and all such merchandise, belonging to or consigned to the officers or crew of the vessel, shall be forfeited, provided, however, that the penalty authorized by this section shall not be imposed if it should be made to appear to the chief Customs officer, at the port of entry, or to the court in which the trial shall be held, that no part of the cargo has been unladen, except as accounted for in the master's report, and that the errors and omissions in the manifest were made without fraud or collusion; in such case the master may be allowed to correct his manifest by means of a post-entry. It shall not be lawful to grant a permit to unload any such merchandise, so omitted from the manifest, before such post-entry or addition to report or manifest has been made.

3. If sea stores are found on board of a vessel arriving at the Canal Zone from a foreign port, which are not specified in the list furnished the boarding officer, or if a greater quantity of such articles is found than that specified in the list, or if any of the articles are landed without a permit being first obtained from the Customs officer for that purpose, all of such articles omitted from the list or manifest, or so landed, shall be seized and forfeited, and the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty of treble the value of the articles so omitted or landed.

4. The officers of the Bureau of Customs are authorized to administer oaths, and to certify invoices covering shipments of merchandise from the Canal Zone to the United States. In the performance of this duty they shall be governed by the United States Consular regulations, and by the circular instructions concerning the certification of invoices issued to Consuls of the United States, in so far as they are applicable, provided, however, that any special instructions heretofore issued, or which may be issued by the Treasury Department, concerning the certification of invoices in the Canal Zone, shall be complied with.

5. Any persons violating any of the Customs laws, or the Customs rules and regulations established, or to be established, by the Governor of the Panama Canal in conformity with existing laws and orders, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars for each violation of such regulations.

PORTO RICO

By an Act approved April 12th, 1900, which entered into force May 1st, 1901, it was enacted that "the same tariffs, customs and duties shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles imported into Porto Rico as upon those of the United States, which are required by law to be collected upon articles imported into the United States from foreign countries: Provided, That on all coffee in the form of ground or imported into Porto Rico there shall be levied and collected a duty of 5 cents per pound, any law or part of law to the contrary notwithstanding."

The internal revenue laws of the United States do not apply to Porto Rico, the exception being made by act of Congress. The Insular Government makes its own internal revenue laws, and it should be noted that the excise taxes are levied in Porto Rico upon the following-named articles, whether produced in the territory or brought or imported therein, according to the rates herein specified:

1. On all distilled spirits produced in Porto Rico, or imported or brought into Porto Rico, a tax of 50 cents on each liter or fraction thereof; Provided, That for the purposes of this Act all spirituous liquors, except as otherwise provided for in this Act, produced in Porto Rico, or brought or imported into Porto Rico, of which, exclusive of water, distilled spirits form the chief component, shall be regarded as distilled spirits; and, Provided, further, That when the distilled spirits contained in any such spirituous liquor do not form the chief component thereof, exclusive of water, the tax shall be paid at the rate of 25 cents per liter or fraction thereof, on the amount by volume of any distilled spirits which such spirituous liquors may contain and on which no tax has been paid under any of the provisions of this Act.

For the purpose of this Act "chief component" shall be held to be that substance which determines the general use of the article.

2. On all beer, lager beer, ale, porter and other similar fermented liquors, by whatever name they may be known, produced in Porto Rico, or imported into Porto Rico, and sold in bulk to consumers of not less than 15 liters capacity, a tax of 5 cents for each liter or fraction thereof; and on all beer, lager beer, ale, porter and other similar fermented liquors, by whatever name they may be known, produced in Porto Rico, and sold in bottles, or brought into or imported into Porto Rico, and sold in bottles, a tax of 10 cents for each liter or fraction thereof; Provided, That beer which is to be bottled from other containers, on which the above-mentioned tax of 5 cents per liter shall have been paid, shall further pay 5 cents a liter or fraction thereof and no more.

3. On all still wines except those sufficiently mentholated to prevent their use as a beverage, and on all fermented ciders produced in Porto Rico or brought or imported into Porto Rico, or any imitation of, or substitute therefor, a tax of 10 cents on each liter, or fraction thereof; Provided, however, That the tax on all champagne shall be 1 dollar on each liter, or fraction thereof, and the tax on all sparkling wines 50 cents on each liter or fraction thereof; and Provided, further, That no drawback shall be allowed for any taxpaid, distilled spirit which may be used in fortifying any wine.

4. On cigars manufactured in Porto Rico, or brought or imported into Porto Rico, a tax of 30 cents for each one hundred cigars or fraction thereof; Provided, however, That if any cigar maker or operative shall employ a factory wherein he is employed, any cigars, commonly known as toros, the manufacturer or owner of the business shall, upon the total of such cigars removed from the factory each day, pay the taxes herein in this Act prescribed and in such manner as the Treasurer of Porto Rico shall by regulations prescribe.

5. On all cigarettes produced in Porto Rico, or imported or brought into Porto Rico, not exceeding three pons per thousand in weight, a tax of 2 dollars for each thousand or fraction thereof, and on all cigarettes produced in Porto Rico, or brought or imported into Porto Rico, exceeding three pons per thousand in weight, a tax of 1 dollar for each thousand or fraction thereof.

6. On all smoking tobacco and on all fine cut chewing tobacco which is in any way especially prepared, either in form or in composition, whether manufactured in Porto Rico or brought or imported into Porto Rico, including all shorts, refuse, scraps, waste clippings, cuttings and screenings when sold in packages for smoking, even though not otherwise specified, the sum of 1 cent per ounce or fraction thereof. That all smoking tobacco and all fine cut chewing tobacco to be used in cigars shall be packed by the manufacturer thereof, on the premises whereon manufactured, in original packages of not less than one ounce nor more than sixteen ounces each. That each and every package of such smoking tobacco or fine cut chewing tobacco, whether manufactured in Porto Rico or brought or imported into Porto Rico, shall have printed or marked thereon or securely affixed thereto by label, in a conspicuous and legible manner, the name and address of the local manufacturer or importer thereof, and also a notice in both Spanish and English languages, which notice shall read as follows:

Notice.—The manufacturer or importer of this tobacco has complied with all the requirements of the Internal Revenue Laws of Porto Rico. Every person is cautioned under penalty thereof not to use this package for tobacco again.

6. On all playing cards produced in Porto Rico, or brought or imported into Porto Rico, a tax of 25 cents for each pack containing not more than sixty cards.

7. On all perfumery produced in Porto Rico, or imported or brought into Porto Rico, a tax of 15 % ad valorem.
8. On all proprietary medicinal preparations and patent medicines, which are compounded by any formula, published or unpublished, produced in Porto Rico, or brought or imported into Porto Rico, a tax of 10 % ad valorem, and, in addition thereto, 28 cents per liter upon the amount by volume of any distilled spirits contained therein and upon which no tax has been paid under any of the provisions of this Act; Provided, That all medicines, other than proprietary or patented, which are compounded by any formula, published or unpublished, and which are offered for sale to the public as originally packed, whether under the name or trade mark of the author of the formula, or manufacturer or distributor of the medicine, or otherwise, shall, for the purposes of this Act, also be considered as patent or proprietary preparations.

9. On all cosmetics and preparations for applications to the hair, mouth or skin such as toilet waters, lotions, powders, pomades, massage creams, pastes, paints, and on all bay rum, and compounded aromatic alcoholabs produced in Porto Rico, or brought or imported into Porto Rico, a tax of 10 per centum ad valorem, and in addition thereto 28 cents per liter or fraction thereof, upon the amount by volume of any distilled spirits contained therein and upon which no tax has been paid under any of the provisions of this Act; Provided, That a drawback shall be allowed on any taxpaid alcohol used in compounding bay rum and alcoholabs when said bay rum or alcoholabs shall contain at least one part of bay oil to every one hundred parts of alcohol of 40° Cartier, and when said articles are made strictly in accordance with such special regulations as the Treasurer of Porto Rico may prescribe; And provided, further, That for the purpose of license taxes, all articles within this paragraph specified shall also be considered as perfumery.

w No. 111 of April 6, 1906, relating to the Excise duty on rum in St. Croix.)

RT. 1.—The term rum in the present Law shall mean any its manufactured in St. Croix. By dealer in rum is to be understood any person who is licensed to sell spirits in St. Croix.

RT. 2 and 3.—

RT. 4.—On all rum removed from the warehouse of the dealer rum, there shall be paid a duty of not less than 20 cents, nor more than 50 cents for each gallon of rum containing up to 54° pure alcohol ascertained by Traulés' alcoholometer at 15.5° plus = 60° Fahrenheit.

rum of greater strength shall be reduced, according to the as- sained measure and strength, to 54°, and pay duty accordingly. The amount of duty to be assessed within the above fixed its shall be determined by the Colonial Council for a period three years.

The duty shall be paid to the Customs at the time when the leaves the warehouse, but for the payment of duty on rum drawn from the warehouse, the Customs are at liberty to not an extension of time—not to exceed one month—until the removal takes place.

RT. 5.—Rum removed from the warehouse of the dealer for port from St. Croix under Customs control is free of duty. However, the Minister of Finance may decide that, subject to necessary measures of control, it will be permissible to withdraw rum from the warehouses free of duty, if used for technical or industrial purposes in St. Croix.

ART. 6 to 12.—

ART. 13.—If the Customs Law does not provide for heavier duty, rum and other spirits imported into St. Croix shall pay customs duty at the same rate as the Excise duty, to be fixed in time to time in accordance with Article 4 of the present w: when the alcoholic strength of spirits cannot be ascertained, y shall be taken as testing 100°.

aw No. 112 of April 6, 1906, relating to the import duties on Spirits, Wine and Beer.)

ART. 1.—Spirits of all kinds brought into St. Croix shall pay an port duty of 1 dollar per gallon. The gallon is equivalent to pots.

ART. 2.—Wine and beer of all kinds shall respectively pay on portation into St. Croix 25 and 20% on the value to be assessed concurrence with the Customs at St. Croix.

ART. 3.—The present Law shall enter into operation on the me day as the Excise Duty Law on rum at St. Croix.

Note.—Goods not enumerated in the present tariff shall be dutiable according to the invoice price (provided that such price corresponds to the average price of such goods at the place of shipment, with an increase as stipulated hereinafter, in such manner that the total invoice value shall equal the wholesale price of the goods in St. Croix. This increase shall be 15% of the invoice price for goods imported from St. Thomas with an invoice from said island, and 25% for all other goods. In default of an invoice, the Customs shall appraise the value of the goods, either according to the wholesale price in the island, or according to the ordinary retail price less 25% of such price. In both cases the Customs duties must not be included in the appraised value.

EXCEPTIONS.

Rule 6.—Pile fabrics and knitted and netted stuffs.—Plushes, velvets, elevents, all pile fabrics, all kinds of knitted or netted stuffs, tuques, vees and blondes, containing an admixture of textile materials, shall be dutiable at the rate applicable to the most highly taxed component material, whatever be the proportion of such material in the article.

Rule 7.—Ribbons, galloons, braids, tape and trimmings.—Ribbons, galloons, raids, tape and trimmings, containing an admixture of textile materials, shall be dutiable at the rate applicable to the most highly taxed component material, whatever be the proportion of such material in the article. When any of these articles contain metal threads in any proportion they shall be dutiable under the corresponding paragraphs of Class VIII.

Rule 8.—Broches.—Broches dutiable under Class V., with silk, shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon, with a surtax of 15 %.

Broches, dutiable under Class VI., with silk, shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon, with a surtax of 30 %.

Broches are textiles with ornamental figures formed by means of a shuttle at time of weaving, and in such manner that the threads forming the figure occupy only the space thereof.

Rule 9.—Embroidery and trimmings.—Textiles embroidered by hand or machine after weaving, or with application of trimmings, shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon, with a surtax of 30 %.

If the embroidery contains threads of puri or common metals or of silver, or spangles of any material other than gold, the surtax shall be 60 % of the duties applicable to the textile.

When the threads, puri, or spangles are of gold, the surtax shall be 100 %.

Embroidery is distinguished from patterns woven in the textile by the latter being destroyed by unweaving the web of the textile, while embroidery is independent of the warp and weft and cannot be so unravelled.

Rule 10.—Metallic threads.—Textiles composed exclusively of metallic threads shall be dutiable under Class VIII.

Textiles or articles (except those provided for in Rules 7 and 9 hereof), dutiable under Classes V. and VI., containing threads or puri of common metals or of silver, shall be liable to a surtax of 50 % of the duties leviable thereon.

If the threads or puri are of gold the surtax shall be 100 %.

Rule 11.—Made-up articles.—Textiles, dutiable under Classes V. and VI., entirely or partially made up into common sacks (except gunny-sacks) or tarpaulins, shall be liable to the duties applicable thereto, with a surtax of 15 %.

Shawls, including those called "mantones" and "pañuelos," travelling rugs, sarones, paladones, counterpanes, sheets, towels, table cloths and napkins, veils, fichas, and handkerchiefs, shall, for the making of these articles imported in the piece, merit, shall not be considered as made-up, except in those cases where the line of separation between them is indicated by unwoven spaces.

Other articles, including wearing apparel, not otherwise provided for, cut, basted, partially finished, or finished, shall be treated in accordance with Rule 1, and shall be dutiable at the rate applicable to the most highly taxed component material in the exterior thereof, with a surtax of 50 %; Provided, That made-up articles enumerated in this Act shall not be subject to any surtax for making-up, unless such surtax is specially provided in connection with the corresponding paragraph or clause.

ARTICLES NOT ENUMERATED AND THOSE COMPOSED OF SEVERAL MATERIALS.

Rule 12.—On any article not enumerated in this Act, manufactured of two or more materials, duty shall be assessed at the rate at which the same would be dutiable if composed wholly of the component material thereof of chief value; and the words "component material of chief value," whenever used in this Act, shall be held to mean that component material which shall exceed in value any other single component material of the article; and the value of each component material shall be determined by the ascertained value of such material in its condition as found in the article.

(b) If two or more rates of duty shall be applicable to any article, it shall pay duty at the highest of such rates.

(c) No customs officer shall give an advance opinion as to the classification for duty of any article intended to be imported; Provided, That when an article intended to be imported is not specifically mentioned in this Act, the interested party or the importer may deposit with the insular collector of customs a sample thereof and request him to indicate the paragraph under which the article is or shall be dutiable, and the insular collector of customs shall comply with such request. In such case classification of the article in question, upon the particular importation involved, shall be made according to the paragraph so indicated.

(d) Salvage from vessels built in foreign countries and wrecked or abandoned in Philippine waters or elsewhere, not otherwise provided for, shall be dutiable according to the corresponding paragraphs of this Act.

RECEPABLES, PACKAGES AND PACKING.

Rule 13.—(a) Whenever imported merchandise is subjected to an ad valorem rate of duty, the duty shall be assessed upon the actual market value of or wholesale price of such merchandise, as bought and sold in usual wholesale quantities, at the time of exportation to the Philippine Islands. In the principal markets of the country from whence imported, and in the condition in which such merchandise is there bought and sold for exportation to the Philippine Islands, or consigned to the Philippine Islands for sale, including the value of all cartons, cases, crates, boxes, sacks, and coverings of any kind, and all other costs, charges, and expenses incident to placing the merchandise in condition, packed ready for shipment to the Philippine Islands.

(b) Whenever an article is subject to an alternative minimum ad valorem rate, the alternative ad valorem duty shall be ascertained by applying the corresponding ad valorem rate to such merchandise, inclusive of all costs and charges mentioned in clause (a) of this Rule.

(c) The term "retail package," wherever used in this Act, shall be held to mean any article, goods, wares, or merchandise, together with the holders, containers, packages, or packing, in which such article, goods, wares, or merchandise is usually held, contained, or packed, at the time of its sale to the public in usual retail quantities.

(d) Wherever it is provided in this Act that articles, goods, wares, or merchandise shall be dutiable, "including weight of immediate containers," the dutiable weight thereof shall be held to be the weight of the same, together with the weight of the immediate container, holder, or packing only; Provided, That wherever in this Act the term "including weight of immediate containers" and the term "retail package" are both used in the same paragraph or clause, the dutiable weight shall be the weight of the retail package.

(e) Whenever it is provided in this Act that articles, goods, wares, or merchandise shall be dutiable by "gross weight," the dutiable weight thereof shall be held to be the weight of same, together with the weight of all containers, packages, holders, and packing, of whatever kind or character, in which said articles, goods, wares, and merchandise are contained, held, or packed at the time of importation.

(f) Articles, goods, wares, or merchandise affixed to cardboard, canvas, paper, wool, or similar common material, shall be dutiable together with the weight of such packing.

(g) The usual tapes, boards and immediate wrapping shall be considered as a part of the dutiable weight of textiles.

(h) No duties shall be assessed on account of the usual coverings or holdings of articles, goods, wares, or merchandise dutiable otherwise than ad valorem, nor those free of duty, except as in this Act expressly provided, but if there be used for covering any dutiable or free, any unusual articles, goods, wares, or merchandise, whether dutiable or free, any unusual articles, form, or material adapted for use otherwise than in the bona fide transportation of such article, goods, wares, or merchandise to the Philippine Islands, duty shall be levied and collected on such covering or holding in accordance with the corresponding paragraphs of this Act.

(i) Whenever the interior container or packing of any article dutiable by weight is of an unusual character, including silk-lined cases, cases of fine wood, silk, leather, or imitations thereof, such as are used to contain jewellery, plate, trinkets, and the like, such containers or packing shall be dutiable at the rate applicable to the component material of chief value.

(j) When a single package contains imported merchandise dutiable according to different weights, or weight and ad valorem, the common exterior receptacle shall be prorated and the different proportions thereof treated in accordance with the provisions of this Rule as to the dutiability or non-dutiability of such packing.

(k) Where articles, goods, wares, or merchandise dutiable by weight, and not otherwise specially provided for, are customarily contained in packing, packages, or receptacles of uniform or standard character, it shall be the duty of the insular collector of customs, from time to time, to ascertain by test the actual weight or quantity of such articles, goods, wares, or merchandise, and the actual weight of the packages, packing, or receptacles thereof, respectively, in which the same are customarily imported, and upon such ascertainment, to prescribe rules for estimating the dutiable weight or quantity thereof, and to enforce such articles, goods, wares, or merchandise shall be entered, and the duties thereon levied and collected, upon the basis of such estimated dutiable weight or quantity; Provided, That if the importer, consignee, or agent shall be dissatisfied with such estimated dutiable weight or quantity, and shall file with the collector of customs prior to the delivery of the packages designated for examination a written specification of his objections thereto, or if the collector of customs shall have reason to doubt the exactness of the prescribed weight or quantity in any instance, it shall be his duty to cause such actual weights or quantities to be ascertained.

PROHIBITED IMPORTATIONS.

Sec. 3.—That importation or shipment into the Philippine Islands of the following articles is prohibited:

(a) Dynamite, gunpowder, similar explosives, fireworks and detached parts thereof, except in accordance with enactment of the Philippine legislature, or when imported by, or for the use of, the United States or insular Governments.

(b) Articles, books, pamphlets, printed matter, manuscripts, typewritten matter, paintings, illustrations, figures or objects of obscene or indecent character, or subversive of public order.

(c) Roulette wheels, gambling apparatus, loaded dice, marked cards, machines, apparatus or mechanical devices used in gambling, or in the distribution of money, prizes, or other articles, when such distribution is dependent upon chance.

(d) Any article manufactured in whole or in part of gold or silver or alloys thereof, falsely marked or stamped in violation of the Act of Congress of June 12, 1906, entitled "An Act forbidding the importation, exportation, or carriage in interstate commerce of falsely or spurious stamped articles of merchandise made of gold or silver or their alloys, and for other purposes."

(e) Any article violating the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 30, 1906, entitled "An Act for preventing the manufacture, sale, or transportation of adulterated or misbranded or poisonous or deleterious foods, drugs, medicines, and liquors, and for regulating traffic therein, and for other purposes," commonly known as "the Pure Food Law."

(f) Lottery tickets, advertisements thereof, lists of drawings thereon which, after due notice upon legal entry, shall, together with the proceeds thereof, be forfeited to the Government of the Philippine Islands, after due process of law.

(g) Opium, in whatever form, except by the Government of the Philippine Islands, and by pharmacists duly licensed and registered as such, under the laws in force in said Islands, and for medicinal purposes only.

(h) Opium pipes, parts thereof, of whatsoever material.

(i) Absinthe.

See A.—Abbreviations. See following sec. 8.

DEFINITIONS.

Sec. 5.—The term "pharmaceutical product," wherever used in this Act, shall be held to include all medicines or preparations recognised in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary for internal or external use, and any substance or mixture of substances used for the cure, mitigation, or prevention of human or animal diseases, provided the same are not otherwise provided for in this Act.

The term "proprietary," as applied to medicinal remedies, wherever used in this Act, shall be held to mean a "preparation the manufacture or sale of which is restricted, through patent of the drug or combination of drugs, copyright of the label or name, or in any other manner, or a preparation concerning which the producer or manufacturer claims a private formula."

Wherever in this Act the words "the same" appear as the first words of a paragraph, they shall be held to refer to and to mean the same as the caption of the preceding paragraph. Should such words appear as the first words of a clause, they shall be held to refer to and to mean the same as the clause which immediately precedes the one in which they are used.

PAYMENT OF DUTIES.

Sec. 6.—Duties shall be paid in United States money except that:

The following coins now in circulation in the Philippine Islands shall be received for customs duties and taxes at the following rates in money of the United States: Peso, fifty cents; Medio Peso, twenty-five cents; Peseta, ten cents; Media Peseta, five cents, but such rates shall be changed in accordance with a quarterly proclamation of the civil governor.

METRIC SYSTEM.

Sec. 7.—The metrical system of weights and measures as authorized by Sections 3569 and 3570 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, and at present in use in the Philippine Islands, shall be continued.

The metre is equal to 39.37 inches.

The litre is equal to 1.057 quarts, wine measure.

RATES OF DUTIES.

Sec. 8.—That the rates of duties to be collected on articles, goods, wares, or merchandise imported into the Philippine Islands, or going into said Islands from the United States or any of its possessions except as otherwise provided in this Act, shall be as follows: Provided, That no article bearing evident signs of being for sanitary construction shall pay a higher rate of duty than 20% ad val.; and provided further, That no article shall pay a higher rate of duty than 10% ad val., except and unless the same shall be classified under paragraphs 50, 257, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261 or 304, in which event the rate of duty thereby resulting shall be collected anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and provided further, That articles of foreign growth, produce or manufacture, shall be dutiable upon each importation, except previously exported from the Philippine Islands, except as otherwise specifically provided in this Act.

The following abbreviations shall be employed in the tariff:

Boats and other water craft.

210	Boats, launches, lighters, and other water craft, set up or knocked down, imported into the Philippine Islands, and cost of repairs made in foreign countries to vessels, or to parts thereof, documented for the Philippine customs trade and plying exclusively in Philippine waters and for which repairs adequate facilities are afforded in the Philippine Islands until 31 December, 1921 ad val.	50 %
	On and after January 1, 1922, ad val.	25 %

Provided, that upon proof, satisfactory to the collector of customs, that adequate facilities are not afforded in the Philippine Islands for such repairs, so that the work cannot be done there reasonably, economically, and within a reasonable time, in the judgment of the said collector, such repairs shall be subject to the provisions of paragraph 318; and

Provided further, that if the owner or master of such vessel shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the collector of customs that such vessel while in the regular course of her voyage, was compelled by stress of weather or other casualty to put into a foreign port or place and make such repairs to secure the safety of the vessel, or to enable her to return to the Philippine Islands, such duty shall not be imposed; and

Provided further, that furnishings, stores, and supplies, not otherwise provided for, purchased abroad and imported in such vessels, shall be dutiable under the corresponding paragraphs of this Act.

Note. The expression, "imported into the Philippine Islands," shall be held to mean "brought into the jurisdictional waters of the Philippine Islands in or on another vessel, or towed therein by another vessel except when beached or disabled at sea, as distinguished from coming into said Islands under the craft's own steam, sail, or other motive power."

the identity of such articles being established to the satisfaction of the collector of customs, under such regulations as the insular collector of customs shall prescribe: articles of the same kind and class purchased in foreign countries by natives of the Philippine Islands during their absence abroad and accompanying them upon their return to said islands, or arriving within a reasonable time, in the discretion of the collector of customs, before or after their return, upon proof satisfactory to the collector of customs that the same have been in their use abroad for more than one year.

345 Foreign articles, goods, wares, or merchandise destined for display in public exhibitions in the Philippine Islands, and animals for exhibition or competition for prizes, together with the harness, vehicles, and tools necessary for the purposes designated; subject to the rules, regulations, and conditions as shall be prescribed by the insular collector of customs with respect to bonding for exportation thereof or payment of duty thereon.

346 Philosophical, historical, economic and scientific books, and apparatus, utensils, and instruments specially imported for the bona fide use of and by the order of any society or institution incorporated or established solely for philosophical, educational, scientific, charitable, or literary purposes, or for the encouragement of the fine arts, or for the bona fide use of and by the order of any college, academy, school or seminary of learning in the Philippine Islands, or of any public library, and not for barter, sale or hire, subject to such regulations as shall be prescribed by the insular collector of customs.

The provisions of this paragraph in respect to books shall apply to any individual importing or shipping two copies of any one work for his own use, and not for barter, sale or hire.

347 Articles of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Philippine Islands, paintings which are works of art, and books exported to a foreign country and returned without having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means, and upon which no drawback or bounty has been allowed, and articles returned from foreign exhibitions, subject to identification under such rules and regulations as the insular collector of customs shall prescribe.

348 Repairs to vessels documented in the Philippine Islands or regularly ply in Philippine waters, made in foreign countries, upon proof satisfactory to the collector of customs that adequate facilities for such repairs are not afforded in the Philippine Islands.

349 Articles and materials actually used in the construction, equipment, or repair within the Philippine Islands of vessels, their machinery, tackle, or apparel, subject to such restrictions, conditions, and regulations as the insular collector of customs shall prescribe.

350 Articles brought into the Philippine Islands for the purpose of having repairs made thereon, upon the giving of a bond with sureties satisfactory to the collector of customs, in an amount equal to double the estimated duties thereon, conditioned for the exportation thereof or payment of the corresponding duties thereon within a period of not to exceed six months from the date of importation thereof, in the discretion of the collector of customs, subject to such rules and regulations as the insular collector of customs shall prescribe.

351 The cargo and holdings of articles, goods, wares and merchandise (usual), except as expressly provided.

Sec. 12.—That all articles, the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States and its possessions to which the Customs Tariff in force in the United States is applied and upon which no drawback of customs duties has been allowed therein, coming into the Philippine Islands shall hereafter be admitted therein free of customs duty when the same are shipped directly from the country of origin to the country of destination: Provided, That direct shipment shall include shipment in bond through foreign territory contiguous to the United States. Said articles shall be as originally packed without having been opened or in any manner changed in condition: Provided, however, That if such articles shall become unpacked while en route, by accident, wreck, or other casualty, or so damaged as to necessitate their repacking, the same shall be admitted free of duty upon satisfactory proof that the unpacking occurred through accident, and that the merchandise involved is the identical merchandise originally shipped from the United States, or its possessions as hereinbefore provided, and that its condition has not been changed except for such damage as may have been sustained.

Sec. 13.—(Repeated.)

WHARFAGE.

Sec. 14.—That there shall be levied and collected upon all articles, goods, wares, or merchandise, except coal, timber and cement, the product of the Philippine Islands, exported through ports of entry of the Philippine Islands, or shipped therefrom to the United States or any of its possessions, a tariff of one dollar per gross ton of 1,000 kilos, as a charge for wharfage, whatever be the port of destination or nationality of the exporting vessel: Provided, That articles, goods, wares, or merchandise imported, exported, or shipped in transit for the use of the Government of the United States, or of that of the Philippine Islands, shall be exempt from the charges prescribed in this Section.

Sec. 15.—That all articles, goods, wares, or merchandise imported into the Philippine Islands shall, for the purpose of this Act, be deemed to be the property of the person to whom the same may be consigned; but the owner of any bill of lading, drawn to order and endorsed by the consignee, shall be deemed the consignee thereof; and in case of the abandonment of any article, goods, wares, or merchandise to the underwriters, the latter may be recognised as the consignee.

INVOICES.

Sec. 16.—That all invoices of imported articles, goods, wares, or merchandise shall state the true value thereof in the currency of the place or country from whence imported, or, if purchased, in the currency actually paid therefor, shall contain a correct description of such articles, goods, wares, or merchandise, with true names, weights and quantities in the tariff terms of this Act, and shall be made in quadruplicate, and signed by the importer or shipper, if the merchandise has been actually purchased, or by the manufacturer or owner thereof, if the same has been procured otherwise than by purchase, or by the duly authorized agent of such purchaser, manufacturer, or owner.

sec. 17. That except in case of personal effects accompanying a passenger as baggage, or arriving within a reasonable time before or after the departure of a vessel, no articles, goods, wares or merchandise, the owner, no importation of any articles, goods, wares or merchandise exceeding 100 dols. in dutiable value, shall be admitted to entry without the production of a duly certified invoice of the kinds hereinafter described, or the filing of an affidavit made by the owner, importer, or consignee before the collector of customs, showing why it is impracticable to produce the invoice, together with a bond in an amount to be prescribed by, and with such other security as may be required to be furnished by, said official. In the absence of such invoice, no entry shall be made upon the aforesaid affidavit unless the same be accompanied by a statement in the form of an invoice, or otherwise, showing the actual cost of such merchandise if same was purchased, or if obtained otherwise than by purchase, the actual market value or wholesale price thereof at the time of importation in the principal markets of the country from whence imported, and such statement shall be verified by the oath of the owner, importer, consignee, or agent, and shall be made official to examine before the collector of customs, and it shall be lawful for the collector to examine the deponent under oath regarding the source of his knowledge, information, or belief, concerning any matter contained in his affidavit, and to require him to produce any correspondence, document, or statement of account in his possession, or under his control, in which such matters are reflected, and to require him to furnish copies of the importation or of any such documents, or of any statement of account when so required, such owner, importer, consignee, or agent shall be thereafter debarred from procuring any such correspondence, document, or statement for the purpose of avoiding the imposition of additional duty, penalty, or forfeiture incurred under this or any other act in force in the Philippine Islands, unless he shall show to the satisfaction of the collector or the collector of customs, as the case may be, that he was not in his possession of the same when so demanded; but no articles, goods, wares or merchandise shall be admitted to entry under the provisions of this Sec. unless the collector of customs shall be satisfied that the failure to produce the required invoice is due to causes beyond the control of the owner, importer, consignee, or agent.

invoices shall have endorsed thereon when the goods are above prescribed a declaration signed by the purchaser, manufacturer, importer, exporter, or agent setting forth that the invoice is in all respects correct and true and was made at the place from whence the merchandise is exported to the Philippine Islands; that its content of the merchandise was obtained by the person from whom the same were purchased; that the actual cost or fair value of the merchandise is stated in the invoice, and that the actual cost or fair value of the merchandise is stated in the invoice; and that all charges thereon; and that no discounts or drawbacks are contained in the invoice except such as has been actually allowed thereon; and when obtained in any other manner than by purchase, the actual market value or wholesale price thereof, at the time of exportation, is stated in the invoice; that such invoice is the principal invoice of the country from which exported; that such invoice is the principal invoice in which the merchandise described in the invoice is freely offered or sold to all purchasers in said markets; and that it is the price which the manufacturer, seller, owner, or agent making the declaration would have received had the merchandise been sold in the principal markets of the country at the time of exportation; that the invoice is correct and true in all particulars; and that it includes all charges thereon; that the number, weight, or measure of the merchandise is correct; and that no invoice of the merchandise described differing from the invoice so produced has been or will be furnished to anyone. If the merchandise was actually purchased, the declaration shall also state the actual amount shown and the currency stated in the invoice; and if the invoice is a bill of exchange, it shall also state the value of the bill; and if the invoice is a bill of lading, it shall also state the value of the goods. Said declaration shall be duly sworn to by the purchaser, manufacturer, owner, or agent before the officer to whom produced.

sec. 19.—That consuls, vice-consuls, commercial agents, collectors of customs, deputy collectors of customs, and commissioners of the United States of America having any knowledge or information of any case or practice by which any person obtaining verification of any invoice defrauds or may defraud the revenue of the Philippine Islands shall report the facts to the principal collector of customs.

sec. 20.—That United States Government vessel, or winter transports to the Army or naval vessels, when coming from the United States or a foreign port to the ports of the Philippine Islands, shall be subject to the same inspection by customs officers of the Philippine Government, for the purpose of determining whether they have on board articles of merchandise dutiable under the laws of the Philippine Islands, as such United States Government vessel, are subject to by customs officers of the Philippine Government when such vessels enter ports of the United States from foreign ports, for the purpose of determining whether such vessels have on board articles of merchandise dutiable under the laws of the United States.

SEC. 21.—That on all fuel imported into the Philippine Islands which afterwards used for the propulsion of vessels engaged in trade with foreign countries, or between ports of the United States and the Philippine Islands, or in the Philippine coastwise trade, a refund shall be allowed equal to the duty imposed by law upon such fuel, less 1 per cent, of cost, which shall be paid under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the regular collector of customs.

See, 22. That upon the expiration of articles manufactured or produced in the Philippine Islands, including the packing, covering, putting in marking, or labeling the reef, either in whole or in part of imported materials, or from similar domestic materials of equal quantity and of the same manufacturer quality and value, such question to be determined by the singular collection of customs there shall be allowed a drawback.

equal in amount to the duties paid on the imported materials so used, or where similar domestic materials are used, the duties paid on the equivalent imported similar materials, less one per centum. Provided, That the exportation shall be made within three years after the importation of the foreign material used or constituting the basis for the drawback claimed. That when the articles exported or re-exported, covering the drawback, are wholly or partially produced in the Philippine Islands not subject to drawback under this Act, or under the materials, or the similar domestic materials of equal quantity and productive manufacturing quality and value entitled to drawback, shall measure thereof may be completed articles or packages that the quantity or value of such articles or packages shall be ascertained further, That the duties on imported materials, or domestic materials entitled to drawback under this Act, for which drawback is claimed, shall be identified; that the quantity of such materials used and the amount of duty paid thereon, or that the fact of their being paid upon its equivalent, shall be ascertained; and that the fact of their being exported, or re-exported, and the refund, if any, shall be paid to the manufacturer, producer, exporter, or merchant, or agent, shall be paid to the manufacturer, producer, exporter, or agent, or to any of them, or to the person such manufacturer, producer, exporter, or agent shall, in writing, order such refund paid, under and in accordance with the rules and regulations as the insular collector of customs may prescribe. That no drawback shall be allowed or refund paid under this section on account of any article, or merchandise, or merchandise exported to the United States of America, or to any territory or place under the jurisdiction and the control of the Government thereof, or to such articles, goods, wares, or merchandise are admitted free of duty.

Sec. 23.—That containers, such as casks, large metal, glass, or other receptacles which are, in the opinion of the collector of customs, of such a character as to be readily identifiable, may be delivered to the importer thereof, upon identification and the giving of a bond with sureties satisfactory to the collector of customs in an amount equal to double the estimated duties thereon, conditioned for the exportation thereof or payment of the corresponding duties thereon within one year from the date of importation, under such rules and regulations as the insular collector of customs shall prescribe.

Sec. 24.—That in addition to the taxes imposed by this Act there shall be levied and collected on goods, wares, or merchandise when imported into the Philippine Islands from countries other than the United States the internal revenue tax imposed by the Philippine Government on like articles manufactured and consumed in the Philippine Islands or shipped thereto, for consumption therein, from the United States.

Sec. 25.—That the insular collector of customs shall, subject to the approval of the secretary of the department having jurisdiction over the customs service, make all rules and regulations necessary to enforce the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 26.—That original jurisdiction in all cases arising in the Philippine Islands is hereby conferred upon the courts of first instance of the Philippine Islands and appellate jurisdiction upon the supreme court of the Philippine Islands in matters arising under the Act of Congress approved Feb. 20, 1905, entitled "An Act to authorise the registration of trade-marks used to commerce with foreign nations or among the other States or with Indian tribes and to protect the same," identical with the jurisdiction conferred upon courts of the United States by Sec. 17 of said Act.

Sec. 27.—That all existing decrees, laws, regulations, orders, or parts thereof, inconsistent with the laws, regulations, or orders, or parts thereof, shall not affect any act done, or any right accruing, or any suit or proceeding had or commenced in any civil cause, before the said repeal takes effect; but all rights and liabilities under said decrees, laws, regulations, or orders shall continue and may be enforced in the same manner as if said repeal had not been made. Any offences committed, or penalties or forfeitures or liabilities incurred prior to the repeal of any decrees, laws, regulations, or orders, shall be prosecuted or enforced in the same manner as if the repeal of such decrees, laws, regulations, or orders had not been passed. All Acts of limitation, whether applicable to civil causes and proceedings or to the prosecution of offences or for the recovery of penalties or forfeitures embraced in, modified, changed, or repealed by this Act shall not be affected thereby; and all suits, proceedings, or prosecutions for civil or criminal, for causes arising or acts done or committed prior to the coming into force of this Act shall take effect as if this Act had not been passed.

Sec. 24. That this Act shall take effect sixty days after its passage.

APPENDIX,

Extract from the United States Tariff Law of 1909 concerning tariff relations with the Philippine Islands.

Now. ### ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

The Tariff system adopted in the Argentine Republic is as follows: the Customs law prescribes specific duties only in the case of articles of food and drink, tobacco, and a short list of miscellaneous articles, and ad valorem duties in the case of all other articles. The ad valorem duties, however, are assessed, not on the declared value of the goods, but on the official valuation set out in the Valuation Tariff; and consequently the duties given in the following lists have been calculated by applying the ad valorem rates to the official valuations, except as regards those articles for which, as mentioned above, specific duties are fixed by the Customs Law.

It should be noted that the Argentine Budget Law for 1902 imposed an additional duty of 2 per cent ad valorem on all imported goods subject to a duty of 10 per cent, ad valorem or more. This surtax is still in force, and is included in the rates given in the present Return.

All the above-mentioned articles imported in a single receiptable must be declared by gross weight.

Articles imported in two or more receiptables are weighed with the immediate receiptable, without tare allowance, and the weight of such articles must be declared inclusive of the immediate receiptable.

By immediate receiptable is understood the cardboard or coarse paper the tin, glass, packet, wool, metal, or box which contains the merchandise.

Ten is dutiable on the net weight.

Leather: Musical Instruments.—The dutiable weight includes the weight of the boxes, paper and wrappings.

Saddlers' Wares.—As regards articles dutiable by weight, the dutiable weight includes the paper, boxes and wrappings, as also the bales where articles are imported in this form.

Hardware and Machinery: Aras.—The articles included under these sections, if imported in bales, sacks or rolls, are weighed gross; article imported in any other form are weighed with the paper, wrappings, cardboard or wooden boxes, reels or bobbins, except in the case of the under-mentioned articles, for which tare allowances are made:—

Wire on reels or bobbins .....	5 per cent.
Galvanized iron for roofs, in cases .....	7 "
Tinplate in cases .....	5 "
Zinc in casks .....	6 "

Pottery and glassware.—In cases where duty is leviable by weight, the weight includes the bales, box, straw or wrapping paper.

Tissues.—All tissues dutiable by weight are weighed with their boxes and wrappings, and with the wool and cardboard placed in the interior of the pieces, except in the case of silks, which are weighed with the paper wrappings only.

If these articles are imported in bales, with or without hoops, they are weighed gross.

Made-up Articles and Ready-made Clothing.—All articles included under this section of the Tariff are weighed with their cardboard boxes, papers and wrappings.

Mercury, Paper, Small Wares, Paints, Chemical Products.—All articles included in these sections of the Tariff are weighed with their respective receiptables or wrappers, being weighed gross if they are imported in single receiptable. In the case of cardboard imported in bales, the gross weight is taken. If the immediate receiptables of soap are boxes of the wood or cardboard, the soap is weighed together with such boxes. For paper for newspapers on reels, a tare allowance of 10 per cent. is made and for paper in bales, a tare allowance of 1 per cent.

MONEY, WEIGHTS, AND MEASURES.—The monetary unit of Bolivia is the "Boliviano" = 100 centavos. For weights and measures Bolivia has adopted the metric system.

The goods in this tariff which are dutiable on gross weight are indicated by the letters (g. w.) immediately following the text. The letter n.s.m. mean "not specially mentioned."

RULES FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE VALUATION TARIFF.

(Act of December 31, 1905.)

ART. 15.—The charge for the deposit of goods in Government warehouses shall be 30 centavos per hundred kilos, or fraction thereof. From the date of the presentation of the clearance certificate warehouse rent shall cease, even though the goods be not taken out.

ART. 16.—Goods subject to "appraisal" or "not specified in the tariff" shall be valued at their wholesale market price. In order to avoid at this appraisal the Consular invoice shall be taken as a basis and its amount be increased by 20% for freight and other charges from the market of origin, provided these expenses have not already been included in the invoice.

In making the above valuation, the original invoice which every merchant is required to have in his possession must be produced, together with the corresponding Consular invoice; should there be a discrepancy in the value of the two invoices, assessment shall be made according to the invoice showing the largest amount. If the importer fails to produce the original invoice, he will be liable to a fine of 4% on the official value declared in the Consular invoice.

ART. 17.—For the application of the valuation tariff the following rules shall be in effect:

- (1.) In every case where the valuation of a tissue is based on the number of threads, the latter shall be reckoned, by means of the glass called "thread counter," in a square of 6 millimeters the side.
- (2.) By "gross weight" is understood the weight of the package as made up for transporting the goods. Valuation by gross weight shall also be adopted in the case of goods generally conveyed loose, in bulk or bound together in bundles.
- (3.) The expression "including packages" applies to goods valued according to their actual weight, together with the weight of containers and packages in which inclosed or wrapped, but not including barrels, casks, casks of wood, tin or sheet iron, with the cross pieces and outside packing cloth necessary for the transport. This rule shall not be applicable to goods for which the mode of weighing has been expressly stipulated in the Tariff.
- Should goods dutiable inclusive of weight of packages be imported loose, in bulk or fastened together in bundles, they shall be appraised according to net weight.
- (4.) "Weight, including receptacles," means the weight of the goods inclusive of immediate receptacle containing them, and adhering to the goods even if used for the transport.
- (5.) Merchandise for which the Tariff does not expressly stipulate another mode of weighing, shall be appraised at net weight.
- (6.) When goods dutiable at gross weight are imported in the same package with other goods assessed or tariffed on some other basis, the weight of the goods including interior receptacles and packages shall be increased by 3% if imported in boxes and by 6% if imported in bales; save that in both cases the exterior receptacle above referred to in Article 3 shall not be taken into consideration.
- (7.) Fractions of a centavo, amounting to 50 centimes and above, shall be considered as a full centavo, and fractions of less than 50 centimes shall not be taken into consideration.
- (8.) The denomination appearing at the head of each group consisting of one or more subdivisions of an item, shall be deemed repeated at the commencement of each subdivision.
- (9.) As "unfinished and untrimmed hats" shall be considered hats which are not provided with linings, ribbons or borders, notwithstanding they may have been ironed; this shall embrace hats furnished with a gauze or paper wrapper for the sole purpose of protecting them from damage.
- (10.) In the Tariff "common metal" shall be held to be any metal except gold, silver or platinum.
- (11.) The fibres or materials of which tissues are composed shall be considered as of higher or lower value, according to the following order:
  1. Silk, animal or artificial.
  2. Wool or hair.
  3. Lnen.
  4. Cotton.
  5. Ramie, hemp, jute and other vegetal fibre fibres.
- (12.) By "warp" must be understood the joint number of threads and filaments which form the length of the tissue, and by "weft" or "wool" the number of threads or filaments crossing the warp.
- (13.) The method of forming the warp determines the classification upon which the appraisal of the tissue is made.
- (14.) A tissue shall be understood as "mixed" when some other material enters into the composition of the threads of the tissue in a less proportion than the principal.

TARIFF.]

LAW DATED NOVEMBER 30, 1904, RELATING TO THE PAYMENT OF CUSTOMS DUTIES.

("El Estado" No. 10, of January 1, 1905.)

ART. 1.—The pound sterling or English sovereign shall be accepted in discharge of 12 bolivianos 50 centavos.

ART. 2.—From and after January 1, 1905, 50 % of the Customs duties shall be paid in gold, at the rate of 12 bolivianos 50 centavos per pound sterling. In case such 50 % should be paid in silver, wholly or in part, the sum so paid shall be liable to a surcharge of 5 %. Fractions of less than 12 bolivianos 50 centavos may be paid in silver without surtax.

By a Presidential Decree, a statistical tax of one-tenth of 1 % is imposed on all goods imported, exported, or carried in transit. In the case of imports, the statistical tax is to be based on the values given in the valuation tariff. Gold coin imported or exported is exempt from the above tax.

LAW OF DEC. 1, 1911, MODIFYING THE CUSTOMS TARIFF.

ART. 1.—A surtax of 15 % shall be levied on the amount of entries of dutiable goods, save refined sugar, flour, rice, condensed milk, sarinines, salmon, wheat, maize, tea and jerked beef (charqui or cocina).

ART. 2.—Articles dutiable according to appraisement and those enumerated in the tariff shall be valued in the manner established in Art. 2 of the Law dated February 16, 1911.

- 7 Fine "Para" gum exported through the Custom-houses of Villa-Boila and Guayaramerín .....

NOTE.—The export duty on gum is not levied in a uniform manner, the valuation depending on fluctuations of prices in London; these prices are taken for fixing from time to time the official valuation upon which the percentage is reckoned, after deducting expenses of production.

In the Custom-houses of the North-West and East, Administrators are authorised, in conformity with Article 476 of the Customs Regulations, to fix said official valuation, and in the Custom-houses of the West and South this will be incumbent upon the Director General of Customs.

According to the quotations for the second fortnight of April, the Director General fixed the following valuations, which are to be applied, until further notice, in the Custom-houses of La Paz, Oruro and Yacuiba:

Fine gum, per kilog. Bs. 5.30 at the rate of 8 %:

Common gum, per kilog. Bs. 2.00 at the rate of 8 %:

No figures have yet been published respecting the valuations adopted in the other Custom-houses, which are continually varying between Bs. 5.00 and Bs. 3.00 per kilog., according to the London quotations.

ORGANIC CUSTOMS LAW OF THE REPUBLIC

Art. 1. Custom-houses are public offices established by the Government on the coast and at such points as may be necessary, through which goods can enter and depart from the territory of the Republic, in order to collect the tariff duties and secure compliance with the provisions of the laws.

Art. 2. Custom-houses are maritime, fluvial or land, as the case may be. All are divided into classes, according to their qualification, i.e., by reason of their importance as regards the import or export traffic, transit or coasting trade. Their number and designation under the name of "Aduanas," "Casierías de Guds," and "Resguardos" are set out in the Customs regulations.

Art. 3.— All goods which can form the subject of a commercial transaction shall be admitted into the territory of the Republic, with the sole exception of articles whose free circulation is prohibited by penal laws, public safety and morality laws and by regie laws affecting goods subject to monopoly.

Art. 4.—Exportation is allowed of products of the soil and industry of the country, in any form, except live vicuñas, alpacas and chinchillas.

Art. 5. To be legally considered as imported into the country, merchandise of any description must pass through a national Custom-house for the purpose of being examined and assessed with any Customs duties chargeable thereon.

Art. 7.—No exemption from, or reduction of duty can be granted in favour of any industry, public establishment, company or person whosoever, except in cases expressly authorised by laws or legislative decisions.

Art. 8.—Exemptions enjoyed by Diplomatic Agents are granted accordance with the respective treaties and international usage, and a subject to the provisions of the Customs regulations.

Art. 9.—Officers entrusted with the collection of Customs duties shall exercise no reserve in ensuring proper discharge of the duty to be performed by them, and importers of goods and other articles are required to exhibit to and submit to inspection of the Customs all merchandise imported by them.

Art. 10.—Goods admitted into Custom-houses of the Republic shall remain therein under protection of the laws, and in no case, not even the event of war with the country of which the owners, shippers or consignees of the goods are subjects, can the goods be seized or any measure of reprisal resorted to.

Art. 11.—In no case nor under any circumstances can the goods referred to be subjected to any new State or municipal taxes beyond the duties established in the tariff under special laws or municipal orders duly sanctioned by the Senate.

Art. 12.—The liability of the Treasury in connection with goods warehoused at the Customs is subject to laws and regulations bearing on the matter and the Administrators will take cognisance of all claims arising thereon.

In such cases, if claimant refuses to abide by their decisions, the dispute shall be submitted to the Government, whose decision shall be final.

Art. 16.—The draft of the tariff according to which it is to be assessed the value of goods imported through the Customs into the country shall be prepared by a Commission appointed by the Executive Power where the Treasury and Chambers of Commerce shall be represented. Upon approval by Congress, said tariff shall continue in effect for eighteen months, but this term may be prolonged by legal enactment.

Art. 17.—The tariff can be neither altered nor modified by the Executive Power, in case it should be necessary to complete same by adding new or omitted goods, or inserting in the free list articles not comprised therein, the Administrator shall acquaint the Executive Power with the fact, to be dealt with as deemed expedient.

Art. 18. — Every importation shall be effected in the form prescribed by law, and the consular invoices relative to imported goods must be produced, save the exceptions specially provided for in the regulations.

Art. 19.—Exports of products of the country, transshipments, and re-shipments, coasting-trade business, imports of duty-free or special taxed goods shall all be subject to the formality of valuation and clearance in conformity with the Regulations.

Art. 20.—Metals and ores of all kinds must, prior to being exported, pay the tax applicable thereto. As to argenteiferous ores, the payment of the export tax shall only be provisional; the degree of silver percentage declared by exporter shall first be taken as basis, but on final settlement of duty, he shall be required, within the time limit of 180 days from date of export certificate, to exhibit his trade account of sales effected abroad, showing amount of silver, gold, tin, copper or bismuth contained in the exported ore.

In default of production of such accounts as aforesaid within the term specified, the person concerned shall be condemned to pay the duties chargeable on ore containing the most silver.

ART. 21.—Cases of contraband and Grand shall be adjudicated upon administratively by the Head of the Customs-house concerned, with the intervention of the Public Prosecutor, but the decision of the Chief of the Customs may be referred to the Minister of Finance, who may be impeached in the Supreme Court, the disputed goods remaining in the while in the custody of the Customs, without prejudice to any such common law judgments as may be rendered in respect of other offences committed in connection with the foregoing.

Art. 22. -The Executive Power will frame necessary regulations for carrying out the present law.

GENERAL CUSTOMS REGULATIONS.

(Extracts from Chief Divisions.)

IMPORTATION, EXPORTATION AND INTERNAL TRADE.

Chapter 1.—Valuation Tariff.

Art. 213.—The tariff upon which the value of goods imported into the Republic through its ports and frontiers are to be assessed shall be established every eighteen months, and shall be applicable during said period unless extended for a longer time by legal enactment.

Art. 214.—After sanction by Parliament, the tariff shall go into operation from the date fixed for this purpose and no alteration can be made save in order to add goods or articles unenumerated.

Art. 215.—After expiration of the said eighteen months fixed in Article 213, the Government will decide as to whether the tariff is to be maintained or modified totally or in part, and whether occasion requires the appointing of a special Commission for the purpose.

Art. 216.—The valuation tariff shall be established at La Paz by a Commission consisting of the Inspector-General of Customs, the Administrator of Customs, the Chief Appraiser and such number of merchants of the place as may be designated by the Government. The Commission in each particular case, if it deemed it, according to indications, designate in the Customs of Commerce. This Commission shall be presided over by the Inspector-General of Customs, when failing, by the Administrator. The appraisement shall be made according to the appraised value according to their wholesale value delivered at the Customs. In establishing this valuation the original invoice shall be used and its amount increased by 25% in converting the prices into money of the country referred to in the invoice. The present Decree shall be published by the Ministry of Finance in pursuance of the Decree dated June 7, 1909.

Chapter 2. -Import Duties.

Art. 218. Foreign goods imported for consumption in the country shall pay at the Custom-house of entry and in the form prescribed by these regulations import duties fixed in the tariff.

Art. 219. - The following goods, when entered for consumption, shall be admitted free of duty, viz. :

1. Articles included in the free list of the import tariff in force, also the articles covered by the law of December 12, 1900.
2. Products the growth of Chili as well as articles manu-ctured therefrom, upon proof of their origin and identity being furnished, (Article 5 of Amistice signed with Chili on April 3, 1884, and Art. 7 of Additional Protocol of May 30, 1885.)

ARIFF.]

3. Products of the soil and industry of Peru subject to restrictions.
4. Personal baggage.
5. Articles intended for personal use of Diplomatic Agents.
6. Articles belonging to Bolivian Ministers on their return from their mission. For this purpose the interested parties shall make an application to the Government and annex a detailed and signed list of the articles they propose to import, so that the free-entry permit may be transmitted to the Administrator of Customs.
7. Articles for State use and service subject to the previous orders of the Government.

Chapter 5.—Exportation, Re-shipment and Transhipment.

Art. 272.—All products of the soil and industry of the Republic are permitted to be freely exported. The exportation and extraction of metals and ores generally shall be subject to compliance with the special provisions contained in these regulations.

Art. 273.—The exportation of all kinds of products of the country as well as of nationalized goods can only be effected subject to an authority on the Customs issued on a certificate in triplicate copy. Any person shipping and exporting goods without accomplishing this formality shall be sentenced to a fine of 2 % of the value of the goods.

Art. 274.—Re-shipment and transhipment shall not be liable to payment of any duties. Goods re-shipped from one port of the Republic to other or in destination of a foreign country, shall only pay warehouse rent after the first year of warehousing has expired.

Chapter 6.—Exportation of Metals and Ores.

Art. 290.—Metals and ores of all kinds can only be exported subject to previous payment of the tax applicable thereto according to the table set forth in the law, and in the manner mentioned in Art. 7 of these regulations.

Art. 291.—As respects argentiferous ore, the tax chargeable is of a provisional character, and in collecting this tax, regard shall be had to the proportion of silver declared by the exporter, who for the purpose of final settlement shall be bound to exhibit his account sales showing the percentage of silver, gold, copper, tin and bismuth contained in the exported ore; this production will be required within 180 days from date of issue of the export certificate.

Art. 292.—Failing compliance with this formality within the time specified, the person interested shall be compelled to pay the taxes payable on the richest silver ore without prejudice to penal interest.

Art. 293.—For the purpose of the provisions of Art. 291, the export certificates required to accompany the ores referred to, shall be detached from a counterfoil register, upon the stubs of which are to be mentioned the name of the exporting person or firm, name of the transport adopted, quantity and weight of ores, amount paid and mode of transport adopted. In the respective register shall be noted the certificates, together with all particulars appearing thereon.

Art. 294.—The exportation effected without the above-named export certificates, as well as the detection of differences between the exported quantities and those declared in the said document, shall be deemed cases of contraband within the meaning of the provisions of these regulations. Silver coin is allowed to be exported, but its importation into the Republic is prohibited under penalty of confiscation.

The Executive is empowered to suspend, if thought fit, the Coining of Silver Money Law of November 30, 1904. ("El Estadon," No. 10, of January 1, 1905.)

Chapter 7.—Exportation Overland.

Art. 295.—Products of the soil, of industry of the country, nationalized goods and foreign merchandise in transit exported overland must be accompanied by a pass issued by the respective Custom-house.

Art. 296.—This pass shall be issued in triplicate and show the route adopted for export, the marks, numbers, quantity and kind of packages, as well as the kind, quantity and quality of goods or articles contained in each package.

Art. 301.—Goods paying export duties and foreign transit goods must leave the country via the same routes and roads as were assigned for their importation. Goods found to be outside of the routes or not accompanied by the required pass shall be seized.

Chapter 8.—Internal Trade and Coasting Trade.

Art. 302.—Fruits, metals, ores and other native products and also nationalized goods may be freely transported from one point of the Republic to another, without any formality beyond obtaining a Customs pass, which shall be issued free of charge and intended to serve for the carrier of the load to prove the place whence he departed and whither he is proceeding.

Art. 303.—Trade between ports of the Republic may be carried on by any vessel whatsoever, and it shall be lawful:

1. To transport from a principal port to another of the same class and to import through a principal port all non-prohibited merchandise;
2. To convey from a principal to a secondary port and import through the latter native or nationalized goods;
3. To transport from a secondary to a principal port or from one to a secondary port all native or nationalized goods.

TITLE XII.

Chapter I.—Miscellaneous Provisions.

Art. 407.—Communication to the public of Customs registers and documents is strictly forbidden.

Any copy of Customs valuations or of any other particulars contained in the clearance documents &c. must be taken at the time of assessment by the appraisers.

If the interested parties desire to obtain certificates, these documents may be issued to them on the order of the Chief of Custom-house on their making a written application to that effect.

Art. 408.—With the view of securing order and uniformity in Customs documents, these are directed to be made out on special paper. This paper shall be issued at Custom-houses on account of the Treasury at the following cost per sheet:

- 20 centavos for detailed manifests.
- 20 centavos for re-shipping or transhipping bills.
- 10 centavos for clearance documents.
- 10 centavos for export bills.

In customs for passes under bond.

All said papers shall on the first page bear a stamp of 20 centavos.

Art. 409.—Every Customs certificate &c. shall be made out on a 20 centavos stamp.

Art. 410.—General manifests produced by captains on their arrival may be made out on ordinary paper furnished with the 20 centavos stamp only, provided these documents require no special formality.

Art. 411.—Every person having business with the Customs shall be entitled to complain of any improper treatment received by him at the hands of the Customs. For this purpose the interested party will make a written report to the Chief of the Customs, who will transmit the same, through the Inspector-General, to the Ministry of Finance, to which department are to be submitted all matters arising out of that administration.

Art. 412 to 414.—

Art. 415.—All Customs provisions in force inconsistent with these regulations are hereby repealed.

The Minister of Finance and Industry is entrusted with the execution of the present law.

La Paz, January 21, 1901.

DECEMBER 22ND, 1899. For weights and measures the metrical system.

ARTICLE 1. All foreign goods destined to be consumed in Brazil, with the exception of those used in Art. 2, shall be subject to the duties stipulated in the Customs Law.

The following are considered as being of foreign origin :

1. All goods imported from abroad either for consumption, or in transit and those on board of vessels seeking a port of refuge in Brazil on account of stress of weather, provided such goods be cleared for consumption in the country.
2. Small boats, belonging to any vessel, unfit for service and sold or transferred in any port in the Republic.
3. Foreign goods nationalized through the payment of Customs duties conveyed from one Customs port to another in the Republic without documents (" sem despacho ").
4. National goods imported without documents.

TARIFF.]

other in the Republic, and which, at first sight, cannot be distinguished from similar foreign goods.

§ 1. Flotsam and jetsam, in conformity with Art. 293 of the Consolidated Customs and Revenue Laws.

EXEMPTIONS (1).

ART. 2.—The following goods and articles shall be exempt from import duties on such bond being given as the Inspector of Customs or the Administrator of the Treasury may deem necessary:

§ 1. Samples of no or of insignificant value shall be understood fragments of any kind of goods or merchandise in a quantity strictly necessary to reveal the nature, kind and quality, provided that the duties payable on each package do not exceed 1,000 reis.

§ 2. Models of machines, vessels, instruments, and of all kinds of inventions or improvements made in the arts.

§ 3. Agricultural implements and instruments for any of the liberal mechanical arts, and other articles for the use of printers, artists and engravers, coming to reside in the Republic, provided that such instruments are necessary for the exercise of their profession or industry and that they do not exceed the quantity indispensable for their personal requirements or for those of their families.

§ 4. Surplus provisions belonging to planters settling in the Republic, taken by them at the time of starting and not used on the journey.

§ 5. All articles for the personal use of Foreign Ambassadors and Legations, and, in general, of all persons belonging to the diplomatic corps, coming to reside in the Republic, when such articles can be considered as included in their luggage.

§ 6. Goods and effects imported by Ambassadors, Ministers Resident and Charges d'Affaires as related to the Government of Brazil, in the manner and according to the rules laid down by the laws in force, or imposed by Consuls General in the regular consular service, of nations not having a Legation in Brazil; also furniture and other personal articles of Consuls General and of Consuls in the regular consular service imported on their first installation.

§ 7. Effects for the personal use and service of Chiefs of Brazilian Diplomatic Missions remaining to the country, on the previous application of the Minister for Foreign Affairs.

§ 8. Goods and articles imported for the use of men-of-war belonging to friendly nations, as well as for their officers and crews, imported either in transports belonging to the respective States, in mail steamers or in merchant vessels, by request of the competent Legation or Chief of the naval station.

§ 9. National products of the soil or industry or those nationalized by the payment of duty which, after having been exported, return on whatever used to the Republic, provided that:

1. Such goods differ, and can easily be distinguished from similar goods of foreign origin;

2. They be returned within one year from the time they left a national port;

3. They be accompanied by a customs certificate at the foreign port of departure, duly legalized by the Brazilian Consular Officer, or, in his failing, authenticated according to Art. 312 of the Consolidated Customs and Revenue Laws.

This provision shall not apply to articles of national production used for packing products which have been exported from the country. (Law No. 1313 of December 31st, 1904, Art. 10.)

§ 10. National articles and goods sold for consumption for any reason whatsoever, if they were loaded on vessels which, after having sailed from a Brazilian port, call at another or are shipwrecked.

Should any doubt arise as to whether the salvaged products are national or foreign, no exemption from duty will be granted.

§ 11. Instruments, books and implements for the personal use of literary men, or of any kind of instruments coming to explore Brazil, subject to previous application having been made to the Legation concerned.

§ 12. Used effects or clothing of passengers, as well as the instruments and articles of daily use or necessary for the exercise of their profession (2), and articles of daily use or necessary for the exercise of their profession (2), and articles of daily use or necessary for the exercise of their profession (2).

§ 13. Used effects or clothing of ship masters and crews, nautical instruments, books, charts, maps, plans and implements for their personal or professional use, whether such articles remain on board or be taken ashore by the aforesaid persons on leaving the vessel.

§ 14. Commercial books already in use and all manuscripts; family portraits; books for the use of passengers, provided that not more than one copy of each work be imported; finished or unfinished drawings and sketches belonging to artists intending to reside in the country, and, in general, all used implements and articles necessary for their art or profession.

§ 15. Used travelling trunks, portmanteaus and bags, belonging to the baggage of passengers and crews of vessels, necessary for their daily personal use during the voyage.

§ 16. Jewellery of passengers.

§ 17. All kinds of old articles of previous metal, rendered unserviceable at the time of, or prior to, clearance or examination.

§ 18. Barrels, hogsheads, casks, cases, casks, receptacles of common black, blue or greenish glass, or of common earthenware or faience boxes of wicker-plait, iron, lead, tin or zinc; sacks and wrappers of coarse packing cloth and other common tissue, and all unfinished packings in which goods not dutiable on gross weight are packed, unless said containers be empty or, for any reason, be emptied, or completely separated from the goods they contained.

§ 19. Straw which has served for packing goods and which is not serviceable for any other purpose.

§ 20. Foreign goods which have paid import duty in any competent Custom-house and are conveyed from one Customs port to another in national vessels, with the necessary clearance papers, according to the regulations in force.

§ 21. Goods and articles entitled to free entry under the provisions of the Tariff.

§ 22. All goods and articles the free importation of which is or may be conceded by a special law, or by a contract entered into by the Federal Government with any national or foreign person, company or corporation (3).

§ 23. Goods and articles directly imported on account of the Union for the service of the Republic.

§ 24. Produce of fisheries carried on by national vessels.

§ 25. Goods introduced into the interior of the Amazonas, Para and Mato Grosso States, from any point of the territories contiguous to such States, and the produce of said territories, in conformity with the provisions of Treaties and Conventions concluded with those frontier Countries.

§ 26. Piles imported by shipwrights established in Brazil and destined to the building of vessels and steamers in national dockyards on compliance with the formalities required by Art. 17 of Law No. 128, of December 10, 1890.

§ 27. Articles belonging to lyric, dramatic, equestrian and other travelling companies for performances in public edifices, and collections of natural history, numismatics and antiquities; statuary and busts of whatever material for public exhibitions; also foreign goods intended to appear in industrial exhibitions established in the country.

This exemption can only be granted when the interested party deposits the amount of the import duties leviable on the above-mentioned articles or furnishes adequate guarantee; these duties will, however, be collected if within the time granted by the chief of the bureau of entry (which time may be reasonably extended) the articles thus imported be not re-exported, or (proof be not afforded that they have disappeared through usage or through death, in the case of animals).

§ 28. Boats and skiffs of ships declared unserviceable, when they are sold together with them at public auction. In such case, said boats and skiffs shall only be subject to the fees on the transfer of property.

§ 29. Machines, clothing and public assistance institutions, provided that the imported articles be destined to the usage and maintenance of the aforesaid persons (4).

§ 30. The under-mentioned chemical products when imported as fertilizers or when they can be employed in an agricultural industry:

Mineral or bone phosphate of ammonia, copper, iron or potash; potash and of soda; sulphates of ammonia, chloride of potassium, formic acid (5), sulphur; and animals imported for the improvement of native breeds.

§ 31. Animals imported for the improvement of native breeds.

§ 32. 7. Portable and fixed rails, dump cars for earth works, freight cars, locomotives, tractors (tractores), boats and lighters of wood or iron;

8. Fireproof bricks for steam boiler furnaces;

9. Scales for weighing sugar cane and sugar, and iron tanks;

The exemption does not extend to common building bricks, wood of any quality, wire-rope commonly known as Paris cables, machine grease and all articles manufactured by the home industry in a quantity sufficient for supplying the market.

The exemption from duty is also applicable to component parts of machines imported separately, if the examination made by experts appointed by the chief of the bureau of entry proves that such articles cannot be used otherwise than to substitute without identical parts of any kind of machine, or as duplicates of parts in a good condition, but unserviceable to eventually become unfit for use.

This provision does not apply to grease boxes, columns, shafting, and other parts of iron connected with the motion gear, which are not to be considered as internal parts of machines, except in the case of machinery and apparatus referred to in § 5 above.

ART. 3.—The articles mentioned in §§ 12 to 15 of Art. 2 may be exempt from duty, even when they do not arrive on the same vessel at the same time as the passengers or crew.

(1) See at the end of Tariff Articles 2 (1) and 4 of Law No. 2719, dated December 31st, 1912.

(2) See at the end of Tariff Art. 16 of Law No. 2719, dated December 31st, 1912.

(3) Repealed by Art. 2 (1) of Law No. 2719, dated December 31, 1912.

(1) Repealed by Art. 2 (1) of Law No. 2719, dated December 31, 1912.

(2) See at the end of Tariff Articles 11 and 17 of Law No. 2719, dated December 31, 1912.

ART. 4.—The permission of the Minister of Finance is necessary for the free importation of the goods enumerated in §§ 22, 23, 26, 29, 31, 32, 33 and 35 of Art. 2.

SOLE PARAGRAPH.—The person effecting the clearance of goods enumerated in §§ 22, 23, 29, 31, 32, 33, 35 and 36 of Art. 2 must, in his application to the chief of the bureau of entry, or to the Minister of Finance, with the view of obtaining the clearance permits, indicate with accuracy the numbers and marks of the packages, their contents, quantity, weight or measure.

As to the articles enumerated in § 26 of Art. 2, the application for free entry must state the necessary materials or pieces, the name of the vessel, the deckyard where it is to be built, and what is to be its tonnage.

ART. 5.—Goods comprised in §§ 1-8, 11-16, 18, 20, 22, 23, 25, 26, 31, 32 and 35 of Art. 2, are not only exempt from clearance duties, but also from the registration tax of 10% prescribed by Art. 569 of the Consolidated Customs Laws (1).

PROHIBITED GOODS.

ART. 6.—The clearance of the following articles and goods is prohibited:

1. All obscene or immoral sculptures, paintings or lithographs.
2. Any article the use or application of which is either obscene or immoral.
3. Counterfeit prints or books referred to in Art. 35 of Law No. 369 of September 18, 1845, and in Decree No. 2491, of September 30, 1859.
4. Daggers, clasp-knives, air-guns and air-pistols; sticks, umbrellas and any other article containing swords, stiletos, daggers or firearms.
5. Gunpowder of any quality, when the person effecting the clearance does not present a special permit from the competent Police authorities.

Alimentary products or medicines in a state of putrefaction or damaged, and which are found to be injurious to public health, after examination by competent persons in the manner prescribed by § 7, Chap. 5, title VIII, of the Consolidated Customs Laws.

§ 7. Arms and ammunition of war, when the Federal Government feels it necessary for the safety and maintenance of public order.

ART. 7.—The articles enumerated in §§ 1, 2, 4 and 6, the importation of which is prohibited in virtue of the preceding article, shall be seized and immediately destroyed or rendered unserviceable; those mentioned in § 3 shall be forfeited, in conformity with Art. 2, of Decree No. 2491, of September 30, 1859; those comprised in Art. 2, of Decree No. 2491, of September 30, 1859, those comprised in §§ 5 and 7 shall, according to their nature, be deposited in the arsenals and military magazines or in any other place that the Government may designate, or be collected in a special warehouse until they can be regularly cleared with the permission of the competent authority; a statement of the proceedings must be taken down in writing and signed by the chief of the Customs.

§ 1. When the articles imported in §§ 1 and 2 of the preceding article can be destroyed or rendered unserviceable without prejudice or damage to other non-prohibited goods with which they may be packed, these latter may be cleared, otherwise all the goods shall be destroyed.

§ 2. Should any article of value or composed of precious materials be found amongst the goods enumerated in § 4 of the preceding article, and should it be possible, on the other hand, to destroy or render null for use, umbrellas, whips, etc., in which contained, the provisions of the preceding paragraph will be complied with.

APPLICATION OF THE TARIFF.

ART. 8.—In the application of the tariff and collection of duties no distinction with relation to the goods, or to the exporters or importers shall, under any pretence, be made unless established by Law.

ART. 9.—In the collection of duties, no distinction shall be made (save the provisions of Art. 18, §§ 4 and 5) between new and used goods and articles, in the place of use, or in cuttings, unfinished or incomplete, entirely finished in ready for use, with or without ornaments; neither shall the nature of the packages, nor any circumstance not expressly stipulated in the tariff or provided for in the present dispositions be taken into account.

An article of object shall be reputed as differing from that classed or mentioned in the tariff by the simple fact of its having been ornamented or modified in a manner not therein specified, and which has not altered its nature, quality or use, although a different name shall have been given to it.

ART. 10.—Clothes and articles, unembroidered, ornamented or trimmed with gold, silver or precious stones, not specially classed in the tariff or duties levied to special provisions of the tariff, shall pay the ad valorem ornamented.

ART. 11.—Wares manufactured or composed of different materials, not subject to special or fixed duties in the tariff or regulated by any particular provision shall be subject to the duties established for similar wares of materials, or of the same kind, when the predominating material, in case of equality, shall pay according to the most highly taxed material.

Mixed tissues, with respect to which the special regulations established in the following article must be observed, are excepted.

MIXED TISSUES.

ART. 12.—Tissues visibly composed of different materials, for which no special duty is stipulated in the tariff, shall pay the duty of the most highly taxed component material, shall pay the duty of the most when all the threads of the warp or all those of the weft are composed of a material subject to the lowest duty, in which case a reduction of 10% will be granted.

For tissues mixed with silk the following rules must be observed:

1. Mixed tissues in which all the threads of the warp or all those of the weft are of silk and the remaining threads of different material, shall pay the duties stipulated for similar tissues composed entirely of silk, with a reduction of 50%.

2. Mixed tissues with the warp and wool of silk, but in the warp or wool of which, or in both, there are visible threads of any other material, silk, with a reduction of 20%.

No reduction, however, shall be granted to tissues of silk when in the insignificant quantity that they do not alter the nature, importance, or value of the tissues.

3. Mixed tissues with the warp and wool composed of other materials, but in the warp or wool of which, or in both, there are a few threads or mixture of silk, shall pay the duties leviable on the most highly taxed material, with a surtax of 30%.

4. Tissues of any material mixed with gold or silver, and not specially classed in the tariff, shall pay the duties leviable on plain corresponding tissues with a surtax of 20%.

UNENUMERATED GOODS—ASSIMILATIONS.

ART. 13.—Goods not specified or not comprised in one of the numbers of the tariff, nor in any of its general classifications, shall be assimilated to those goods mentioned in the tariff to which they show analogy of affinity either on account of the nature and quality of the component material, or on account of the manufacture, tissue, workmanship or shape, or on account of the use or employment; such goods shall pay the same duties as the goods to which they are assimilated.

§ 1. In order to establish assimilations, the Inspector, after taking the opinion of the experts appointed to examine the goods, shall decide whether the assimilation is possible or not, and in the affirmative, determine in which tariff number the goods are to be classed.

§ 2. Should the interested party not accept the assimilation, he may appeal to the competent superior authority in the form and within the time determined by title XI, of the Consolidated Customs Laws.

§ 3. Should the interested party accept the assimilation, such assimilation shall be definite for the special case in question.

§ 4. Should the interested party reject the assimilation, either before or after the appeal, he may be authorised to re-export the goods within a period not exceeding 90 days; after the expiration of this period, the goods must be cleared for consumption and shall pay duty in conformity with the administrative decision.

§ 5. If, after observance of the mode of procedure established in §§ 1 and 2 of the present Article, the goods cannot be assimilated, they shall be dutiable at the rate of 50% ad valorem.

GOODS CLEARED ad valorem OR ACCORDING TO INVOICE.

ART. 14.—The price regulating the ad valorem duties to be levied shall be the market price at the place of exportation, increased by all expenses subsequent to the purchase, such as export duties, freight, insurance, commission, etc., up to the port of discharge; in default of such information, or when the amount thus determined is deemed to defraud the market of importation less the amount of duties, with an additional 10%.

However, the duties on manufacturers', clothing or tissues, figured, embroidered or ornamented, rated ad valorem, shall never be higher than those established in the tariff for the same articles, either figured, embroidered or ornamented.

ART. 15.—For the clearance of goods liable to ad valorem duties, as well as for all other clearances, the interested parties must furnish Consular invoices of the goods imported by them duly raised by the Brazilian Consul at the place of origin, can rating the declared value which shall be calculated at the rate of exchange of 12 pence per 1,000 reis.

In case of false declaration or should it be evident that the invoice produced does not agree with the value of the goods, the interested party shall be liable to a fine equal to treble the ascertained value, but he may, if he deems proper, exercise any recourse authorised by Art. 511 of the Consolidated Customs Laws.

ART. 16.—The Comptroller shall verify, by the means at his disposal, the accuracy of the values given in the declaration; to this end he will consider the invoices referred to in Art. 15, or in default of these, other authentic documents relating to the goods submitted for clearance; the examination of all the said documents shall be effected with all necessary circumspection; when the real value of the said goods cannot be verified by these means, the market price at the place of import shall, as stated in Art. 11, be adopted as a basis.

ART. 17.—Should the Comptroller not accept the value declared by the interested party, or if the latter rejects the value fixed by the Comptroller, the procedure established in Art. 511 of the Consolidated Customs Laws shall be followed.

§ 1. Should the value estimated by the experts not exceed by 5% that declared by the interested party, the duties shall be levied according to value stated in the declaration; if it exceeds 5%, the duties shall be levied according to the value determined by the experts.

§ 2. Should the value estimated by the experts exceed by 50% that declared, the interested party shall pay, as a fine to the Treasury, 50% in addition to the duties.

§ 3.—Appeal from the decisions of the experts shall be allowed, and the interested party has, in all cases, the option to re-export the goods within the time fixed by the Inspector and after payment of any fines that may have been incurred.

ART. 18.—The clearance ad valorem includes:

1. Goods which by the tariff are subject to ad valorem duties.
2. Goods not mentioned and which cannot be assimilated to others classed in the tariff.
3. Samples not exceeding 100,000 reis in value, even if burdened with a duty in the tariff.
4. Fittings, running an articles of usage on board of merchant vessels or men-of-war.
5. Small articles contained in the baggage of passengers, used furniture and other utensils; articles of little value, even if mentioned in the tariff, when, on account of their number, it is difficult to clear them in the ordinary manner. In any case action will only be taken at the request of the interest of party and with the permission of the Inspector.

REBATE.

ART. 19.—Rebate shall only be granted in the following cases:

1. Tarf.
2. Average.
3. Breakage.

4. Accidental damage, or damage through circumstances which could neither be foreseen nor prevented, to goods deposited in warehouses of the State, placed under its supervision, such damage being duly established in accordance with Art. 247 and 248 of the Consolidated Customs Laws.

5. In virtue of any article or of a special provision of the tariff.

SOLE PARAGRAPH.—Goods and other articles appertaining to ships wrecked on the coast or small ships, when sold by public auction for consumption, be allowed a rebate amounting to one-half the import duties.

NET WEIGHT—GROSS WEIGHT—TARE.

ART. 20.—Goods not dutiable in the tariff on real net weight or gross weight, shall pay duty on legal net weight.

§ 1. By real net weight shall be understood the weight of the goods separated from the packages, both outside and inside.

(1) See at the end of tariff Art. 3 of Law No. 2719, dated December 31, 1912.

TARIFF.]

2. By gross weight shall be understood the weight of the goods with packages designated in the tariff, including the weight of the paper, paper and other materials necessary for preservation, with the sole exception of those of rough wood.

3. By legal net weight shall be understood the gross weight after deducting the tare stipulated in the tariff.

RT. 21.—Should the goods be enclosed in more than one package, the allowance shall equal the rate accorded for each package, except in a warehouse, by a special provision of the tariff, the legal tare comprises more than one package.

RT. 22.—Should a package contain goods, some of which are dutiable on real net weight and others on real net weight or gross weight, the duties on the whole shall be levied on real net weight.

RT. 23.—Should goods be dutiable on legal net weight, but the same rule shall apply when the weight, as found in the same package, is different duties or tare allowances, are found in the same package.

RT. 24.—When clearing goods for consumption, the interested party the option of paying on gross weight, the duties for goods dutiable on net weight or, save the exceptions in Article 11 of the tariff, of paying duties on real net weight for goods dutiable on legal net weight.

RT. 25.—If the containers or packages are of the same shape and of equal or nearly equal weight, the net weight shall be established by weighing 1 in 10, 3 in 20, 5 in one hundred, and so on; the average weight thus obtained shall serve as a basis for calculating the total net weight.

The above proportion may be reduced when the number of packages which exceeds one hundred or when relative to liquids or other goods which are deteriorated through such method of verification; but it will be increased when the total weight thus obtained does not tally with that required for clearance.

RT. 26.—Packages of goods shall be subject to no other duty than that applicable to the goods they contain, whether these be dutiable according to weight, dimension, quality or ad valorem.

SOLE PARAGRAPH.—The following are excepted:

1. Crystall or glass receptacles closed in the tariff under No. 2 and one of false glass excepted under Nos. 1, 5 and 6 of the Tariff.

2. All other receptacles of commercial value, or capable of serving for other purposes, when containing goods which are dutiable on net weight, the goods which, being assessable on gross weight, are subject to a lower duty than would be levied on the receptacles if imported separately.

In such case, the duties on the goods shall be levied according to real net weight.

RT. 27.—If a package subject to duty contains goods dutiable on legal net weight, the respective rate shall be considered as the weight of such package.

AVERAGE.

RT. 28.—By average shall be understood all damage sustained by goods under the following circumstances:

§ 1. Accidents at sea or during voyage, which have occurred from the time of shipment to the time of discharge at the Custom-house or in a warehouse.

§ 2. On account of the natural deterioration of goods.

RT. 30.—A rebate of duty is granted for average in the following cases:

§ 1. If, at the time of discharge, the containers show external signs of deterioration and the contents, and the interested party makes a claim or protest within fifteen days from the time of discharge.

§ 2. If, in default of such external signs, the average be proved at the Customs examination or at the time of removal.

§ 3. Cases of average shall be verified either by a commission of experts appointed by the Inspector or Administrator, or by any other means deemed fit by him.

RT. 31.—The experts shall take note of the condition of the goods and amount of damage. Should the damage only be partial, they will separate the damaged from the sound portion, and the latter shall be subject to the regulations established for the clearance of undamaged goods. They shall, in addition, fix the rebate to be accorded for the damaged goods.

RT. 32.—Goods which cannot be separated as damaged at sea or during voyage, but which are considered as damaged in value through contact with water shall not be considered as damaged on account of their inferior quality, but shall be considered as goods naturally deteriorated.

RT. 33.—The Chief of the Custom-house shall, on the advice of the experts or in consequence of any other information, decide whether it is a case of average or not.

RT. 34.—On the proof of a case of average on account of accidents at sea or during the voyage, or of through natural deterioration, the owners or consignees of the damaged goods must, within ten days (which time the Inspector may extend, if he considers proper) from the date on which the goods were officially certified as being damaged, clear the goods subject to the rebate fixed by the experts or, with the permission of the competent Inspector or Administrator, sell them by auction at, or outside the Custom-house gates; and the expiration of this time, the goods shall be considered as lost and will be sold by auction, the proceeds of the sale being paid over to the Custom-house or Treasury cashier.

From the above provisions are excluded the cases provided for by Articles 231 (sole paragraph), 385 and 471 of the Consolidated Customs Laws, in respect of which the procedure prescribed in said Articles shall be followed.

RT. 35.—When selling damaged goods by auction, the provisions of Article VI, chap. 6, of the aforesaid Laws will be observed; he duties shall be levied on the sale price as calculated according to the corresponding tariff rates.

RT. 36.—In case of doubt as to whether goods are damaged or not, or as to whether the damage is the result of an accident at sea or during voyage, or is due to natural deterioration, the Inspector may at the request of the interested party, cause the question to be resolved by experts; in such case the procedure established in articles 512 and 517 of the said Laws shall be followed.

ART. 37.—Alimentary or edible products and simple or compound medicines, liquid or solid, which have been damaged at sea or during voyage, or through natural causes, may not be cleared or sold for consumption by auction until after examination by experts and when it be proved that the deterioration does not render the goods noxious to public health. In contrary cases, such goods shall immediately be rendered unserviceable. A statement of the proceedings will be taken down in writing.

Casks and other packages which have served to contain the above-mentioned goods may, however, be cleared as empty receptacles or sold by auction.

BREAKAGE.

ART. 38.—A tolerance may in all kinds, glassware and articles of tin or enameled cast iron, imported in bulk or in cases, hogshells, hampers or other similar packages, shall pay the respective duties with a rebate of 5% for breakage, whether they be dutiable on real net weight or legal net weight; should the owner or consignee claim a greater rebate, the Inspector may, after the examination by experts appointed by him, allow a further rebate of 5% of the owner or consignee must either accept this concession or pay duty on each separate piece neither broken nor cracked and abandon the remainder, which shall be sold by auction in conformity with Art. 255 of the Consolidated Customs Laws.

SOLE PARAGRAPH.—No rebate for breakage shall be accorded after the real net weight of the goods above-mentioned has been verified in the manner indicated in the concluding portion of the present article.

ART. 39.—The tolerance of 5% for breakage or waste in cases shall be granted to the consignee, whether it be dutiable on real net weight or legal net weight, and the Comptrollers shall, unless protest be lodged for general average, be dispensed from effecting the verification.

ART. 40.—The examination heretofore authorized in order to ascertain a leakage or waste in wines imported in casks, withdrawn from Customs-warehouses, is abolished. In future this leakage or waste shall be calculated on the following bases: 3% of the net weight during the first month of their storage, with an increase of 1% for every additional month, up to a maximum of 4%, which rate, whatever be the period of storage, cannot be exceeded.

FORMALITIES TO BE OBSERVED WHEN CLEARING GOODS.

ART. 41.—The entry or removal of goods deposited in Customs warehouses, the fiscal offices, or their annexes, can only take place subject to payment of the Customs duties, warehouse dues, or any other charge leviable on the goods and after clearance has been effected in accordance with the provisions of the following articles.

ART. 42.—The person who intends to clear dutiable goods is required to present to the chief of the competent Custom-house the following papers:

§ 1. The bill-of-lading and Consular invoice shall be annexed to the corresponding manifests and other documents proving the origin of the goods or articles proposed to be cleared and the receipt of the party effecting clearance to take delivery thereof, in default of a Consular invoice the goods shall be subject to the highest rate of duty provided in the tariff (1).

§ 2. A statement, in duplicate, giving the following particulars:

1. Date of presentation;

2. Name of the owner or consignee of the articles or goods;

3. Name of the vessel or vehicle (relativa) transporting the goods, its nationality, place of departure and date of arrival in the respective port;

4. The destination of the depository, warehouse or place where the goods are stored; the date of discharge in the first depot or in the depot where the goods are found at the time of clearance;

5. Kind, numbers, marks and countermarks of the packages to be cleared;

6. Quantity, quality, weight or dimensions of the goods contained in each package, or of the goods in bulk, in conformity with the basis adapted in the tariff for the calculation of duties, and, should the goods be subject to ad valorem duty, the value of each article.

7. Signature of the owner or consignee of the articles or goods, if he personally clears the same, or that of his representative duly authorized for the purpose, in conformity with Article III, of the Consolidated Customs Laws, by a special power of attorney written and signed by the said owner or consignee.

§ 3. The power of attorney referred to may be written on the declaration itself as follows:

I authorize . . . Custom-house agent or my cashier . . . to clear the goods mentioned in the capacity of Custom-house agent, to clear the goods mentioned in this statement. I holding myself responsible for all acts done by him, for the duties due to the Treasury in respect of the goods entered by him, for the manifest and bill-of-lading, for any defaults committed by him, for any false declarations of duty, as well as for failure to perform all other formalities or proceedings whatsoever.

§ 4.—The particulars as to weight, dimension or quantity of goods must be given both in figures and in letters.

§ 5.—In clearing goods dutiable on weight, the interested party must expressly declare whether the goods are dutiable on gross weight or on real net weight. If the goods are assessed on legal net weight, either because the interested party prefers such method of clearance, or because he is unable to pay duty on the real net weight, the declaration must be made as follows:

Gross weight. . . . .
Tare allowance. . . . .
Legal net weight.

§ 6.—The value of goods dutiable ad valorem must be indicated in figures by the interested party in the margin of the respective declaration and should the amount agree, the Comptroller will reproduce the same, in letters, in the body of said document; in contrary cases, he will mention the value to be attributed to the goods.

§ 7.—The declaration of entry and discharge shall be previously compared with the translation of the manifest and with the warehouse register, and the respective Customs employees must note this fact on the declaration.

§ 8.—The value of the goods must appear opposite every denomination and it shall be computed at the rate of exchange of 12 pence per 1000 reis, in conformity with the stipulations of Art. 14 of the present dispositions and according to the form established in Schedule C (omitted).

(1) Article 23 of the Instructions approved by Decree No. 3529 dated December 15, 1899, declares that in default of a consular invoice, the goods to be cleared, whatever be their origin, shall be subject to the Maximum Tariff rates. (See also at end of tariff Art. 53 of Law No. 2719, dated December 31, 1912.)

ART. 43.—The Comptrollers must delay in their respective entries the tariff numbers under which each of the goods verified at the time of clearance is classed.

ART. 44.—Save under circumstances provided by the Law, goods enclosed in one package cannot be cleared separately, part for consumption and part for re-exportation or transshipment.

ART. 45.—The clearance for consumption of liquids, and of the goods classed in Schedule II, annexed to the Consolidated Customs Laws, shall be effected separately.

ART. 46.—A same clearance cannot include goods deposited in warehouses, goods stored in other depots or goods left on board a ship or on lighters; the cleared goods shall, as far as possible, be divided according to the depots in which stored.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS (3).

ART. 47.—The numbering of threads entering in tissues liable according to the number of threads contained in a square of 4 millimetres side, shall be effected by the instrument called thread-counter.

The total number of warp and woof threads shall serve to determine the number of threads in the tissue. Should the tissue be irregular, the threads shall be counted on different parts of the piece of the tissue by means of the thread-counter, and the number of threads in the tissue shall be established by taking the arithmetical average of the different parts.

ART. 48.—The removal of samples exempt from duty, according to Art. 2, § 1, may be effected without clearance, after examination by the Comptroller appointed for the purpose, who then the respective package be omitted from the manifest or be mentioned therein as containing samples.

§ 1. The package containing samples is registered as free of duty on the delivery of a certificate written and signed by the person clearing the goods or the owner of the same and visced by the Comptroller at the time of clearance. This certificate shall mention the mark and number of the package, also the name, port of departure and date of arrival of the importing vessel.

§ 2. Should the same package contain both duty-free and dutiable samples, only the former will be admitted free of duty; the latter shall be sealed up any remnant in the package and afterwards duly cleared; the Comptroller must enter in the certificate in question the goods so sealed up and the subject to duty.

ART. 49.—Wines, hard, as well as all alimentary products declared unfit for consumption by the National Laboratory, cannot be cleared through the Customs and the importers or consignees must re-export the same comply with this injunction, the goods shall be rendered unfit for consumption, and the importers or consignees shall incur the fine of 1,000,000, prescribed by Art. 13 of Law No. 489, dated December 15, 1897.

The following shall be considered as noxious to public health and condemned as such:

Wines, as well as all alimentary products containing boric or salicylic acid, alcohol of bad quality, free mineral acids (sulphuric, sulphurous, hydrochloric); sulphides, alkali, fluorates or alkaline fluorates; saccharin; salts of antimony, lead, zinc, tin, arsenic, antimony; sulphate of potash in a quantity exceeding 2 grammes per litre of wine, except wines of a strength above 20 degrees, for which 1 gramme of sulphate of potash per litre shall be tolerated.

In beer the following shall be considered as noxious to health: hop galls (tinctures such as wormwood, bitter quassia, calcichum, p-crotonine, ethers of the fatty series, camphor, anisum, baryum, or any other substance recognized or which may be recognized by scientific analysis).

In all cases, the importation of wines found to be artificial is prohibited, even when not containing substances noxious to public health, and the violations of the first part of the present provision shall be applicable exported by the interested party.

ART. 50.—Should proof be afforded that the consumption of certain goods is not allowed in the country of origin thereof, the importation of such goods shall be prohibited.

ART. 51.—The fine incurred at the time of clearance in all cases provided by the Laws in force, shall in the discretion of the Customs Inspectors and the Comptroller be commensurate, amount to from 1% to 5%, under Art. 477 of the Consolidated Customs Laws.

SOLE §.—The penalty of double duty for discrepancies found on examination of the goods shall be incurred whenever the difference in the duties chargeable exceeds 100,000 reis.

ART. 52.—From and after January 1, 1900, in the case of goods bound for any Brazilian port, exporters or freighters shall be required to present for legalization by the Brazilian Consulate at the place of origin of the goods two invoices, one of which shall be handed to the shipper to accompany the goods to their destination and the other retained by the Consulate for transmission to the authorities in the Federal Capital charged with the keeping of general statistics.

ART. 53.—The tariff will be a double one, with maximum and minimum rates. The minimum rate is that provided for in the present tariff; the maximum duty represents double the duty aforesaid (2).

For the application of the tariff aforesaid (2), the Government will determine to what countries the maximum or minimum rates of duty may be applied, they reserving the right to reduce, if they think fit, all or certain countries to Brazilian products in the ships of the most-favoured nation treatment.

ART. 54.—All contrary provisions are hereby repealed.

EXEMPTIONS.

I. Article 1, section VII, No. 2, of Decree No. 8592, dated March 8, 1911, and Article 2, section IX, of Law No. 2524, dated December 31, 1911.

Fit coal imported by national navigation companies, for their own consumption, is exempt from the registration tax of 10%, as well as coal for foreign navigation companies agreeing to submit to the conditions imposed upon national companies.

The favour must be limited to coal exclusively intended for navigation and railways, but the entry and the grant of the exemption shall be effected under official control (3).

	Note 42.—The duties on chairs, tables, sofas, and other furniture or articles for domestic use only apply, save special dispositions, to articles plain or with mouldings; those which are gilt, carved or with incrustations of wood, ivory, mother-of-pearl or common metal, shall, in the first case, be liable to double the duties, and in the other cases, to a surtax of 30%, unless the value of the incrustations or carving is insignificant.
	Articles included in this class, trimmed or covered, shall be liable to the following surtaxes:
	When with any silk tissue 50%;
	When with any tissue of wool or horsehair 40%;
	When with morocco or any other leather 30%;
	When with any cotton or linen tissue 20%;
	Articles not covered with tissue shall enjoy a rebate of 30%.
	This rebate will be calculated on the duties stipulated for such chairs, sofas, etc. with cane seats.
	The following woods are considered as common: Pine (or fir), beech and cherry; and the following as fine: Ash, pear wood, red wood, walnut, oak, sycamore, mahogany, maple, satin-wood, rose-wood, tuya wood, jacaranda-wood, and the like. Articles veneered with the above mentioned woods, covered with a coating of paste, plain, or with gilt frieze or mouldings, as well as those lacquered or varnished, are also considered as of fine wood.

The duties on merchandise of products not included in the Tariff shall be determined by assimilating them to those items provided for under this law, which, by their nature and kind, most nearly resemble such merchandise or products.

In the case contemplated in the previous paragraph the assimilation will be determined by the Director of the Customs House in agreement with the respective Appraiser.

The assimilation also referred to will not be held to be definitely settled until the approval of the Superintendent of Customs has been obtained, which approval must be solicited in every case, and the relevant samples handed in or presented as evidence. The decision given by the last mentioned official shall be observed at all Customs Houses.

3. Goods which, according to the Tariff, are subject to the payment of duty on an ad valorem basis, will be assessed in conformity with the provisions of Article 69 of the Customs Ordinance.

Article 1. In the Magellan Territory the following merchandise or products will be subject to the payment of duty as established by the Tariff:

Mineral and other excavated waters.
 Spanish pepper (pimentón).
 Alcohol, spirits of wine, spirits and brandy, whether sweetened or not.
 Strach.
 Starch.
 Brushes and brooms, excepting tooth and nail brushes.
 Alimentary foot pastes.
 Fruits, dried, preserved, in juice or in alcohol.
 Cakes and biscuits.
 Greases or fats.
 Flour or meal.
 Preserved milk.
 Vegetables, fresh and garden produce fresh, preserved or dried.
 Maize.
 Butter.
 Manufactures of leather or sole leather or manufactures containing those materials except machine belts and chongs therefor.
 Potatoes.
 Forage or pasture.
 Hees.
 Tailor.
 Vinegar.
 Wines.

Article 2. The importation of obscene pictures, statues, images, books and other objects, or such article, as by their nature tend to corrupt morals or which are prejudicial to public order is prohibited.

The importation of the following is also prohibited:

(1) Beverages and foodstuffs in a state of decomposition or which are declared injurious to health: the beverage known as "absinth"; and products or substances intended for consumption which, even though not dangerous to health, being artificially prepared, or nutritive value proper to the products or substances they represent may be deceptive or defraud the consumer.

(2) Saccharine and the like, unless imported for medicinal purposes in accordance with regulations prescribed by the President of the Republic.

(3) Beverages or foodstuffs which contain saccharine or the like.

(4) Drugs and pharmaceutical preparations the formula of which is not printed in an intelligible manner on the wrapper or package in which they are immediately enclosed, unless the importer files this formula in the Institute of Hygiene in accordance with existing laws and regulations and pays an amount equal to twice the duty present in the Tariff.

The President of the Republic may prohibit the importation of beverages, foodstuffs, drugs, pharmaceutical preparations, and any substances or products which, in the opinion of the Superior Council of Hygiene, may be injurious to health.

Article 3. The importation of animals affected by contagious diseases is also prohibited.

The President of the Republic is empowered to close sea ports or land frontiers to the importation of animals which are suffering from contagious diseases or which come from districts affected by epidemics.

Wild animals, noxious reptiles, insects and other animals may only be imported for scientific purposes with special permission from the local Governor and under guarantees required by the respective regulations.

Article 4. The importation of plants, seeds, tubers, bulbs, bulbous roots, cuttings and roots shall only be effected after the issue of a certificate of origin from the respective authorities of the country of origin, issued by the office charged with the sanitary inspection of vegetable products.

Article 5. Military stores shall only be imported by special permission of the President of the Republic.

Powder except blasting powder for mines and dynamite (or the like), side arms or firearms (except sporting arms and ammunition therefor), shall not be imported with the special permission of the Intendant of the respective territory concerned, who shall notify each case to the President of the Republic.

Article 6. Articles which are sought to be imported in violation of the prohibitive measures stipulated in Articles 5 and 7 will be confiscated, and destroyed or rendered useless.

Animals sought to be imported in contravention of the provision of paragraph 1 of Article 6 shall also be confiscated and slaughtered.

Animals imported in contravention of paragraph 2 of Article 6 shall be returned to their place of origin or subjected to appropriate sanitary treatment. Should it not be possible to adopt these measures, the diseased animals shall be slaughtered at the expense of the proprietor or custodian, and no compensation shall be accorded.

In cases of contravention referred to in the preceding paragraphs a fine ranging from 1,000 pesos will be imposed on the importer, and he shall also be liable to pay compensation in respect of any mischief or damage caused.

Article 7. In cases where the Tariff grants exemption of duty in respect of certain goods by reason of the use for which they are intended, this exemption will only be sanctioned when such articles, by their particular form and nature, are specially adapted for the use indicated.

Article 8. Whenever the Tariff contains the phrases "other material" or "other materials" they will not be held to include either precious stones, pearls, fine metals or silk.

Article 9. Manufactured articles composed of two or more materials, or articles in respect of which the Tariff stipulates that they may or may not have "pieces or parts of other material," shall pay duty at the rate applicable to the part which is subject to the highest rate of duty in cases where the part which is subject to this highest rate is payable exceeds 20% of the total weight of the goods, unless the Tariff provides other treatment.

Article 10. All goods the proper classification of which is doubtful will pay the highest rate of duty applicable according to kind, without prejudice, however, to protest entered in accordance with Article 20.

Article 11. When goods or products are presented with labels which * Article 69 of the Customs Ordinance is as follows:

 Goods not included in the Tariff will be valued by the Appraisers according to the price obtained at the last wholesale sales effected under Customs supervision. Failing this basis of comparison the valuation will be accomplished by taking the current price which the same article fetches on the spot minus the import duties; but if this information, too, cannot be obtained, then the Appraiser will use discretion in determining the value, having regard to the quality of the article."

tribute to them qualities superior to their real quality, duty will be levied according with the statement contained on such labels, even though the contents harmonise with the description given in the respective Customs entry forms.

Article 15.—The invoice value of each class of goods shall be declared in the Customs entry forms, in pesos of 18 pesetas, fractions over 50 centavos being ignored, and those exceeding 50 centavos being entered 1 peso.

Article 16.—When importers do not possess Consular invoices and the Chilean Customs offices are empowered, under Articles 6 and 19 of the Law No. 2206 of the 21st September, 1909, to collect the Consular fees at fines, the signatory of the Customs entry form shall present a special invoice giving all the information required in such documents, and the value of the goods shall be established in accordance with Article 69 of the Customs Ordinances. See footnote to Article 5.

Article 17.—Foreign goods shall be subject to a warehouse fee, which will be levied in the periods and form specified below:—

(1) Goods intended for consumption in Chile, and subject to import duty, shall pay 4 % of the amount of such duty when cleared during the first four months of storage; 8 % when cleared during the second period of four months; and 12 % when cleared during the third period of four months.

In the case of goods free of import duty, the warehouse fee shall be 10 centavos per 100 kilos, gross weight when the goods are cleared within the first four months of storage; 20 centavos when cleared during the course of the second period of four months; and 30 centavos when cleared during the third period of four months.

(2) Goods stored in warehouse and declared to be intended to be cleared in transit shall, when re-shipped, pay the same fees as those fixed in the preceding paragraph, but the respective periods shall be doubled, i.e., the periods shall be of eight months up to the completion of two years.

In the case of these goods being cleared for consumption in Chile, they shall pay 6 % of the amount of the import duty when cleared within the first four months; 12 % when cleared during the second period of four months; and 18 % when cleared during the third period of four months, and so on, with a progressive increase of 6 % in each period of four months up to the end of the sixth (and final) period of four months. In the case of duty-free goods, the fee shall be 15 centavos per 100 kilos, (gross weight) when cleared within the first four months; 30 centavos when cleared during the second period of four months; 45 centavos when cleared during the third period of four months; and so on, with a progressive increase of 15 centavos for each period of four months up to and including the sixth period.

(3) "Immediate clearance" goods and goods for deposit in private warehouses which are deposited in Customs warehouses by error not attributable to Customs employees or officers, shall be doubled in the warehousing fees specified in paragraph 1, and shall also be removed to their proper place or cleared immediately should the Customs administration so require.

(4) "Immediate clearance" goods shall be withdrawn within 45 days following the date of the general manifest. Should they not be so withdrawn they shall be subject to the warehousing fees referred to in paragraph 1.

(5) At the end of the period of 45 days fixed for the withdrawal of "immediate clearance goods" and at the end of the period of one year fixed for the clearance of goods intended for consumption in Chile and deposited in Customs warehouses, and at the end of the period of two years fixed for the clearance of goods intended for transit, the goods shall be sold by public auction, in accordance with the respective Ordinances.

(6) All the periods specified in this Article shall count from the date of presentation of the general manifest. In the case of delay caused by delay in unloading a vessel, the President of the Republic may fix another date from which the periods are to be reckoned.

Article 18.—When the case contemplated by Article 36 of the Customs Ordinance occurs in regard to goods which contain marks, marks or inscriptions which invest them with a proprietary character, such as commercial advertisements or signs, labels, trade-marks or the like, their sale by public auction may not be carried out except at a price which may not be higher than the amount of duty leviable. In the absence of any bidding the goods in question shall be sold to the State property and steps will be taken to render them unfit for use.

Article 19.—For the purpose of applying the fines laid down in the Law and based on the value of the goods, the value in question will be assessed at a sum equal to four times the relative import duty. For the same purpose the value of duty-free goods and goods in coating trade shall be fixed in accordance with Article 69 of the Customs Ordinance.

Article 20. Any protest against the classification, valuation, weight, measurement or quantity of goods shall be referred to the director of the Customs house concerned, who will decide the issue after hearing two experts (one to be appointed by the Customs authorities, and the other by the person or firm interested), and a Valparaiso, the Chief of the Board of Appraisers; and at other places, the appraiser who may have examined and classified the goods.

An appeal in respect of decisions arrived at by directors of Customs houses may be made to the Superintendent of Customs, and in the event they will be referred to the latter. The finding declared by the Superintendent of Customs shall be final and will be valid in all Customs houses.

Protests may not be lodged after the working day following the date on which the records regarding the matter were entered in the respective Customs entry form or if the goods or part thereof shall have been taken away from the precincts of the Customs house.

Article 21.—The President of the Republic is empowered to limit to certain Customs houses the importation of those products or goods which he may deem expedient.

Article 22.—The duties established in this Tariff are expressed in pesos of 18 pesetas.

Article 23.—The present Tariff shall be considered as the minimum tariff, applicable to products from countries which grant most-favoured-nation treatment to importations from Chile.

The President of the Republic is empowered to impose a surtax of 25 % of the Tariff fixed by the Tariff as a maximum tariff applicable to products from other countries.

Article 24.—This Law was published in the "Diario Oficial," and came into force on April 19, 1916.

GENERAL RULES FOR THE APPLICATION OF THE TARIFF.

1. In the following cases, clearances of goods shall not be considered as legally completed unless the Chief of Appraisers (el Valparaiso) or the Administrator of Customs (en otros Cuartos de Aduana) has approved the clearance and noted such approval in the respective Customs entries.

(a) In cases where the value of goods dutiable on an ad valorem basis has to be ascertained;

(b) In cases where duties have to be assessed on goods by way of measurement of such goods to articles specified in the Customs Tariff; and

(c) In cases when, on examination, it appears that the goods are liable, by virtue of their inferior quantity or quality, to duties less than those to which they would be subject according to their description on the Customs entry forms.

2. When it appears from the examination of goods that they are liable to lower duties than those which should be applied to them in virtue of their description on the Customs entry forms, the forwarding of these forms shall be delayed for a period of 48 hours. The documents shall not be so delayed, however, in the case of goods presented for clearance in packages containing only one kind of goods, if the value as to be levied by weight and the weight as shown in the Customs entry exceeds the real weight (as ascertained) by not more than 10 %.

3. Goods consisting of two or more parts which are imported in a separate condition, but within the same package, shall be dutiable at the rate applicable to the complete article when such parts correspond in class and number so that unit-its they form complete articles. In the case of goods described in the Tariff for separate parts of a complete article shall be applied separately when the parts are presented for clearance in separate packages.

4. Articles which are presented in an incomplete condition by reason of the absence of any part or accessory which does not modify the nature or use of the article shall be treated as though they were complete articles, unless the Tariff prescribes special duties for such articles.

5. By no means shall be understood that the weight of goods deprived of all coverings, or the weight of goods which are fastened together.

6. The legal weight shall be understood the weight of goods with all their receptacles (including fastenings) with which they are packed inside the external wrapping which serves as a general receptacle, excluding straw, chip, paper, canvas or other materials used for disposing the parcels or packets.

7. The weight of a posted parcel shall be reckoned as legal weight, unless the articles contained therein are put up in their ordinary receptacles or wrappings.

8. By weight including boxes shall be understood the weight of the goods inside the external packaging, and the weight of the goods with all their receptacles and packings, internal and external.

9. By gross weight shall be understood the weight of goods with all their receptacles and packings, internal and external. In the case of goods which are generally carried merely fastened up or in bulk (such as rails, iron, coal, &c.), the gross weight is that of the goods in the condition in which imported.

10. In the case of goods dutiable by legal weight, the dutiable weight shall be fixed as follows:—

(a) If the goods are presented unpacked, or merely fastened together, inside packages containing only one kind of goods, the gross weight will be taken as the legal weight;

(b) If the goods are presented unpacked, or merely fastened together, but are in the same packages as goods of other kinds, duty is to be assessed on the net weight increased by 10 %;

(c) When the goods have been carried loose, in bulk, or merely fastened together, duty shall be levied on the net weight increased by 10 %; and

(d) Duty shall be levied on the net weight, increased by 10 % in the case of goods deposited in cases or sheaths, where such cases or sheaths are classified for duty separately.

11. When goods dutiable on gross weight are presented in the same package or other goods subject to different duties or to duty based upon various units, 20 % shall be added to the gross weight in the case of goods in receptacles of wrappings, and 30 % to the net weight in the case of goods without receptacles or wrappings. As an exception to this rule, the net weight is increased by 30 % in the case of the following goods:—Crystals, wares, china, porcelain, furniture, pianos, phonolas and other apparatus for playing the piano or organ, iron wares, paraffin lamps and iron bedsteads, with or without ornaments of brass.

12. Receptacles and wrappings shall be considered as articles of commerce (irrespective of their contents), and shall be subject to the relevant Customs duties in the following cases:—

(a) When such receptacles and wrappings are not those ordinarily used for the goods contained in commerce (i.e., those of which the sole use is merely the packing of goods for safety and transport);

(b) When the receptacles and wrappings are intended to increase the value of the contents by exaggerating their merits, or when their quality does not correspond to that of the goods;

(c) When it is evidently intended to use them subsequently as receptacles, distinct from their original purpose;

(d) When the duties on the receptacles, reckoned separately, are higher than the duties applicable to the goods contained.

13. The provisions of the preceding rule shall not apply in the case of goods in respect of which the Tariff specifies that the duties are to be applied to the goods including the receptacles and wrappings, except in the cases specified in letter (d) of the preceding rule.

14. In the cases where goods shall be classified for duty separately, unless contrary stipulations exist in the Tariff. As an exception, those containing scientific instruments, machines, tools or apparatus for professional or industrial use shall be regarded as ordinary wares.

15. When the classification of goods is doubtful, the duties are to be levied on the basis of the classification of the goods in the number of threads, the threads shall be counted by means of the instrument called the "thread counter" or by means of a travelling.

In using the thread-counter, the first thread to be counted, either in the warp or in the weft, is to be easily visible and quite distinct and as near as possible to one of the edges of the opening or frame of the instrument. The threads in the weft, both of the warp or weft, are to be fractions of threads in the result, both of the warp or weft, are to be neglected, even if the total of these fractions amounts up a complete thread. In the case of doubt as to the number of threads in the cloth.

In a case of doubt as to the number of threads in the cloth, the use of a thread-counter with a large examining area shall be used, or the use of (part thereof) shall be unaltered. If doubts still exist in spite of this, the dispositions of Article 110 of the Customs Law shall be applied.

16. In determining the number of threads in flanne l tissues or in tissues with alternate close-woven and open-woven parts, the threads of both parts shall be counted; that is, the threads included within a space of the flanne l in which the pattern is completely reproduced.

17. By plata tissue shall be understood that formed by the web threads crossed one by one the warp threads, alternating so that the recurring threads are first beneath and then above the warp threads.

Tissues composed of double or coupled threads, crossed by double or single threads, but which alternate in successive and regular form, shall also be considered as plata weave.

18. Puffed tissues are such as have diagonal strands running along the length of the cloth from one edge to the other; for the purpose of the application of the Tariff, only tissues formed by series of three threads shall be considered as puffed. The warp being divided into series of three threads, the web in its first intersection (acordeado) crosses the first thread of each series and passes beneath the second and third; in the second intersection it covers the second and passes beneath the first and third, and in the third intersection it covers the third thread and passes beneath the first and second.

19. A diagonal tissue shall be understood a tissue which, when placed on any printed or written matter, leaves the written or printed characters clearly visible.

20. In determining the classification of any cloth, the threads forming the body thereof shall be taken into account, and the threads in the edges themselves shall be disregarded.

21. Articles imported in the piece with markings or designs indicating the places in which they are to be cut (e.g., those intended to be made into caps, towels, serviettes, handkerchiefs, &c.), shall be classed as such, according to kind. As an exception to this rule, articles joined together by trimmings or which otherwise only require to be cut before being ready for use, are considered as finished articles.

22. In classifying made-up clothing, the cloth composing the lining is not to be taken into account unless it is visible on the exterior, as is the case with sleeve-cuffs, lapels and collars, and with the lining of clothing made of net, lace or diagonal tissues, in which case the highest duty applicable shall be levied.

23. The duties assigned to articles of earthenware, china, porcelain, glass, or crystal, with mountings or settings of metal or parts of other material, such as wood, &c., shall only be applied in cases where the material, wooden, &c., part is firmly fixed to the article in an inseparable whole; if such part can be removed the duty applicable thereto shall be levied thereon, separately from the rest of the article.

24. Scientific instruments and apparatus which, when presented, are joined to, or form a whole with, other articles, such as statues, inkstands, clocks, &c., shall be subject to the duties applicable to the articles of which they form a part.

25. Gold, silver and platinum shall be regarded as precious metals, and other metals as common metals.

26. The term iron includes both iron and steel.

27. The term copper includes this metal and alloys called bronze and brass.

28. In the specification of vegetable fibres contained in the Tariff, vegetable silk is not included.

29. The term net also covers animal hair which is used in place of wool.

30. The duties fixed for articles of metal gilt, altered, unaltered or coated with abrum shall be applied to articles which have been subjected to any of these processes, even if only in part.

31. Bedsteads of iron coated with copper shall be considered as bedsteads of copper.

32. By the gross weight of bedsteads of iron, with or without brass ornaments, not imported in cases or crates, shall be considered the net weight increased by 80 %.

33. Mattresses which make a complete entity with the corresponding bedsteads, being an integral part thereof, shall be subject to the duties applicable to bedsteads.

34. Unspecified tapes and ribbons shall be classed as trimmings (fascinetteries).

35. Separate parts of furniture, not specially enumerated in the Tariff, shall be considered as furniture in a "knocked-down" condition.

36. The duties specified in the Tariff for boots and shoes shall be applied to boot pairs.

37. Tallow is to be distinguished from fat by noting the melting point, alio melting at over 14 degrees Centigrade.

38. All mechanical apparatus composed of various parts combined one with another, which are set in motion by any force and produce regular pre-determined movements, are to be regarded as machines.

39. The term saddles covers saddles with their corresponding stirrups, stirrup-leathers and stirrups.

40. Under the term "perfumery" shall be included aromatic preparations or products for perfuming the person or articles, except such as are specified in Groups B and D of Section X.

41. In order that a print may be classed as an advertisement it must have an advertisement printed thereon in legible form, and in such a way that it cannot be separated without damaging the picture.

42. When it is desired to clear through the Customs drugs, beverages, food-stuffs or other substances which may be included under the production of import established in Article 3 of the Customs Tariff Law, the importers shall request the Customs to take samples thereof, these samples to be sent direct by the Customs Director to the nearest Customs or Internal Revenue Laboratory with a request that they should be analysed.

When the respective certificate authorising the importation of the goods has been obtained, the Customs Director shall authorize the presentation of the relevant Customs entries.

In estimating the qualities or properties of drugs, beverages and food-stuffs, and in declaring, as a consequence thereof, whether the goods are or are not fit for consumption, the Customs administrators shall be governed by the scientific principles generally accepted on the matter.

13. The formality established by the preceding rule may be omitted, provided that the Customs Director is prepared to acquire, in sufficient evidence, an authentic certificate of analysis issued by a functionary, office or corporation of the country of origin which is competent to issue the same and which is recognised by the Government of that country. The respective Chilean Consul shall certify at the bottom of the certificate referred to that the office is so competent and in the absence of such Consul statement the certificate shall not be taken into account.

The certificate referred to in the preceding rule shall contain, in addition to the result of the analysis, a declaration as to whether the article is fit for consumption and whether the article is permitted to be imported, in the same conditions, into the country of origin, in accordance with the regulations and ordinances there in force.

14. The Customs authorities shall keep a register of all importations (admitted or refused) of drugs, foods or other substances enumerated in Article 3 of the Customs Tariff Law. In this book the following particulars shall be entered, viz.:—The name of the importer or consignee and of the clearing agent; the name and nature of the product, trade mark, maker's name, country of production, office or corporation issuing the certificate of analysis, and the number of the import or re-export Customs entry as the case may be. In the case of articles refused admission, the reason for the refusal shall also be indicated, and should the goods be destroyed or removed, the date on which this was done.

15. The certificate of analysis shall be affixed to the respective Customs entry, and if it refers to a consignment cleared through the Customs in separate lots at intervals, a certified copy of this certificate shall be added to each of the corresponding Customs entries.

16. The Customs Directors shall notify the Superintendent's Department of cases in which any goods have been refused admittance as the result of the chemical analysis. At the same time they shall communicate all the particulars mentioned in Rule 14 and shall, if possible, forward a sample of the goods.

The Superintendent's Department shall notify the fact to other Chilean Customs houses so as to prevent the importation of the same articles at other ports.

17. The Customs authorities shall require the "visa" of the respective Internal Revenue Inspector on the principal copy of the entries for the clearance of spirits, wines and spirituous liquors, as an evidence that the formalities prescribed in the Internal Revenue Regulations have been duly carried out.

18. The phrases "the same" or "as in the preceding heading" which are used in various places in the Tariff mean that the specification of the preceding headings referred to is to be considered as repeated, in so far as it is applicable.

19. Persons clearing goods through the Customs shall be obliged to insert in the Customs entries all the particulars which the Customs Superintendent requires.

20. These rules are in the nature of general dispositions, and shall apply in cases where the Tariff does not contain special provisions.

CONSULAR INVOICE REGULATIONS.

1. Chilean consuls in foreign countries shall "viser" and Customs houses shall accept only invoices which contain the following particulars:

- (a) Name of the seller of the goods, or of the person by whom the invoice is made out;
- (b) Name of the consignee and that of the port of destination of the merchandise;
- (c) Name of the vessel in cases where the invoice is drawn up at the port of shipment of the goods;
- (d) Marks, numbers, quantity, and class of the packages, and the weight of each of the goods;
- (e) The designation of each class of merchandise by name, and, should there be various kinds of any class of merchandise, a particular designation of each kind, in order that there may be no room for doubt or ambiguity in regard to the classes and kind of goods included in the invoice;
- (f) Gross weight and net weight of each variety of merchandise;
- (g) For assorted goods within one package the net weight is to be stated;
- (h) The price of each kind of goods included in the invoice.

2. If, in the opinion of the consul, the value declared in the invoice is not the current market price of the goods, he shall, by means of a note stamped at the foot of the invoice, indicate what he considers to be the true value.

3. Consuls shall send to the "Superintendencia de Aduanas," by the first available mail, a copy of each of the invoices which they "viser."

4. Invoices are to be drawn up in the Spanish language.

5. The present decree is to take effect in Chilean consulates as from May 14, and in Chilean Customs houses as from July 1st, 1917.

1801	Isosceles, moulds and patterns for arts and crafts, not mentioned	0 01

Foreign salt shall be subject to import duty as follows:

Imported through Custom houses on the Atlantic	5 centavos
Through Custom houses on the Pacific	2 4 "
The Custom houses of Cuzco	2 4 "
The Custom houses of Areata, Oronté and Bajo Chiquetá	2 4 "

ARTICLES OF WHICH THE IMPORTATION IS PROHIBITED.

ARTICLE 2.—Private individuals or firms are absolutely prohibited from importing the following articles:

1. Articles expressly prohibited by this Tariff.
2. Tents of canvas, of cotton, unbleached " 34 cts. per kilogram, gross
3. Tents of hemp canvas, bleached " 48 cts. per kilogram, gross.
4. Foreign salt which is imported through the ports of Buenaventura and Tumaco shall pay a duty of 5 centavos per kilogram over and above the previously existing duty (2 centavos per kilogram).

2. Apparatus and machines for minting coin.

3. Colombian postage-stamps.

4. Coins of silver, copper or nickel.

5. Stamp paper and dies, with the seal or coat-of-arms of the Republic, or with inscriptions, in forms as sold by the Government for the collection of public revenue.

6. Plates for making bank notes, with the name of the Republic.

EXPORT DUTIES.

ARTICLE 3.—The following export duties will be levied, per kilogramme gross weight, on the under-mentioned articles:—

1. Insula, yacuma or toquilla straw for making hats ..... 1 peso
2. Stuffed birds ..... 2 pesos
3. Stuffed ..... up to 6% ad valorem

VARIOUS REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE 4.—The tax on tagna, allowed to in the previous Article, will remain in force only whilst the liberty to exploit this material, provided for in the Fiscal Code, continues, and whilst for this reason forests of tagna cannot be allotted or let out on lease as uncultivated lands.

ARTICLE 5.—Goods composed of a mixture of substances dutiable at different rates will be liable to duty at the rate applicable to the part subject to the highest rate, and the nature of substances which are insignificant in quantity and of no decisive importance so far as the quality of the goods is concerned are not taken into account, excepting in the case of alcohol or ether, or wherever it can be reasonably supposed that the admixture has been effected with the object of avoiding the payment of Customs duty.

ARTICLE 6.—Articles produced by a mechanical combination of parts subject to different rates of duty will pay duty as entireties according to the principal part, viz., that part which constitutes the characteristic feature of the goods (such as manufactures of metal, glass-ware, manufactures of cotton, &amp;c.). Nevertheless, when there is no provision in the Tariff for the article regarded as a manufacture of the principal part cannot be determined, and when the goods will pay duty according to the part which is dutiable at the highest rate; neither those parts which are necessary for putting the article into practical use, nor those which do not increase its commercial value to any appreciable extent, shall be taken into account. Goods will not be considered as composite merely for the reason that they contain parts such as rivets, ordinary ironwork, hinges, locks, &amp;c., which merely serve to join or hold together the different parts of the object, or to fix one part on the top of another, to increase its durability, and so forth.

The composite articles referred to in the previous paragraph will be dutiable as such even if they are named when imported, or if unimportant parts are missing.

ARTICLE 7.—If any article has been charged at different rates in the Tariff, it will pay the highest of those duties which have been indicated in the said Tariff.

ARTICLE 8.—Articles not mentioned in this Tariff, or which do not come within the general classifications, will pay a duty equal to 5% of their original value, in accordance with the Consular invoice, or with the expert valuation when the Chief of Customs has adequate reason to suspect fraud in the declaration, unless the Customs Board (Jurado) has already fixed the rate of duty.

The Board will fix the rate having regard to the value of the article, to its condition as raw material or as a manufactured article, and to the duty charged on similar articles. The decisions of the Customs Board, issued in virtue of this authorisation, will form part of the Tariff so long as Congress does not legislate on the particular point.

ARTICLE 9.—Packing which is used for the protection of foreign goods will pay the same import duty as the goods themselves, with the following exceptions:—

- (1) Articles exempt from duty and those charged with a duty not exceeding 10 centavos per kilogramme may not be packed except with papers, oiled tissue, canvas or sackcloth, tarpaulin, linoleum, iron, zinc, lead or wood; any other material of greater value, even if imported as packing, must be declared separately, and will pay the duty applicable to it.

- (2) Articles charged at a rate exceeding 10 centavos and less than 50 centavos per kilogramme, which are imported in bales, may be packed in strips of linen cloth, of coarse canvas, or of wrappage (bayeta), or in woollen or cotton covering, provided that the weight of these articles does not exceed 3% of the total weight of the bale. Any excess will be declared as a separate article, even if imported as a covering, and will pay the duty fixed therefor in this Tariff.

ARTICLE 10.—Internal receptacles or packing of any article whatever will pay the same duty as the material or article which they contain, provided that such receptacles are of paper, cardboard, common wood, tinplate, iron, lead, zinc, tin, earthenware, faience, porcelain, glass or tissue of cotton, hemp, linen or wool.

When the interior receptacles or packing of an article are worth more than the substance which they contain, such receptacles or packing must be declared as separate articles, and their weight must be given in the customs invoice. If this is not done, the whole will be assessed as of the class to which the receptacle belongs.

ARTICLE 11.—Monopoly articles intended to produce revenue for the State, Departments or Municipalities may only be imported by such bodies when they directly administer these revenues, or by those to whom a concession has been awarded in respect of such revenue. In the latter event they will pay, on importation into the territory of the Republic, the Customs duties fixed by this Law, except in the case of articles monopolised for the benefit of the State.

ARTICLE 12.—The ad valorem duties fixed by this Tariff will be levied on the value shown by the Consular invoices presented by the consignors to Customs, on oath, with the reservation referred to in Article 11 of this Law.

ARTICLE 13.—Goods or articles which are imported into the country by parcel post will pay the duties fixed therefor by this Tariff, even if the same parcel includes two or more articles subject to different duties; in this case, however, the contents of the whole parcel will be assessed at the rate applicable to the most highly taxed article which it contains.

ARTICLE 14.—Should the Chief of the Customs-house or Post Office through which the postal packets pass suspect a fraudulent declaration of the goods referred to in the two foregoing Articles, he may adopt one or other of the following two courses:—

- (1) To have the goods valued by experts and duty assessed on such valuation, if it should be greater than the declared value, but according to the latter if it is not greater; and

- (2) To take over the article in question on behalf of the Government at the declared value plus 5%, after consultation with the Ministry of Hacienda.

ARTICLE 15.—The Ministry of Hacienda will send to every Customs-house, for use as specimens, samples of articles in respect of the classification of which difficulty may arise; a collection of these samples will be made in the Customs houses, which will be renewed or modified as occasion may arise.

Paragraph. Samples of the said articles will also be sent to the principal towns in the Republic so that the commercial community may consult them in the office designated for that purpose by the Ministry.

ARTICLE 16.—Offices (oficinas mercaderías) are established in the Ministry of Hacienda, in the Customs houses at Barranquilla, Buenaventura, Cartagena, and at other centres which the Government may consider expedient, for the analysis of merchandise. The Government is empowered to organise such offices, to employ them with the apparatus and appliances necessary for their working, and to appoint the staff and fix the basis on which the work must be carried out.

ARTICLE 17.—All clauses relative to the exemption from Customs duty in favour of persons or firms in contractual relations with the Public Administration are henceforth absolutely prohibited.

ARTICLE 18.—Contractors who, in virtue of contracts entered into with the Government, are exempted in whole or in part from the payment of Customs duties in respect of material required for their business, and who under cloak of this exemption shall import articles not included therein or who shall sell or use articles intended for the undertaking which is being exempted, or who shall transport them to places not included in the exemption, will be held to be defrauding the Public Treasury and will be punished accordingly.

Materials which remain over, or which have been found to be of no use for the undertaking in question, may not be sold without permission of the Government.

ARTICLE 19.—The Government is invested with the following powers and authority:—

- (1) To fix the import duties on imported salt, which shall in no case be less than the duties at present in force.

- (2) To establish new Customs houses on any of the tributaries or sub-tributaries of the Orinoco or of the Amazon, and to fix the duties to be paid at those Customs houses in respect of imports into national territory.

- (3) To concede exemption from Customs duties in respect of materials imported by the Departments and Municipalities for import-out works of public utility, such as installations of electric generating plants and tramways, undertaken directly by those bodies. This exemption will be limited to the materials required for the inauguration of the work, and does not apply to spare parts which are imported afterwards.

- (4) To grant the same exemption in respect of objects intended solely and exclusively for the Catholic faith, such as chalices, cibaries, shrines, canopes, mass-books, chasubles, statues, images &c., provided that the Bishop or the diocesan authority to the Government on behalf of the churches in their diocese.

- (5) To grant exemption from Customs duty, with any restrictions which may be deemed expedient, in respect of instruments and appliances imported by scientific explorers and travellers who visit the country to make investigations which the Government may consider to be of positive utility.

- (6) To grant exemption to operative or musical or dramatic companies in respect of costumes, decorations, musical instruments, and other accessories belonging to their equipment.

- (7) To sanction exemption from Customs duties in respect of materials, books and scholastic articles imported by the Departments and Municipalities for public instruction, provided the Governor or the President of the Municipal Council as the case may be, applies direct to the Government.

- (8) To grant the same exemption, with the necessary conditions to obviate prejudice to the Customs revenue, to benevolent institutions, supported by the Departments or by the Municipalities, as well as to those founded or maintained by religious communities, and also to those charged with the religious instruction and civilisation of natives. This exemption comprises drugs, medicines, and surgical appliances for the institutions in question, and as far as the religious communities are concerned, it applies to their vestments and to the cloth for making them. In the first case application will be made to the Ministry of Hacienda through the Governor of the Department in which the charity or benevolent institution is operating, and in the second case through the proper diocesan Bishop.

- (9) To relieve and even temporarily to suppress, for the whole nation or for any one or more Departments, the Customs duties on staple food-stuffs if, owing to the failure of the harvests or to some other calamity, there is considerable scarcity in the district affected by famine. The Government may, however, avail itself of this power only during a parliamentary recess, and at the request of the Municipalities and Chambers of Commerce of the Department or Departments in which the scarcity of food-stuffs occurs.

- (10) To exempt from import duties chemical and physical laboratories which are imported for instruction in private colleges.

ARTICLE 20. Samples of goods imported through the Customs houses may be admitted duty free provided the following conditions are fulfilled:—

- 1st.—That samples of all kinds of merchandise having no commercial value are presented in such a form as to be useless for any purpose other than that of taking orders.

- 2nd.—That samples of tissues, coloured felt, and paper do not exceed 40 cms. in length calculated on the warp of the tissues, even though they be of the whole width of the tissue, which will be determined as follows:—In the case of tissues by the selvages and in the case of coloured felts and paper by a narrow border which is left unstamped along the side edge. Samples which are of no practical use except in larger sizes will be presented to the Customs authorities bonded accountable for use by means of measures made every 20 cms. across the width.

- 3rd.—That samples of olefin do not exceed 30 cms. in size on both sides.

- 4th.—That cables, metal wires, trip-line mouldings of wood do not exceed 8 cms. in length.

- 5th.—That samples of wines, spirits, and other liquids are imported in vessels which do not exceed 6 decilitres in capacity.

- 6th.—That jewellery and plate of any metal are imported in a condition which renders them unfit for use.

VII.—FURNITURE.

V.A.—All the valuations under this heading are increased by 5% A. from 1st October, 1919.

Notes.—1. All furniture without exception must be declared with detailed statement of the quantity by units or dozens, according to the kind or value.

2. The valuations given in the present Section apply indiscriminately to finished or unfinished furniture.

3. Assessment according to declared value will be made in the case of fine or superior furniture exceeding in value the valuation fixed in the present Section, by reason of its richness, the quantity or quality of ornaments, or of the use of carving, bronze, inlaid work, gildings or castings such as lacquer, Martin's varnish or other.

4. In declarations of value regarding unenumerated or new furniture, they are not to include articles having a valuation in the Tariff, such as carpets, slugs, carpets, hangings, &c. In such case the Importers will have to declare them separately with designation of weight.

5. As regards bedroom furniture incompletely assorted, each piece of furniture shall be declared with the valuation assessed thereon.

XIV.—CERAMIC AND CRYSTAL WARE.
Note.—All the valuations under this heading are increased by 60 % as from 1st October, 1919.

Notes.—1. Articles of this section dutiable by weight shall be weighed together with the boxes, cases, straw, parcels, fastenings, paper and other packing, except articles for which the mode of weighing them should be specially provided.

2. If goods dutiable by gross weight are imported in the same package as others to be weighed in a different manner and if, on that account, they have been declared only with their immediate wrappers, double the valuation shall be assessed thereon.

3. Glazed earthenware or pottery shall be appraised as faience ware according to the respective numbers.

4. When a few of the articles classed in this Section, except liquor cases, are imported in sets, each piece shall be dutiable separately according to the tariff number applicable thereto.

5. Cast hollow glass, coloured, decorated or combined with common metals, shall be assessed with an increase of 40 %.

6. Hollow glass, cut, engraved, decorated or combined with common metals shall be valued with an increase of 80 % on the valuations provided for cast glass, except lamp globes.

7. Hollow glass, cut, coloured, engraved, decorated or combined with common metals shall be valued with an increase of 120 % on cast glass.

8. Flat crystal, engraved, decorated or combined with common metals, shall be valued with an increase of 60 % on the valuations assessed upon plain crystal.

9. Painted or decorated faience of single colour shall be valued with an increase of 30 % on the valuation provided for plain white faience, and that of more than one colour with a surtax of 50 %.

10. Faience plain, painted or decorated with gold shall be liable to a surtax of 70 % on the respective valuations fixed for plain white faience.

XV.—DRUGS, CHEMICALS, PHARMACEUTICAL PREPARATIONS.

Note.—All the valuations under this heading are increased by 60% as from 1st October, 1919.

Note.—1.—In all declarations, the unit, weight or measurement of the contents of each package must be stated.

2.—All the articles classed in this Section shall be weighed together with the respective receptacles and wrappers except those for which the mode of weighing is expressly provided and, if imported in a single receptacle, they shall be dutiable by gross weight.

3.—All the salts or chemical compounds referred to in this Section as unenumerated, not specified or not mentioned, shall be appraised at the rate leviable on the most highly taxed product entering into their composition.

4.—As regards articles assessable according to the declared value, the declaration shall show separately the kind, quality and quantity of each of them, as well as their value in No. 2053 and 2057 of white vulcanized rubber, they shall be valued with a rebate of 30% according to kind.

5.—Should the articles referred to in Nos. 2053 and 2057 be of white vulcanized rubber, they shall be valued with a rebate of 30% according to kind.

6.—The value of compressed tablets and pastilles shall be assessed according to the valuation of the predominating compound with a surtax of 50% if the predominating compound shall be assessed according to the valuation of the predominating compound and not exceed 60 centimes per kilo, they shall be assessed, as a general rule, at the rate of 1 peso per kilo.

7.—Products containing more than 25% of essence shall be dutiable according to the valuation fixed for the respective numbers; should the essences be mixed, they shall be assessed according to the valuation of the predominating essence with a surtax of 80%.

8.—The net weight of essences imported in flasks will be increased by 12%.

9.—Sponges are to be weighed together with threads, twine, caribou, packing cloths or bags.

10.—If gum lac is imported in water for the purpose of preservation, the water shall be deemed to form part of the receptacle.

11.—Medicinal wines shall be held to include those wines which contain medicines, and are imported in the form of specifics.

12.—Should flasks be packed with other merchandise, the total weight of the package shall be allotted to the flasks.

13.—If the same package contains emergency-ground flasks and others not being emergency-ground, the total weight of the package shall be allotted to the emergency-ground flasks.

14.—Dry plates for photography of different sizes to those enumerated in the respective items of this Tariff, shall be assessed according to the valuation determined for the size which they most approximate.

15.—Photograph films shall be appraised at half the rate of valuation of the plates according to the respective sizes.

16.—Boxes, pots, flasks or bottles of greater weight or capacity and content than those provided for in this section, shall be valued in proportion.

XVIII.—TISSES.

Val.—All the valuations under this heading are increased by 50% as from 1st Oct. 1914, with the following exceptions:—(1) All textiles fabrics of cotton shall be increased by 40% only.

Notes.—1.—All tissues dutiable by weight shall be weighed together with their boxes and wrappers even if an entry separately is made in the same case, and with the board and cardboard on which the tariffs are filed, save as regards tissues containing 30% and more of silk which shall be weighed solely with their wrappers, and if the latter are imported in cardboard, wooden or tin boxes, with a rebate of 20% on their respective valuations. This rule shall not apply to tissues for which the mode of weighing should be specially determined.

If the goods are imported in boxes, cases or packets with or without protective boards ("cajales"), they shall be dutiable by gross weight.

2.—Silk tissue shall cover any tissue containing up to 20% inclusive of other fibres; mixed silk tissue shall include any tissue containing from 20% inclusive but under 30% of silk; tissue with

TARIFF.]

of no value merely used to increase them. Belts and pianos are excepted, the weight of these being added to hammers for tare purposes.

17.—Cases are assimilated to hammers for tare purposes.

18.—Containers liable to a higher duty than their contents shall be assessed separately, without prejudice to any increase of rate stipulated in paragraph 16.

19.—Containers different to those of ordinary use or not appropriated to the goods they contain, and constituting merchandise proper, increasing the value of their contents, or capable of being used separately, shall pay the duties established in the Tariff numbers applicable thereto. The following are deemed to be containers of ordinary use: jars, bottles or flasks of earthenware or glass, cylinders of iron, copper, tin or lead, cases or boxes of wood, cardboard, tin plate, &c.

20.—The tariff penalties for excess of weight, shall not be incurred if the excess does not reach 5 % of the weight.

21.—If a warp of a tissue is understood the total number of threads across its lengthwise and by width those which run crosswise.

22.—In assessing unenumerated tissues consisting of two or more materials, the following rules shall be complied with:

a. Tissues of cotton, mixed in whatever proportion with some other vegetable material, shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of Section 3.

b. Tissues of vegetable materials containing threads of wool or silk in a quantity not exceeding 5 % of the total weight of the tissue, shall be dutiable as if they contained no such threads.

c. Tissues of vegetable materials mixed or half mixed with wool, shall be dutiable as tissues of wool with warp or weft of common material.

d. Tissues of wool half mixed with vegetable materials, shall be dutiable as tissues of wool with admixture of common material.

e. Tissues of vegetable materials or of wool, half mixed with silk, shall be dutiable with an increase of 35 % on the respective rates, unless the increase be stipulated in the tariff. Said tissues mixed with the same material, shall be classed as tissue of silk with warp or weft of common material.

f. Tissues of silk half mixed with common material, shall be dutiable as if of silk with out admixture.

g. Tissues of more than two materials shall be dutiable according to the most material subject to the foregoing rule.

23.—Half mixed tissues are those in which the admixture exceeds 5 % but not 15 % of the total weight of the tissue.

24.—By admixture with common material is understood any admixture exceeding 15 % but not reaching 30 % of the total weight of the tissue, and by admixture with better material is understood any admixture exceeding 15 % but not 30 % of the total weight of the tissue.

25.—Admixture or half admixture do not cover admixture of fibres forming the whole weft or warp, whatever be the proportion of such fibres in regard to the total weight of the tissue.

26.—Stuffs of vegetable fibres for carpeting, containing admixture of wool in any proportion, shall be classed in No. 230 of Section 2.

27.—Stuffs with double weft or warp, or composed of two superposed tissues, having a silk weft or warp, or one of the said tissues of silk, shall be dutiable under No. 653 of Section 4.

28.—Embroidered articles not specially assessed by reason of the embroidery, shall be liable to the duties of the corresponding numbers, with the following surtaxes:

a. 10 % for embroideries of cotton or other vegetable materials, made on the loom, chain-stitched or with passementerie;

b. 15 % for embroideries of the same materials, feather-stitched ("al pasado"), by machine or hand;

c. 15 % for embroideries of wool, made on the loom, chain-stitched or with passementerie;

d. 20 % for embroideries of wool, feather-stitched ("al pasado") by machine or hand;

e. 50 % for embroideries of silk, made on the loom, chain-stitched or with passementerie;

f. 40 % for embroideries of silk, feather-stitched ("al pasado"), by machine or hand;

g. 40 % for embroideries of cotton or semi-fine metal;

h. 50 % for embroideries of fine metals.

29.—The feature of passementerie consists in its being formed of plaited fibres, without weft or warp. If it contains ornaments or parts of other tissues, it shall be dutiable as bands and insertion of the same kind.

30.—Passementerie shall include unenfolded galloons for ornament and skirt trimmings and edgings, ecuffs, lustral bands for marking, and ribbons with inscriptions or other ornaments. Embroidered, open-worked or ornamented galloons shall be dutiable as insertions or bands according to kind.

31.—Passementerie shall be assessed according to the textile material predominating on the surface.

32.—Unenumerated dresses with skirt of one material and under-skirt of another material, shall pay the duties applicable to the skirt of most value.

33.—Unenumerated dresses or apparel of vegetable material or wool with ornaments of silk, shall pay a surtax of 25 %.

34.—Passementerie covered with headwork, in which the threads do not form a design on the surface shall be dutiable as headwork passementerie.

35.—Dresses for women, girls and children, in entire lengths ready to be sewn together shall be dutiable as finished dresses according to kind.

36.—Lengths for clothing, basted, packed or contained in cardboard boxes or put up in such a way as with their corresponding ornaments to whole appears to be intended to make up a specific article, shall be classed under the numbers of the Tariff corresponding to the tissue of which they are composed with a surtax of 25 %.

37.—Hats unmounted, trimmed and prepared to be completed, shall be dutiable as finished hats according to kind.

38.—Scientific instruments such as barometers, thermometers, &c., shall be dutiable as finished instruments, unless they are used for other objects, when as utensils, instruments, &c., shall be assessed as forming integral part thereof. The same rule shall apply to other objects dutiable at a less rate than the articles to which they are annexed.

39.—If tariff purposes white metal shall be deemed to be metal which, not being covered, more or less resembles the colour of silver whatever be the constituent alloy.

40.—The duties of iron wares also extend to steel wares and vice versa.

41.—The articles enumerated in Section 8, group 3, of which the component material is not expressly specified shall be deemed to be of iron or steel.

42.—Articles classed in the same Section, group 4, and being in the same condition shall be deemed to be of copper, bronze or brass.

43.—Articles nickelled, silvered, gilt or enamelled with faience or porcelain, shall be having specially mentioned, shall be assessed according to the corresponding numbers of the Tariff, with the following surtaxes:

a. 25 % if nickelled;

b. 25 % if silvered or gilt;

c. 25 % if enamelled with faience or porcelain.

44.—Iron wares, bronze plated, are assessable as bronze wares.

45.—The spectacle frames enumerated in Nos. 1369, 1370 and 1371 shall be dutiable as the spectacles according to kind, with the rebate of the duty payable on the glasses.

46.—Parts of furniture and other manufactured articles, shall pay the duty applicable to furniture and to the manufactured articles of the kind, unless specially provided for in the Tariff.

47.—Articles with advertisements or notices, not specially mentioned, which cannot be used for any other purpose than advertising, shall be assessed according to kind with a rebate of 25 %, provided the advertisement is indelible and appear engraved on the principal portion of the object.

48.—False jewellery and haberdashery (microbes) consisting of two or more materials shall be taxed according to the material of most value, unless specially provided for.

49.—Goods bearing a label attributing them such a higher quality as to increase their value, shall be dutiable according to the kind indicated on the label.

50.—Persons presenting to the Customs Labels, metal capsules, eiches, or containers of articles of which the marks have been registered in the Republic, shall prove to the officials that they are the proprietors or legal representatives of the products for which the same are intended.

51.—Goods not specially enumerated in the Tariff shall pay 30 % of their wholesale value at the Customs house. The value will be determined by means of the original invoices or any other information available to the Customs office. This duty shall be of a provisional character until the specific rate applicable has been established.

52.—Goods when do not agree with the measurement or unit specified in the Tariff shall be assessed pro rata.

LAW OF DECEMBER 17th, 1902, AS TO IMPORTING SHIPS.

SOLE ARTICLE.—No import duty shall be payable on vessels intended for navigation, entering trade or the conveyance of export goods, whether the vessels enter the country by their own means or navigation or are imported in sections to be fitted up, provided always that they carry the National flag.

LAW NO. 694, OF NOVEMBER 29th, 1905, ESTABLISHING THE TREATMENT OF IMPORTED LARD.

ART. 1.—From and after January 1st, 1905, lard shall pay an import duty of 35 centavos per kilo, legal weight, and lard in barrels 3 centavos per kilo, gross weight.

ART. 2.—From and after January 1st, 1905, the above duty shall be at the rate of 17 centavos per kilo, legal weight as to tinned lard, and 7 centavos per kilo, gross weight as to lard in barrels.

ART. 3.—From and after January 1st, 1910, tinned lard shall pay a duty of 5 centavos per kilo, legal weight; and lard imported in barrels 5 centavos per kilo, gross weight.

ART. 4.—From and after January 1st, 1911, tinned lard shall pay 35 centavos per kilo, legal weight; and lard imported in barrels 3 centavos per kilo, gross weight.

LAW NO. 1017, OF FEBRUARY 21st, 1909, RELATING TO THE IMPORTATION OF WAR ARMAMENTS AND MATERIALS.

SOLE ARTICLE.—The State shall satisfy by transfer to clear free of duty for its own use, the articles constituting war armaments and materials being State property, such as guns and gun carriages, torpedoes, accessories for the army, boarding axes, revolvers, projectiles and other accessories or extra parts of all these articles or for men-of-war, in the event of their being transferred to other persons, or any other kind of article being solely equipment, accessories, such as tents, haversacks, saddles and harness, ambulance supplies, articles of clothing and the like.

LAW NO. 1247, DATED DECEMBER 4th, 1909, RELATING TO THE IMPORTATION OF ARTICLES DESTINED FOR BENEFICENT SOCIETIES, &amp;c.

ART. 1.—A list of articles destined for beneficent societies and other institutions, created through the Customs of the Republic, shall respectively be created according to the rates applicable thereto, under the Tariffs in force.

ART. 2.—In the general budget of the Republic, a sum of £2,000 per annum, shall be voted for distribution by the Ministry of Fomento among the beneficent institutions having received the benefit of the exemption referred to in the present Law, in a proportion equivalent to half the sum granted in favour of such institutions during the last four years.

The present provision also extends to beneficent societies which have not applied for exemption from Customs duty, and these shall be treated on the same footing as the societies which have applied for the exemption, once registered being held for the respective year.

ART. 3.—In the early part of the month of January of each year, the Director of the Treasury, acting in compliance with instructions from the Ministry of Fomento, will issue orders for payment of the Customs duties provided for in the present Law and representing the annual sums allotted to each institution. Such payments shall be effected by twelve orders of even amount, corresponding to the twelve months of the year.

ART. 4.—The Executive Power shall not grant the exemption from duty in favour of articles not held to be entitled thereto, by the Laws in force.

ART. 5.—All contrary provisions are hereby repealed.

EXPORTATION.

EXPORTED GOODS.

LAW OF MAY 10TH, 1911, PUBLISHING AN "ad valorem" DUTY ON ("El Peruano" No. 5 of July 7th, 1911.)
 ART. 1.—India rubber ("caucho, goma, gutta") and generally all gums exported from the Republic shall pay duty at the rate of 8 % ad valorem on their market value at Liverpool, in lieu of the specific duty now leviable thereon.

ART. 2.—The Executive may order the acceptance in payment of the duty, of drafts on London, Paris, or New York, to become due not later than ninety days sight, at the rate of exchange current on the day of export, and is authorized to issue the necessary regulations for the purpose of ascertaining the price of the gums at Liverpool and com-muniting the same to the Customs so that the duty may be correctly assessed and collected.

Spirits obtained aforesaid and intended for sale are liable to the tax.	.....

In both cases, these spirits must be rectified and conform to the conditions as regards purity, stipulated in Art. 7 of this Law.

Art. 4. The denaturalisation of spirits intended for heating, lighting, industrial or domestic purposes shall be the subject of a special Law providing for the process and manner to be employed in denaturalising, and for the measures of guarantee to be adopted so as to prevent such spirits assuming their original character, and fixing amount of internal tax to be cleared upon such spirits having regard to their strength, and in order employed for denaturalising them.

Art. 6. Home-bottled distilleries may be installed of less productive capacity than 1,000 litres daily of alcohol, calculated in 100 centesimal; nor is any amount as for the distilling and rectifying of alcohols to be imported, constructed, or installed of less capacity than that stated, except according to the conditions determined by the Executive in regulating this Law.

Art. 7. All alcohol containing over 2 1000 of impurity ascertained by Rose's method, shall be declared unfit for food and excluded from consumption. Imported alcohols and spirits shall be analysed by the Customs Laboratory, and those of home manufacture by the Municipal Analytical Office, for which purpose the importers or manufacturers must register their trade-marks. Any infraction of the said law, ascertained by confiscation of the impure article and the penalties of Art. 167 of the Penal Code.

Art. 8. The Decrees of 12th September, 1885, and 26th February, 1888, respecting quality of wines, remain in full force.

Art. 9. The Decree of 12th September, 1885, and 26th February, 1888, respecting quality of wines, remain in full force.

Art. 10. Payment of internal taxes on the imported articles shall be made in the Customs House or in the clearance of the goods; and of the taxes on home manufactured articles in the office of Direct Taxes or branches.

Art. 12. Home made alcohol sent out for exportation shall be entitled to a return of the tax paid in respect thereof, on the exporter complying with such measure of guarantee as may be prescribed by the Executive.

EXTRACT FROM THE REGULATIONS FOR THE EXECUTION OF THE LAW OF JULY 14, 1900.

Art. 1. Internal consumption taxes to be paid by importers of foreign goods, shall be clearable from and after the 16th July instant.

Art. 2. All advance permits for goods subject to internal taxes and relating to operations in and on the 14th instant, shall be available for all products cleared or cleared from bond on such date mentioned date, and the same articles shall not be subject to any further taxes.

Art. 3. From and after the 16th instant, persons concerned will have to apply for free-trials in respect of goods subject to internal taxes, and the goods shall be entered in such permits even if these referred to in the Law and its subsequent regulations have in view.

Art. 4. From and after the 16th instant, importers shall declare in the permit the alcoholic strength of the wines brought by clearance, as well as the quantity of dry extract contained in the sugar, and they shall be subject to the responsibilities when Customs Laws and regulations either declares liable to, when duty of alcoholation.

Art. 5. No self-distilling apparatus shall be imported, manufactured or put up for sale, without the authority of the Ministry of Finance.

Art. 6. Importers and manufacturers of alcohol and spirits shall register their trade-marks at the proper office of the Director of Customs and Internal Tax within 20 days from the date.

Art. 7. Montevideo is declared the sole port available for clearance of foreign wine, spirits and other alcoholic drinks.

Art. 8. The office of the Director General of Customs will calculate and enter in a separate account the internal taxes chargeable upon foreign goods, and the same must be paid at the Customs Treasury at same time as the Customs duties due on such goods.

LAW RELATING TO CUSTOMS PRIVILEGES IN FAVOUR OF PRIMARY MATERIALS FOR USE IN INDUSTRIES.

By the Law of October 26, 1912, exemption from, or reduction of, Customs duty is granted on the following articles when imported for industrial purposes:

1. Articles to be free of Customs duty when imported for industrial purposes:

- (a) Borate of lime, felspar and quartz; arsenious acid or commercial arsenic; sulphuric acid; cork tree bark; lead iron for casting and in ingots; wood or staves in the rough, for building boats (cachos) for fumigating; metals of all kinds in blocks; gelatinous plates (used by foreign firms with models of machinery or graphic demonstration of the same); sand and stone ballast; grape-vine root stocks or plants, called American; raw tannin; extracts of any substance; mineral, animal or vegetable, as also compounds for tanning; logwood; machines for embroidery and other domestic industries, including their accessories; emulsion of pitch, and kaulin.

2. The under mentioned articles are to pay percentage rates of duty, as shown below:

- (a) 25 per cent.: Empty casks.
- (b) 25 per cent.: When introduced for industrial purposes: (Carbon acid); bisulphite of soda; "sulphite"; knuckled-down casks; animal carbon; formal; glycerine; oilcloth for building boats; weighing not more than 325 grammes per square metre; celluloid thread; "acropal" is chemical substance used for tanning purposes; tannin; filter paper, in sheets and in paste; salt of antimony; clarifying (clarifying) earth.

- (d) 15 per cent.: Unworked tinplate, painted; iron and steel in sheets; gum (gummi de pira).
- (e) 10 per cent.: Acetate of lead; lubricating oils; liquid ammonia; acetate of soda; laminated iron; hemaphys; cocoa beans; steel cylinders for compressed gases (when imported full, they are to pay, in addition, the duty applicable to the contents); celluloid in sheets; hyposulphite of soda; nitrate of soda; resin or rosin; sulphide of soda; crystallised sulphide of soda; sulphate of alumina (alum); chloride of magnesium; tartar emetic; tartrazine; yolk of egg.
- (f) 5 per cent.: Coal oil; used waste or dust; cocoon, yolk and curd; oil, denatured; sulphate of lime; cyanide of silver, pure; chloride of gold; acetate of copper; phosphate of soda; nitric, oxalic, and lactic acids; chrome alum; aniline, all kinds; pyrogallous acid; muriatic or hydrochloric acid; common alum; red Turkey oil; butyric and formic acids; bicarbonate of potash or soda; catechu; sulphate of soda; carbonate of ammonia; commercial carbonates of soda; carbonate of potash; colours for paints; hematite; fibre for making chairs; crude carboxylic acid (phenols); unworked tinplate; metal for linotypes; gold in leaves; oxide of manganese; prussiate of potash; caustic potash; caustic soda; rosin for varnishes; natural rock asphalt; borate of magnesium; sulphate of iron or of copper; sulphocyanide of ammonium or of potash; potato starch; English salt (sal inglesa); chloride of lime ("chlorinated lime"); spun cotton, linen, hemp, for weaving; flour of calcium; crystalline powder; nitrate of potash or of soda; oxide of lead; creosote acid; Vienna lime; sulphate of nickel; fixing salt for metals; polishing paste for metals; straw pulp for hats; steel and

The foregoing exemptions and reductions of duty for primary materials are to remain in force so long as such production is not solicited for national establishments, formed to produce such materials under conditions approved by the Executive. As soon as the materials are produced in the country, the Executive will re-establish the duties now abrogated.

The Executive is to establish valuations for, and frame a tariff classification of, the primary materials included in the present Law.

3. Cottonseed oil is to pay on importation a specific duty of 15 centesimos per litre, except in the case of crude oil.

4. Old iron is to pay an export duty of 50 centesimos per 100 kilos, except from dismantled vessels, which may enjoy temporary admission, and be re-exported free of duty. This provision is to come into force after six months from the date of the present Law.

The Uruguayan Diario Oficial of Feb. 11, 1913, contains a Presidential Decree establishing a Valuation Tariff for "Prima y Ma cruda" (framed in accordance with Article 9 of the Law) which is to serve as basis for the assessment of the ad valorem rates of duty.

Some of the more important items from this Tariff are set out in the appended statement:

CUSTOMS TARIFF.

MONEY, WEIGHTS AND MEASURES. The bolivar is divided into 100 centimos. For weights and measures, Venezuela has adopted the metric system.

PRELIMINARY DISPOSITIONS.

ART. 1. All foreign merchandise imported through the custom houses of the Republic shall pay import duties on gross weight, according to the following schedule:

Class	Duties per kilo.
Class 1	0.05
Class 2	0.10
Class 3	0.25
Class 4	0.75
Class 5	1.25
Class 6	2.50
Class 7	5.00
Class 8	10.00
Class 9	20.00

ART. 2. The following articles shall be free of import duties: See Nos. 1-53.

ART. 3. The Executive is authorized to exempt from the rates of duty prescribed by the present law the following articles, subject to regulations to be prescribed by him: See Nos. 54 and 55.

ART. 4. The importation of the following articles is prohibited: See Nos. 38-41.

ART. 5. Merchandise subject to duty shall be classified as hereinafter stated. (See Nos. 42-93.)

ART. 6. In declaring articles the following rules shall be observed:

1. The importers shall draw up their declarations in accordance with the provisions of the present law.

2. When an article is specified in the tariff, the component material will not be considered, but only the tariff classification which has been assigned to the article.

3. For the determination of ad valorem surtaxes the consular invoice will be consulted, but the custom authorities may also follow previous declarations, in case the values set out are obviously false.

4. To determine the number (half the sum) of threads in a square of 5 mm. to the side, there shall be used a thread counter of that size; the number of threads in the warp shall be added to those in the filling and the sum divided by 2, any fraction that may result from such division being discarded.

5. In classifying the fabrics included in the present law, under plain fabrics are to be included those in which single weft yarns, running crosswise, pass alternately over and under each of the warp yarns, running lengthwise, forming right angles over the entire fabric, and in which single warp yarns, running lengthwise, pass alternately over and under each of the weft yarns, running crosswise, forming right angles over the entire fabric. In such fabrics all yarns must bear the same thickness.

Fabrics which do not meet the above requirements shall be considered as mixed fabrics.

ART. 7. When goods not known in the country or not specified in the tariff imported, the importer shall state this fact in the consular invoice, and address to the Ministry of Finance a petition verified by the customs authority and accompanied by a sample of the article to be classified.

ART. 8. For the entry through the custom houses of goods exempted from duty by reason of laws or contracts, a previous order of the Minister of Finance shall be required in each case.

ART. 9. Articles imported knocked down, in separate packages, shall be assessed at the same rate as the complete article.

ART. 10. When common empty glass bottles are imported in cases which are to be used later to carry the same number of full bottles, the bottles and the cases shall be assessed separately at the rates prescribed for each article.

ART. 11. When trunks, traveling bags, blankets or cloth are used, without a decrease in value, is packing for imported articles subject to a lower classification than the containers, the contents and containers shall be assessed for duty separately.

ART. 12. Articles which are imported in a container subject to a higher tariff classes subject to surtaxes, and which are declared in the same classes without surtaxes, shall be subject to the same penalties as articles found upon examination to belong to a higher tariff class than the one under which they are declared.

ART. 13. Articles subject to ad valorem surtaxes, which have been declared in the consular invoices at a value below their real value, shall be subject to the same penalties as articles found upon examination to belong to a higher tariff class than the one under which they are declared.

ART. 14. When upon examination goods are found to be of less weight or subject to a lower tariff class than that specified in the declaration, the fact shall be stated in the report of the examination, which is to be signed not only by the inspector but also by the collector of customs and two merchants of recognized standing.

ART. 15. The Executive is authorized to increase up to 25% the import duties on goods from foreign countries which do not provide in their treaties with Venezuela for most favored nation treatment.

ART. 16. The Executive is authorized to increase, reduce or abolish rates of duty for sufficient reasons, and to fix rates of duty for articles not specified in this law. Account shall be given of such acts to the National Congress at the following session.

ART. 17. The rates of duty prescribed by Article 1 of the present law are subject to the least surtaxes of 30% and 25%, both calculated on the original duties, and the resulting amount is subject to a surtax of 1% as a sanitation tax.

Both the ad valorem and the specific surtaxes specified in the present law are subject to the surtaxes stated in this article.

ART. 18. The import tariff law of July 1, 1912, and subsequent Executive decisions on the subject are hereby repealed.

Done in the Federal Legislative Power, in Caracas, the 10th of June, 1915, the one hundred and sixth year of Independence and the fifty-seventh year of the Federation.

Imports into Venezuela are dutiable on gross weight, i.e., inclusive of the weight of the containers. In case the containers consist of articles specified in the tariff under a higher tariff classification than the contents, they are assessed for duty under their own classification.

All dutiable imports are subject to the following surtaxes:

Two surtaxes of 12 1/2% of the duty each, authorized by the decree of April 25, 1901.

A surtax of 30% of the duty established by the decrees of February 16, 1901, and June 4, 1912.

A surtax of 1 1/2% based on the duty increased by the other surtaxes, imposed by the decree of December 29, 1910.

Imports from the West Indies are subject to an additional surtax of 30% of the import duty, in accordance with the law of June 4, 1881.

In addition to the above, there are a number of surtaxes, specific or ad valorem, prescribed by the tariff for specified articles. These surtaxes do not include the certain supplementary dues, such as port charges, wharfage dues, warehouse charges, stamp duty, etc., some of which are based on the value or weight of the shipment and others on the tonnage of the vessels.

In the case of explosives, prepared foods and pharmaceutical preparations, special restrictions are imposed in regard to importation, inspection or sale, which must be complied with.

By the decree of June 4, 1914, the importation of explosives, with the exception of ordinary dynamite, is subject to a permit which may be granted as a result of an application through the Ministry of the Interior. The importation and sale of dynamite has been restricted by the decree of June 27, 1913, to the National Government operating through the Department of Public Works.

Pharmaceutical specifications of a determined formula must bear labels showing the quantity of active substances contained in each dose and the names of these substances.

Adulterated and imitation food products must be plainly labelled as such, both on the immediate container and outer packing, and their component substances specified. Such labels must be in Spanish, with translations into such other languages as may be desired.

[TARIFF.]

The internal tax on cigarettes provided for by the law of June 12, 1913, is 5 bolivars per kilo.

The internal revenue law of June 12, 1915, prescribes the following internal taxes for imported liquors:

Brandy and rum, 1.25 bolivars per liter; gin, bitters, anisette and the like, 1.50 bolivars per liter; and cognac, whiskey &c., 2.50 bolivars per liter. For liquors of an alcoholic strength exceeding 50° the tax is increased proportionately. The tax on imported beer is 0.20 bolivar per liter.

Shippers must present to the Venezuelan consul for certification four copies of the consular invoice, which should contain the following data: The names of the ships and of the consignee, the port of shipment, the port of destination, the kind of vessel, its name, nationality, and the name of its captain; the mark, number, kind and destination of each package, its contents, exact gross weight in kilos, and its value.

CUBA

(3) The warp of tissues is to be considered as the totality of the threads which lie in the longitudinal sense, whether they form the found threads, the same, or whether they have been added in order to form patterns or give the stuff more body. The weft shall be considered as the totality of the threads which cross the warp of the tissue, and combine the same conditions of helping to form patterns or to add to the body of the stuff.

Customs treatment of mixed tissues.

Admixtures of two materials. Tissues of all kinds, composed of two materials, shall be dutiable as follows:

(a) Cotton tissues containing threads of hemp, jute, linen, ramie, or other vegetable fibre shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of group 2, Class IV, with the surtaxes established in each case (2), provided that the number of these threads of hemp, jute, linen, ramie, or other vegetable fibres, counted in the warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the tissue.

When the number of threads of hemp, jute, linen, ramie, &c., exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class V.

(b) Cotton tissues containing threads of wool, flock wool, hair, or wastes of these materials shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of group 2, Class IV, with the surtaxes established in each case (2), provided that the number of threads of wool, flock wool, hair, or their wastes, counted in the warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the tissue.

When the number of threads of wool, flock wool, hair, or their wastes exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class VI, as tissues mixed with wool.

(c) Cotton tissues containing threads of silk or floss-silk shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of group 2, Class IV, with the surtaxes established in each case (2), provided that the number of silk or floss-silk threads, counted in the warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the tissue.

When the number of threads of silk or floss-silk exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class VII.

(d) Tissues of hemp, jute, linen, ramie, or other vegetable fibres containing threads of wool, flock wool, hair, or their wastes shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of group 2, Class V, with the surtaxes established in each case (2), provided that the number of these threads of wool, flock wool, hair, or their wastes, counted in the warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the tissue.

When the number of threads of wool, flock wool, hair, or their wastes exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of group 2, Class VI, as tissues mixed with wool.

(e) Tissues of hemp, jute, linen, ramie, or other vegetable fibres containing threads of silk or floss-silk shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of group 2, Class V, with the surtaxes established in each case (2), provided that the number of these threads of silk or floss-silk, counted in the warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the tissue.

When the number of silk or floss-silk threads exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class VII.

(f) When the number of threads of silk or floss-silk exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class VII.

Admixtures of more than two materials. Tissues composed of more than two materials shall be dutiable as follows:

When the number of silk or floss-silk threads exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class VII.

(a) Tissues containing an admixture of cotton and other vegetable fibres, and at the same time threads of silk or floss-silk, shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class V, and assimilated to tissues of jute, hemp, &c., whatever be the proportion of the cotton threads; they shall, in addition, be liable to the surtax leviable on the silk or floss-silk threads (2), provided that the number of these threads, counted in warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the tissue.

When the number of silk or floss-silk threads exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class VII.

(b) Tissues of an admixture of wool, cotton and other vegetable fibres containing no silk threads, shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class V, and shall, in addition, be liable to the surtax leviable on woollen threads, provided that the number of these threads, counted in warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the tissue.

When the number of woollen threads exceeds one-fifth of the total, the tissues shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Class VI, as mixed woollen tissues.

3. Silk tissues. All tissues containing silk or floss-silk threads, the number of which, counted in warp and weft, exceeds one-fifth without being more than one-half of the total number of threads composing the tissue, shall be considered as tissues mixed with silk.

When the number of silk or floss-silk threads, counted in warp and weft, exceeds one-half of the total, the tissues shall be considered as dutiable as of pure silk.

Exceptions.

For knitted stuffs, tulle, lace, blondes, tulle for borders, and ribbons, composed of an admixture, exception to the preceding rules shall be made in the following cases:

6. Knitted and netted stuffs. All kinds of knitted stuffs and tulle, lace, blondes, and tulle of all kinds for borders, when mixed, shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of the class comprising the threads of the highest taxed material, whatever be the proportion of such threads in the tissue.

Knitted stuffs of lace, blondes and tulle for borders, comprised in Class V, shall be considered as tissues mixed with silk when they contain threads of cotton or other vegetable fibres, or of wool or flock-wool, whatever be the proportion of such threads in the mixture.

Tulle less than 15 centimetres in width shall be considered as tulle for borders.

7. Ribbons. Ribbons and galloons mixed with cotton and other vegetable fibres or with vegetable fibres and wool, containing no silk, shall be subject to the corresponding duties of the class comprising the most taxed threads.

Ribbons or galloons containing silk, in whatever proportion, shall be dutiable as tissues according to the corresponding numbers of Class VII, when not exceeding the quantities in which they shall be considered as mixed with silk. Tissues containing silk, in which they shall be considered as mixed with cotton or other vegetable fibres or of wool or flock-wool, shall be dutiable as of such material.

8. Trimmings. Trimmings shall be dutiable on the total weight, as if exclusively composed of the apparent or visible textile material.

Trimmings composed of their apparent or visible part of various textile materials shall be subject to the corresponding duties of the class comprising the highest taxed material. When the predominating component material consists of metallic threads of any kind, the trimmings shall be dutiable according to Class VII, plus the surtax leviable on the metal.

Trimmings are distinguished from ribbons and galloons by the latter being real tissues, with warp and weft, while trimmings are plaids.

Surtaxes.

9. Establishment of surtaxes. The surtaxes applicable, owing to broche, embroidery, metal threads, or making up, shall always be computed on the duties leviable on the tissue by taking into account, if necessary, the increase of such duties in case of admixture.

For the collection of the total duty, the surtaxes applicable for either of the above-mentioned reasons must, when necessary, be added together.

10. Tissues, broches, or woven lace broaches with threads of any of the textile materials comprised in Classes IV, V, VI, and VII, of the tariff shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon, plus the surtaxes established in each case (2).

By broche or broached tissues are meant all tissues ornamented or having designs applied by means of the small shuttle called "espolin" or any similar process, in such manner that the threads do not occupy the entire width of the stuff, but only the space comprising the flower or pattern.

The broches serving to form the broche or broached designs or ornaments shall not be considered by the appraisers in determining the number of threads in the tissue, nor shall such threads, whenever bleached or dyed, be subjected to the surtaxes established for bleaching or dyeing.

11. Embroidery. Tissues embroidered by hand or by machine after weaving or with application of trimmings shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon, plus the surtaxes established in every case (2) by taking into account, when the embroidery contains metal threads or not. Embroidery is distinguished from patterns woven in the tissue, as the latter are destroyed by unravelling the weft of the tissue, while embroidery is independent of the warp and weft and can not be unraveled.

12. Metallic threads. Tissues and trimmings containing metallic threads, in whatever proportion, shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon, plus the surtaxes established in every case (2).

Tissues exclusively composed of metallic threads shall be dutiable according to Class VII, plus the surtax leviable on the metal.

13. Made-up articles. Tissues manufactured into articles of all kinds shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon, plus the surtaxes established in every case (2).

Ready-made clothing, wearing apparel of all kinds and of any style and, generally, all articles made up by the tailor or tailor, shall, for their total weight, be liable to the duties leviable on the principal component tissue, their most visible exterior part.

For the application of the corresponding tariff surtaxes, clothing and articles half-finished or basted shall be considered as made-up articles and clothing.

DISPOSITION SECOND.

Rules applicable to goods not specially mentioned and to articles composed of several materials.

1. Articles not enumerated in the tariff shall, for the application of duty, be assimilated to those which they most closely resemble.

When an article presented for customs clearance is not mentioned in a number of the tariff or in the repository, and when doubts arise as to its assimilation to articles specified in the tariff, the interested party or the importer may request the customs authorities to indicate the number according to which such article is to be dutiable.

In such case the clearance shall be effected according to the number so indicated.

2. Articles which, owing to their nature or for their application, are composed of two or more materials or of different parts (3), for the total weight, be liable according to the material chiefly determining the value of the article.

3. In case of doubt as to which is the material chiefly determining the value of an article, such article shall be dutiable according to the most highly-taxed component material.

4. When the mixture of different materials has been made with a view of avoiding the payment of the duties of any specified number of the tariff, the duties leviable on the article subject to the highest duty shall always be collected.

DISPOSITION THIRD.

Regulations to be applied in levying duty on packages and receptacles.—Taxes.

1. Packages and receptacles capable of again being used to contain goods or for other purposes shall be dutiable according to the corresponding number of the tariff, and one of goods placed on gross weight without tare, for which it is expressly provided that the weight of packages or receptacles shall, for tariff purposes, be included in the weight of the goods.

2. Packages and receptacles liable to higher duties than those established for their contents shall always be dutiable according to the number of the tariff to which they belong.

3. The following articles shall pay on gross weight, including packages and receptacles:

Included in Class I.

Marble, Jasper, and alabaster, in the rough or cut into flat blocks, slabs or steps; other natural or artificial—stone, unworked or in flat blocks, slabs, or steps; earthy substances employed in industry, such as the alkali, cement, lime, lime-slag, gypsum, universal gas, and tar; asphalt, bitumens, asphaltum, and other asphaltic materials of all kinds; clay in coarse articles for building purposes, (bricks, &c.); also articles of fire-clay; large or small paving tiles of earthenware, cement, or stoneware, or ceramic tiles, glazed roofing tiles and pipes.

Included in Class II.

All articles of cast iron, wrought iron or steel set forth in Nos. 33, 34, 41, 45, 47 (letters a and b), 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54 (letters a, b, and c), 55 (letters a and b), 56, 57, and 58); copper shavings; copper of first fusion in solid copper, bars, &c.; copper, brass, bronze, and other alloys of common metals in which copper enters in ingots, bars, plates, pipes, railway chairs, sheet iron, stoves and boiler-makers' work, partly wrought, and in forgings; also aluminium, tin, zinc, lead, or other metals, in ingots, bars, plates, pipes, forgings, shavings, scrap iron or steel, and other waste of common metals; acacia

(1) Classes IV, and V., group 2, Note II., Letter A.

General provision for tare.

6. All goods not enumerated in the foregoing lists or not included in the above-mentioned cases shall be dutiable on net weight or on the bases stipulated in the respective numbers of the tariff; all packages or receptacles containing such goods shall be separately liable to the duties set forth in the corresponding numbers of the tariff.

7. Goods dutiable on gross weight entitled or not to tare allowance shall always be taxed inclusive of the weight of all interior paper wrappers, ribbons, envelopes or packing.

8. When an article entitled to tare allowance is imported in bulk or merely fastened by means of rope or hoops, or packed in paper, straw, hay, or like material, such article shall be taxed as follows:

9. Goods dutiable on net weight shall pay together with the weight of the paper wrappers, ribbons, envelopes, or immediate receptacles other than the boxes or cases. Needles, pins, pens and other articles comprised in Nos. 51, 52 and 68 shall be excepted from this rule, and will be weighed together with the box or case in which they are packed.

Other boxes and cases, also boxes and cases containing other articles, shall be dutiable according to the number of the tariff to which they belong.

Goods affixed to cardboard, cards or wood shall be dutiable together with the weight of such package.

Twisted yarn of all kinds shall be dutiable together with the weight of the bobbins.

10. When in one container merchandise is imported which pay by net weight with others which pay by gross weight or by units or by value, whether they have the same or different tares, said merchandise will pay the duties that correspond to them by net or dutiable weight, without any benefit of tare, and the exterior container will be appraised by its total weight by the paragraph corresponding to the material of which it is made.

11. Packages containing mineral waters shall be dutiable according to the following rules:

Cases containing bottles shall be dutiable according to No. 166 (letter b) on 15 per cent. of the gross weight of case and contents.

Bottles shall be dutiable according to No. 10, and for this purpose bottles containing 70 centiliters or more shall be considered as weighing 720 grams each.

For smaller bottles and for flasks, except of glass, and for other receptacles used for importing water, the weight shall be practically ascertained, and such receptacles shall be dutiable according to the numbers of the tariff in which classed.

12. Receptacles containing alcohol, brandies, liquors, and other compound spirits shall be treated as follows:

When the importation is effected in barrels or other casks, the receptacles shall be dutiable according to their corresponding paragraph on 15 per cent. of the gross weight if single, and on 20 per cent. of the gross weight if double.

When the importation is effected in bottles or flasks, packed in wooden cases or hampers, duties shall be assessed as follows:

The weight of the liquid shall be practically ascertained, as shall that of the bottles or flasks containing the same.

The practically ascertained weights of the liquid and bottles or flasks shall be added, and the result deducted from the actual gross weight of

(A surtax of 30% is levied on all articles in this group except those comprised in No. 35, on which the surtax is not levied.)
(1) A surtax of 75% of the duties will be levied upon Saxony, Sèvres and similar fine porcelain.
(2) Flow-rings and sheets of calcum (No. 747), tin plate in sheets (No. 56) and tubes of India rubber (No. 3096) are exempt from the surtax imposed by Decree of Feb. 1, 1901, when imported by manufacturers in Cuba for the manufacture of funeral wreaths.
(3) The Law of Aug. 1, 1917, provides that in all bonded duty equal to the G. S. duty shall be levied on the articles comprised in Nos. 25 and 26, if all articles containing a base or plating of silver, however slight, are classified under No. 30. Compases (all kinds), gold or silver plated, are also included in this number. An additional duty of 25% on the amount of Cas. duty now payable shall be levied on the articles under No. 30 (Law of Aug. 1, 1917).
(4) Parts of fittings of pipes known as reducers, increasers, offsets, Y branches, T branch, elbows, crosses, T traps, union traps, half traps, Y branch, double T branch, double T branches, cross-tees, common fittings, blind flanges, couplings, nipples, branch tees, bends, unions and caps are classified as follows:
When of cast iron (not gilt or nickelled) under No. 32.
When of wrought iron or steel (not gilt or nickelled) under No. 37.
When of copper or alloys of copper (not gilt or nickelled) under No. 49, (Ruling No. 53 of Nov. 23, 1909.)

(1) By "tochos" shall be understood rough wrought iron in a mass or prism, round iron or iron in any other form, containing dross, (wrought iron containing dross has generally an unequal and rough surface.)

(2) The word bars in par. 306 should be interpreted to mean said articles without screws or rivets, or without being prepared for rivets or screws, or cut to measure. (Ruling No. 16 of July 3, 1901.)

(3) The word rods in par. 306 should be interpreted to mean rods in thickness employed in the manufacture of iron wire.

(4) Crucible steel is distinguished from bars and other pieces of iron or common steel by its sharp edges. The surface is very smooth, of a bluish color, darker than that of iron, and its texture is close-grained. (This steel is generally imported in round, square, octagonal, triangular or flat bars.)

(5) By hoop iron (6) should be understood unpolished flat band or circles of less than 3 millimetres in thickness. See also footnote to No. 35.

(6) Galvanized iron gutters, not riveted, screwed, or joined in any way, are classified under No. 37. (Ruling No. 14 of July 7, 1901.)

(7) By Decree of Nov. 22, 1900, the wire comprised in No. 11 a, bands is exempted from the surtax of 30% provided that such wire is imported by manufacturers for use in industries, and that a sworn declaration to that effect is made by the importer.

(8) The word "Bars" in Par. 12 should be interpreted to mean with rivet or screws, or the same article unperfected, but perforated or cut to measure, for bridges, frames, and other structures. (Ruling No. 16 of July 3, 1901.)

(9) According to decision of Feb. 18, 1901, wire 2 size includes all woven wire with 5 or more threads per inch, while that of less than 5 threads per inch is classified as netting under No. 46.

2 This basis represents one half of the warp and woad threads comprised in a square of one inch, i. e., of 23 millimetres.

3 Barbed fence is free of duty.

4 Compases of iron and steel (not apparatus, and clearly for use in the arts, trades and professions, are classified under No. 17a.

5 Iron (phosphoric iron pipes) and scrubbing sticks (copadores) are classified under No. 47b.

230	Tramway carriages of all kinds	25% ad val.
231	Wagons, carts and hand carts	25% ad val.

Group 4.

Vessels.

NOTE 1.—The duties on ships include likewise those levied on anchors, kedgcs, cables and chains, barometers, chronometers, binnacles, compasses (douse and fixed), speaking trumpets, telescopes, casks, corbals, sails and masts, necessary for the manœuvres and safety of vessels, with due regard to their class. The following articles will likewise be included in the duties levied on such vessels, although not imposed upon dynamo and lamps for electric lighting on same, as well as those corresponding to the gas-work, crockery, knives, forks, and spoons, table and bed linen, and kitchen utensils for the exclusive use of said vessels, provided that said articles are proper and suitable, in quantity and quality, to the class and service of the

(1) The machines and apparatus mentioned in this number are those employed by farmers and agriculturists for preparing the ground and gathering the crops, also those employed in order to clean the crops and improve them without essentially changing their nature.

(2) Hay presses, used exclusively for drying hay, are classed in No. 216 as agricultural machinery and apparatus.

(3) Articles corresponding to Nos. 218 and 219 when imported by ship-owners for use exclusively in the repair of registered steam vessels belonging to the island, will be dutiable at the reduced rate of 8% ad valorem. (Circular de la Habana, 24th Sept. 1901.)

(4) Machines and separate pieces of the same, of copper and its alloys, and of other materials, shall also be included under this heading, provided the above metals predominate in weight.

(5) It will be necessary to prove to what manufacture or to what industry pure wooden hose and filters are destined in order to be assessed according to this number.

Water-closets and parts thereof are classed in No. 226 "as apparatus" as piston packing, of which material and resin is included in this number. (See also note to No. 233.) Flush-pipes imported separately from water-closet apparatus, provided the above metals predominate in weight, will be dutiable according to the component material, unless proof be furnished that same are imported solely for use in connection with water-closet apparatus, in which case, they are to be dutiable according to No. 226 as parts of water-closets.

Zinc plates with a hole in the centre only to be used for protecting steamships and being replaced as necessary parts of boilers, and shall be classed in No. 226 and not in No. 74.

Boiler tubes (boiler pipes) of iron or steel which are integral parts of the boiler itself and have no other application, shall be classified under Par. 226. The "tubes" mentioned in Note 2 at the head of Group 4, "Apparatus and Machines," refer to those which are destined to machinery for connections, conduction of water, &c., but which may be used for other purposes. (Review No. 28 of July 21, 1900.) respective vessels; that they are indelibly and conspicuously stamped or marked with the name of the vessel, and furthermore that said vessels are to be engaged in the coastwise trade. In cases where such articles lack or do not combine the necessary conditions aforesaid, same shall pay at all times the duties specified in the respective paragraph of the tariff. All other articles shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon.

NOTE 11.—Duties on steam vessels shall be levied on the total number of tons which may result from the official measurement, and no separate duty shall be levied on machinery which shall be considered an integral part of the vessel.

The certificate of tonnage shall temporarily serve as a basis for levying duty on vessels entering from abroad. The interested parties must present to the Customs authorities a certificate of measurement approved by the inspector; but it is understood that the Customs authorities will not consider the clearance and payment of the duties as finally settled until this formality has been complied with and noted.

National ships lengthened in foreign dockyards must, on their return, pay duty on the additional tonnage. Vessels refitted with engines abroad shall pay a fiscal duty of 6 dollars per horse-power when it is impossible to ascertain the weight of the new machinery.

Boilers and accessories of copper, iron, tubes, &c., changed abroad, shall be liable to a fiscal duty of 3 dollars per each square metre of heating surface.

Vessels undergoing other repairs in foreign ports shall, on their return, pay duty on the material employed for the purpose.

FREE LIST

The undermentioned articles may be imported into Cuba exempt from the duties stipulated in the tariff in compliance with the prescribed conditions and the formalities established for every case in the Customs Regulations:

- 319 Mammals, natural, including the ewe-poa.
- 320 Trees, plants and moss, in natural or fresh state.
- 321 National products returning from foreign exhibitions, on presentation of the bill of lading or certificate proving their exportation from the island, and of satisfactory evidence attesting that such products have been presented and have been shipped to their point of departure.
- 322 Trained animals, portable theatres, panoramas, wax figures, and other similar objects for public entertainment, imported temporarily, not for longer than three months, unless extension be granted by the collector of customs, provided they be given.
- 323 Receipts exported from Cuba with fruit, sugar, molasses, honey, brandy, alcohol and coconut oil, and re-imported empty, including iron drums containing condensation.
- 324 Specimens and collections of mineralogy, botany and zoology; also small models for public museums, schools, academies and scientific and artistic corporations, on proof of their destination, and archaeological and numismatical objects for public museums, academies, and scientific and artistic corporations, on proof of their destination.
- 325 Used furniture of persons coming to settle in the island, provided the same has been used for one year.
- NOTES to No. 325.—The expression "Used furniture of persons coming to settle in the island" shall be construed to include such articles of household effects and furnishings as pictures, books, piano organs, china ware and kitchen utensils, in quantities, and of the class, suitable to the rank and position in life of the person bringing them, provided that they have all been in use by the said person for more than one year, and provided further that satisfactory evidence be produced that such person is actually coming to settle in the island, that the change of residence is bona fide, and that the privilege of free entry under this paragraph has never been previously granted him. (Ruling No. 32 of Aug. 7, 1903.)
- A carriage, or hearse, or property of a bona fide immigrant coming to settle in the island of Cuba, bearing evidence of having been used for one year, when imported together with his household furniture, may properly be admitted free of duty under the provisions of par. 325 of the Cuban Customs Tariff. (Ruling No. 124 of March 15, 1902.)

326 Samples of silk, wallpaper and tissues, when they comply with the following conditions:

- a. When they do not exceed ten centimetres in length, measured in the warp or length of the piece, even when such samples have the following conditions:

(1) All articles coated with caoutchouc on one or both surfaces, as well as those with an interior lining of caoutchouc, are included in this number.

(2) Stuffed or mounted birds, or animal specimens of zoology, &amp;c., except when the specimens of No. 324 of the free list are complied with, are dutiable under No. 315.

(3) Breast or chest protectors and masks, for brass ball or fencing, are dutiable according to No. 315. Aluminized paper is classed under No. 315.

(4) Those articles (including watered tissue) which are excluded from classification under No. 315 by reason of not complying with the condition that they shall have no commercial value are classed under No. 315, except where the character of the article as printed matter makes it properly classifiable under the schedule for printed matter.

(5) Such manufactures of wool, as collars, corners, and other parts of a knicker-down blouse, which cannot be properly classified under the various paragraphs of Class I, of this IV, are classed under No. 315.

(6) Compasses, natural, not gold or silver plated, drawing outfits, mathematical and geometrical sets, &amp;c., are classed under No. 315.

(7) Threaded tiles of tarred roofing paper are dutiable under No. 315. Embroidery cloth, also a-boson in powder, is classed under No. 315.

entire width of the piece. The width shall, for tissues, be determined by the list, and for felts and wallpaper by the narrow border which has not passed through the press.

b. Samples not having these indications shall only be admitted free of duty when they do not exceed 40 centimetres in any dimension. c. In order to avoid abuse, the samples declared for free entry must have cuts at every 20 centimetres of their width, so as to render them unfit for any other purpose.

327 Samples of trimmings in small pieces, of no commercial value or possible application.

NOTE.—No other samples than those provided for in paragraphs 326 and 327 shall be admitted free of duty; provided that ordinary and usual commercial samples, imported by bona fide commercial travellers in their baggage, after examination and identification by the customs-house, upon re-exportation within three months after the date of their importation, shall be entitled to a refund of 75% of the duties paid thereon, if upon presentation at the customs house for re-exportation said samples shall be positively recognised and identified as being those upon which duty has been paid, and provided further that the appraised value of said samples shall not exceed $20.

328 Works of fine art acquired by the Government, academies, or other official corporations, and intended for museums, galleries, or art schools when the proof is given as to their destination.

329 Gold in bars, powder or coin; also silver and bronze coins.

330 Wearing apparel, toilet objects and articles to be used on personal use, bed and table linen, books, portable tools and instruments, theatrical costumes, jewels and table services bearing evident traces of having been used, imported by travellers in their luggage in quantities proportionate to their class, profession and position.

NOTE.—The collector of customs may exact a bond for the exportation of these articles when deemed necessary by him.

331 Stone, unworked, for paving purposes.

Law of September 4, 1893, relating to the Customs of the Republic and

Law of September 4, 1893, relating to the Customs of the Republic and (Promulgated and rendered applicable on the 30th September, 1905.)

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. Merchandise or products of our foreign trade and vessels used for transporting the same shall be subject to the duties set forth in the Tariff annexed to the present Law and to those which might be provided for in special enactments.

2. Customs houses are established in the following ports open to foreign trade, for the collection of the duties aforesaid:

Port-au-Prince, Cap-Haitien, Gonaives, Jacmel, Port-de-Paix, Jérémie, Petit-Goave, Saint-Marc, Marigouane, Anapim, Môle-Saint-Nicholas.

Customs officers may, however, be established on such parts of the frontier as may be deemed fit.

3. No merchandise or products of our foreign trade are allowed to pass, except through the Customs houses.

All merchandise or products of our foreign trade attempted to be passed outside the customs offices, shall be considered as contraband and seized.

4. No vessel may load or complete her cargo except in the ports open to foreign trade or at which vessels are allowed to call.

5. Sailing vessels or steamers will be at liberty to proceed to the non-open port of Port-Liberte and there to ship cargo or complete their cargo.

In this case they shall make their call in the Port of Cap-Haitien, and pay the duties on their bulks and cargo before proceeding to the non-open port.

After taking on or completing cargo, said ships shall return to the port of entry in order to be properly cleared.

6. Foreign or Haitian sea-going vessels are not allowed under penalty of a fine of from 500 to 5 000 gourdes in legal currency, to anchor along the coasts, save in case of an accident or of uncontrollable circumstances.

Any vessel caught in the act of unloading or loading goods or wares along the coast, shall be confiscated and sold by the Judicial authorities as well as the goods or wares.

7. Any attempt or undertaking purporting to avoid the duties due to the State, shall be investigated, prosecuted and punished according to Law.

The statute of limitation shall apply on the expiration of five years.

8. Attempts or acts of smuggling under threat of arms shall be liable to the penalties laid down in Articles 326, 327 and 328 of the Penal Code.

9. Every ship used in smuggling shall be liable to a fine of from 500 to 1 000 gourdes in legal currency and the goods or provisions shall be seized, forfeited and sold by the Judicial authorities.

This shall also be the case in regard to vessels when the value of the articles seized exceeds 1 000 gourdes and the owners or persons concerned in the fraud shall be sentenced to an imprisonment of from one to five years.

10. Any person abetting smuggling and having knowledge received on deposit or bought smuggled goods or wares, shall be arrested, tried and sentenced to an imprisonment of from six months to two years and to a fine of from one hundred to five hundred gourdes in legal currency.

11. A merchant convicted of smuggling shall forfeit his house to trade.

12. The customs officials remain authorized to search, seize, try, persons coming ashore from sea-going or coasting vessels, and to confiscate as being smuggled, any goods found upon them.

The contrabanders shall be arrested and sentenced to an imprisonment of from six months to two years and to a fine of five hundred gourdes in legal currency.

13. The net proceeds of the sale of seized and confiscated goods or vessels shall be divided into two equal shares between the State and those who denounced the fraud or captured the vessel.

14. Proceedings against contrabanders at these provisions shall be taken by the Public Prosecutor of the district in exercise of his special powers, before the proper Courts after the requisition of the Customs Directors or officials, or on the requisition of the Police authorities or even de officio.

15. Liable goods shall stand as security for the duties leviable thereon.

No package may be delivered except upon production of the receipts for duty relating thereto, and on penalty of dismissal of the Customs Director and of the application of all penalties provided in the Penal Code.

16. No exemption from duty shall be granted save in cases determined by Law, or by contracts entered into with the State.

17. The State shall not be responsible for accidents or loss from uncontrollable circumstances, or for damage and deterioration suffered by the goods prior to their entry in the depots or during the time they lie at the Customs.

It shall only be accountable in case goods disappear between the time of their entering the Customs-house and the assessment of duty.

The Customs-halls can in no case be used as depots.

18. Sailing vessels are only allowed to take cargo for one single port in Haiti.

19. Rum, tafia, syrup, molasses, raw and clarified sugar are prohibited to be imported; they shall be forfeited and sold on account of the State; and all obscene words or objects shall likewise be confiscated and burnt.

20. The agents of steamers and the consignees of sailing vessels are responsible for the fines incurred by the Master.

21. No import duty of any kind shall be levied on books, cards, plans of national authors, machines and accessories of all kinds suitable for industry for facilitating the working of the soil or preparation of native products.

BILL OF LADING.

22. All goods consigned from abroad to a port in Haiti must be accompanied by a bill of lading; should a portion of the cargo be the property of the Master, the latter shall not be dispensed from this formality.

23. The bill of lading shall state:

Name of consignor.

Name and address of consignee.

Name of the Master.

Name and tonnage of the ship.

Place of departure and of destination.

It shall express the freight expenses, nature, gross weight or volume of the goods and show in the margin the marks and numbers on the packages.

24. The bill of lading shall be numbered in serial order, which is to be repeated on the consular manifest and the Consul shall open a register and enter therein the number opposite the names of consignor and consignee.

25. Each package is to clearly bear the consignee's initials, and a number.

26. The Consul shall refuse to certify any bill of lading on which more than one package is indicated under the same number.

27. The absence of the bill of lading will involve forfeiture of the goods and sale thereof by auction for the benefit of the State.

INVOICE.

28. All goods forwarded to Haiti are required to be accompanied by an invoice.

29. This invoice will indicate the marks, countermarks and numbers on, and quantity of the packages; the detailed contents of each, the price of the goods, the freight, expenses, and port of shipment. It must be in the reproduction of the consignor's books.

In case the goods are to order, the words "to order" shall be inserted in lieu of the consignee's name.

30. Every invoice presented to the Consul's certification shall contain at foot the following declaration to be signed before a Commissioner or any other duly authorized person:

"I hereby certify that this invoice is the faithful and true expression of the truth; that it agrees with my book or inventory particular; that no alteration has been made in the above description, in the weight, quality or quantity of the articles therein specified."

31. The absence of the invoice will render the package liable to be sent back.

32. In case of dispute between the consignor and consignee, the invoice certified to by the Consul shall alone be accepted as evidence before the Court.

DAMAGE.

33. Damage done to goods shall be declared by the consignee at latest within 24 hours after landing, and be ascertained by the Director of Customs, the Government Commissioner and three licensed merchants in Haiti.

The report shall be drawn up and forwarded to the Administrator of Finance who shall order thereon. Such sale shall be by auction and take place in the presence of this official, the Government Commissioner, the Director of Customs and a Controller.

On the net proceeds of the sale one-fifth shall be levied on account of customs-duty, without prejudice to the warehouse dues, visa charges and salaries.

34. If foreign goods or products introduced into one of the open ports of the Republic, in consequence of some error, shall pay the duties if delivered for consumption. In that case the claimant is only required to deliver to the interior, after a summary declaration.

35. If a ship pay in respect of all its cargo a quatre pour cent package, in addition to wharfage, if the owner's cargo is re-exported them.

If after six months they are not re-exported or delivered for consumption, they shall be sold by auction, as provided in Article 34.

ASSIMILATION.—PRE-EMPTION.—AD VALOREM DUTY.

36. Goods which by their kind, quality and price can be assimilated to an article enumerated in the tariff shall pay the same duty as such article.

When the assimilation can be made with several articles, the goods shall pay the duty chargeable on the most highly taxed article.

37. Goods of better quality and larger size than articles of like nature shall pay a duty proportionate to the latter.

For instance, for a quarter, a third, a half in excess of the sizes provided for, the goods shall be liable to an additional quarter, third or half.

these, and at the same time threads of silk, floss, or waste silk, or artificial silk, shall be dutiable according to the corresponding paragraphs of Schedule E, whatever be the proportion of the threads of cotton or other vegetable fibres, with a surtax of 50 % of the duties otherwise applicable thereto under said Schedule E. Provided, that the numbers of threads of silk, floss, or waste silk, or artificial silk, counted in the warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the textile.

When the number of threads of silk, floss, or waste silk, or artificial silk, exceeds one-fifth of the total, the textile shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Schedule G.

(c) Textiles having an admixture of cotton and other vegetable fibres, and at the same time threads of silk, floss, or waste silk, or artificial silk, shall be dutiable according to the corresponding paragraphs of Schedule E, whatever be the proportion of the cotton threads, with a surtax of 50 % of the duties otherwise applicable thereto under said Schedule E. Provided, that the number of threads of silk, floss, or waste silk, or artificial silk, counted in the warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the textile.

When the number of threads of silk, floss, or waste silk, or artificial silk, exceeds one-fifth of the total, the textile shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Schedule G.

(d) Textiles having an admixture of wool, flock wool, hair, or wastes of these materials, and cotton and other vegetable fibres, but containing no threads of silk, floss, or waste silk, or artificial silk, shall be dutiable according to the corresponding paragraphs of Schedule E, whatever be the proportion of the cotton threads, with a surtax of 40 % of the duties otherwise applicable thereto under said Schedule E.

Provided, that the number of threads of wool, flock wool, hair, or wastes of these materials, counted in the warp and weft, does not exceed one-fifth of the total number of threads composing the textile.

When the number of threads of wool, flock wool, hair, or wastes of these materials, exceeds one-fifth of the total, the textile shall be subject to the corresponding duties of Schedule F.

(e) Made up articles having a woven structure of mixtures of two or more materials, shall be dutiable according to the provisions of the schedule comprising the most highly taxed component threads, whatever be the proportion of such threads in the woven structure of such articles.

Rule 4.—For the application of the rules of this tariff, the most highly taxed threads of these classified under Schedule G, the next lowest those classified under Schedules F, E and D, in the order mentioned.

Rule 5.—For the purpose of determining the classification of a textile or article, when the threads or yarns used in the manufacture thereof are spun or twisted of more than one material, that causing the highest duty shall be considered and such threads or yarns shall be taken as though composed entirely of the most highly taxed material.

Rule 6.—Surtaxes or changes of schedule classification of textiles shall not apply or result on account of dyed or printed yarn or fabric of materials distinct from the body of the textile that may be introduced into selvages; nor shall surtaxes or changes of schedule classification apply or result on account of printing of trade names or marks on textiles. No reduction in duty shall be conceded for the weight or area occupied by selvages in determining the classification of textiles.

Rule 7.—Metallic threads introduced into any textile or article shall be considered as being for its purposes of this tariff, provided that they do not extend from the rule by express provision in another part of the tariff.

Rule 8.—All kinds of knitted and netted stitches, tubes, hives and hounds, when mixed, in the piece, or in made up articles, shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of the schedule comprising the textile most highly taxed, whatever be the proportion of the threads in the fabric.

Rule 9.—Textiles such as plushes, velvets and velveteens in the piece, or in made up articles, unisex, shall be dutiable according to the paragraphs of the schedule comprising threads in the material most highly taxed, whatever be the proportion of such threads.

Rule 10.—Ribbons, trunks, bands or tape (elastic or not), galleons, and generally, trimmings, when woven, knitted, or made up, shall be dutiable according to the corresponding numbers of the schedule comprising the textile most highly taxed, whatever be the proportion of its threads.

Rule 11. Textiles embroidered by hand or machine (except Swiss embroidery and insertions), or with drawn or applied work, or with application of trimmings, shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon, plus a surtax of 90 %.

Rule 12. Should the embroidery contain threads, pearl or strings of metal (except gold), or glass, the surtax should be increased to 100 %; and when pearls or strings of metal are of gold, the surtax shall be increased to 150 %, and in addition thereto 20 % and 40 %.

Rule 13.—When vermark up articles are referred to specifically in this tariff, the term shall be held to include articles completely made up or finished, half finished, cut to size, bunched, or only basted, as well as textiles in the piece so designed or marked as to indicate their ultimate use.

Rule 14. Ready-made clothing, wearing apparel of all kinds, and generally all articles made up by the seamstress or tailor, shall be liable to the duties leviable thereon as though entirely manufactured of the principal component material or as though entirely manufactured of the material forming the under vesting or exterior part, whichever may be determined by the application of this rule by more specific descriptions elsewhere in this tariff. For example: a cotton muslin skirt, covered or principally manufactured with lace would be dutiable as made up article or manufactured of lace.

Rule 15. Plain woven textiles. Textiles in the weaving of which the threads or yarns (of one end) of the weft are carried alternately over and under each warp thread forming right angles throughout the piece and in which the threads or yarns of the warp are carried alternately over and under each weft thread forming right angles throughout the piece, shall be considered as plain woven.

When the weaving does not correspond to the process hereinbefore described, the textile shall not be considered plain woven for the purpose of this tariff.

Rule 16.—Embroidery shall be distinguished from patterns woven in the piece in that the latter are destroyed by unraveling the weft of the textile, while embroidery being independent of the warp and weft is not destroyed by unraveling the weft.

Rule 17.—Applied work shall be considered as the superimposing in the form of designs of another material or of the same material on textiles or made up articles, by sewing, pasting or other process.

Rule 18.—Drawn work shall be considered as the binding or cutting of threads after weaving in such a manner as to leave interstices in parts of a textile or article, liable to the duty of weaving by thread in the warp or weft.

Rule 19.—Trimming shall be considered as the application to a textile or article for purposes of decoration, embellishment or adornment, of ribbons, laces, braides, galleons, pieces of textiles or other materials, pieces of metal or glass, bones or ivory, paste, wood, ivory, coral, or other material, buttons and buckles in places where they are not intended to be used, as well as buckles, buckles or fasteners of an unsightly or dirty design.

Rule 20.—Whenever the areas of measurements are mentioned as a limit or guide for the classification of textiles or other manufactures, they shall be ascertained by measurement of the greatest length and widest breadth of the textile or article concerned, whether rectangular or not, including fringes, selvages, and any other parts of the textile, unless exempted from operation of this rule by a paragraph of this tariff.

Rule 21.—In determining for the purpose of classification, the weight of any textile per 100 square meters, the calculation should be based upon a sufficient area of the textile itself, exclusive of boards, paper, labels, tags, strings, tickets, embroidery, trimming, or any other thing, object, or ornament, except bleaching, staining, printing, dyeing, stain ing, ennobling, or non-staining, applied or performed after the textile has left the loom.

Rule 22.—Surtaxes applicable to textiles classified under Schedules F and G shall be based on the rate per pound per square meter, and shall not be applied on the rate by weight that forms a part of the compound duties applicable to said textiles.

Rule 23.—Whenever in the matter of provisional ad valorem rates, in cases of surtaxes, reference is had to a numbered paragraph of the tariff, said reference shall be construed to include the numbered paragraph and its lettered sub-divisions, unless exempted from operation of this rule.

Rule 24.—When more than one surtax is applicable to a textile or article, the percentage of increase for each surtax shall be calculated on the original duties, or compound duties.

Rule 25.—Articles and manufactures not enumerated, manufactured of two or more parts or materials, shall be dutiable at the highest rate applicable to the material or materials comprising the principal material of chief value, unless such articles be provided for by the compound material of one material combined, coated, covered, elaborated or improved with another material, in which case the rate applicable to the latter shall apply.

Whenever reference is made to "component material of chief value," "principal material," or "chief value," by these terms shall be held to mean the material of chief value of which exceeds that of any other component material of the article or manufacture.

The value of each component material shall be determined by the ascertained value of such material in the condition as found in the article or manufacture.

Rule 26.—In classifying an article not provided for in this tariff, its commercial designation shall govern.

Rule 27. Imported articles not enumerated in this Act which are similar to any article herein enum rated shall pay the same rate of duty which is levied on such enumerated article which they most resemble in the particulars and in the order following: First, in appearance; second, in quality; third, in texture; fourth, in the use to which they may be applied. If any unenumerated article equally resembles two or more enumerated articles on which different rates of duty are chargeable, or if the possession of any or all of the aforementioned qualities or uses resemble two or more enumerated articles on which different rates of duty are chargeable, there shall be levied on such unenumerated article the same rate of duty as is chargeable on the article which it resembles, paying the highest rate of duty.

Rule 28.—If two or more rates of duty shall be applicable to any imported article or manufacture, it shall pay the highest of such rates.

Rule 29.—No duty shall be collected on exterior coverings containing articles not dutiable on net weight by duties a free of duty, in general comprising any of the above, with a surtax of 100 % on the weight of the merchandise (exterior or interior), if they shall be of material or form designed to evade duties, or for use other than common packing, or of unusual form, shall be subject to duty as articles or manufactures under paragraphs of the tariff to which they correspond by classification, interior or exterior, in relation to the weight of the net weight shall be in excess of the net weight of the contents.

Cases of jewelry, such as immediate containers thereof shall be dutiable under their respective paragraphs.

Rule 30.—Whenever merchandise shall be dutiable upon the gross weight, the dutiable weight of such merchandise shall include the weight of all covers, receptacles, wrappers, packages and packing of every description, whether exterior, interior or immediate, without any allowance or tare.

Rule 31.—In all instances where merchandise shall be dutiable upon net weight, the dutiable weight of such merchandise shall not include any common exterior cover, receptacle, package, wrapper, or packing, but shall include all interior or immediate receptacles, including cards and coupons, not subject to a higher rate of duty. Loose straw, slavings, excelsior, paper, sawdust, or other similar materials interposed between the exterior receptacle and the merchandise contained in the merchandise, to steady and protect the same, shall not be considered part of the immediate container.

Rule 32.—When in a single receptacle are imported goods dutiable by net weight, by duties, by absolute ad valorem or free of duty, together with others dutiable by gross weight, the former shall be assessed by their net weight, as defined in rule numbered 31, or by duties, by absolute ad valorem, or shall be free of duty, and of the latter shall be dutiable on the net weight as defined in Rule 31 with an addition to such net weight equal to 25 % thereof.

Rule 33.—All the provisions of Rules 29, 31 and 32 regarding gross and net weight shall be applicable to goods subject to compound duties when the gross or net weight forms part of the compound duty.

Rule 34.—Materials.—When in this tariff no modification to the contrary is made in a paragraph thereof, it shall be understood that each paragraph refers only, relative to material, to that designated in the group in which it is included, in the absence of grouping, to that designated in the Schedule in which included, without reference to other groups or Schedules in which other materials are designated.

Section IV.—Customs duties shall be paid in accordance with the law.

The value of merchandise dutiable or conditionally dutiable shall be considered the wholesale value of such merchandise in markets of the country whence exported, in the condition ready for shipment, inclusive of all charges except ocean freight, export duties and broker's commission.

Section VII.—All import entries shall be accompanied by a Consular invoice, setting forth in detail the marks, numbers and gross weights of packages, together with the true value and net weights, dutiable quantities and dimensions, of each one of the articles or effects contained in said packages, in accordance with the prescriptions of this tariff.

For the certification of four copies of each invoice and corresponding bill of lading; the value of the goods included in the invoice being:

From 1 to 50 dollars	1 00
" 51 to 200 "	2 00
" 201 to 1,000 "	3 00
" 1,001 to 2,000 "	4 00
" 2,001 to 4,000 "	5 00
And for each 1,000 in excess of 1,000	1 00

Note.—When the consular is asked to sign more than four copies of the invoice or bill of lading, the fee charged will be 50 % more than that chargeable for the four copies.

Section VII. - The importation of the following articles is prohibited, and all such articles shall be confiscated and destroyed if the introduction thereof is attempted:

1. Books, pamphlets or other printed matter, paintings or illustrations, figures or other objects of an artistic or scientific character.
2. Counterfeit coins, paper money or currency, of any country, together with the dies or tools used in the manufacture of the same.
3. Dangerous poisons, acids, explosives, gases or fumes with blades or guns.
4. Roulette wheels, gambling layouts, dealing boxes and all other machines, apparatus, or unclaimed devices used in gambling or used in the distribution of money, claims or articles, when such distribution is deemed to be illegal.
5. Implements and munitions of war, when not imported for or by the Government.
6. Gas or petroleum of less than 1500, when imported by or for the Government.

Section IX.—The rates of duties to be collected on articles, manufactures, goods and merchandise imported into the Dominican Republic shall be as follows:—

Kelly's Directory of the Merchants, Manufacturers and Shippers of the World

Being a Guide to the Export, Import and Manufacturing Industries. This work contains lists of the IMPORTERS, EXPORTERS, BANKERS, CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE, MERCHANTS and MANUFACTURERS of the UNITED KINGDOM and of the Commercial World

The Directory is in Two Divisions: (1) Foreign Countries and their Dependencies; and (2) England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, Dominions Beyond the Seas and Possessions.

(1) The Foreign Division embraces the various Foreign Countries and their Colonies to which British Manufactures are exported. They are arranged under the following heads: Europe (Continental); the United States of America; America (Central and South); Asia and Africa. With each country will be found a concise statistical account of its imports and exports, its ports and principal towns, with classified lists of the Consuls, Bankers, Merchants (Importers and Exporters), Commission Merchants, Brokers and Shipping Agents, and Buyers of British Goods, or Manufacturers of those exported.

(2) The British Division which forms the Second Division of the Work, embraces the Names and Addresses of Merchants and actual Manufacturers in the United Kingdom arranged in alphabetical order and classified according to Trades, and in the British Dominions and Possessions throughout the World. Classified trade lists are also given of the Merchants and Shippers exporting British Goods, and of the Importers of Colonial and Foreign Goods into the United Kingdom.

All Trade Headings are given in English and French and in the Commercial language of the country to which the information refers, so that the Directory can be readily used by the people of any country—the more so owing to the full indices given in the four principal languages of the World (Russian being now included).
